Hard Riding for Indian—

T. A. 64, an Apache Indian wanted for displaying firearms, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Duncan last night after some hard riding by various members of the sheriff's office who visited pretty much every corner of the landscape this side of Cutter. It was only long after dark that the wanted Indian thought it safe to come back from that exceedingly interesting rabbit hunt, but he did come back and today he will "tell it to the judge."

Landers Crossman—

Albert Landers and Miss Hazel Crossman were married yesterday by Justice Hinson Thomas, the official witness being Mrs. Laura Crossman, Mrs. Emma Watson and Miss Hattie Baker. The contracting parties are well known young people at Miami, where they have many friends.

More Chinese Evidence—

Hong Loocy, the Chinese merchant being sued by his creditors before Justice Hinson Thomas, had more Chinese evidence before the court yesterday afternoon, this time offering the books of his establishment for the enlightenment of Attorneys Weinberger and French and the edification of the court. The books looked like an elegant collection of laundry tickets done up in a sort of edition de luxe, but the attorneys had taken care to provide an interpreter, who told them that what had seemed so terribly mystifying the day before meant nothing more than four bits worth of dried shrimp and "lees can w'at white peep no can." There was more of it, but all pretty much of the same tenor, and the case was again continued in order to secure more evidence as to the ownership of the cash register sued on.

Received Sad News—

A. H. Hargrave yesterday received the sad news of the death of his mother at Eldorado, Ill. She had been very ill for some time and Mr. Hargrave had but recently returned from a visit to her bedside.

East Globe Residents Meet—

A lively meeting of residents and property holders in the East Globe township was held last night at the district courtroom, with Probate Judge P. C. Robertson in the chair and Miss Bessie Downing as treasurer, the object of the meeting being to decide what was to be done with the funds left over from the expense of filing the titles to the several claims in the township, a matter of $3100. After much discussion in which Judge Lucas, Attorney Jacobs and others took part, it was finally decided to appoint a committee of five to look over the ground and report to a meeting next Monday as to what would best be done with the money in the way of public improvements. The committee named by the chair consists of the following: Louis Roberts, Belcher, J. W. Wentworth, Attorney Whitecher and D. R. Hughes.

Local Talent in Play—

Several local young people who have demonstrated their histrionic ability in the past will appear in "A Debt of Honor," which will be presented Saturday evening, February 27, at Dreamland by the Globe Dramatic club. Following are the names of those who will take part: Gladys Kelsey, Mrs. Bowman, Fern Bowman, Jack Heathers, Arthur Francis, Roy James, John Davis, Chester Husband and Larry Cusack. Miss Kelsey will have the leading woman's part.

Death of Mrs. Scott—

The body of Mrs. Mary Scott, who died Sunday morning at her home in Cottonwood street, has been removed to the funeral parlors of F. L. Jones & Son and will be kept there until the arrival of her brother from Columbus, Ohio, who is expected this evening. Until his arrival arrangements for the funeral will be postponed. Mrs. Scott leaves a daughter, Miss Jessie, who will return east with her uncle. Mrs. Scott had been in poor health for a long time previous to her death.

Error Corrected—

An error was made yesterday in stating that Will Ellery had accepted a position with the First National bank. Mr. Ellery has been bookkeeper for William Mill Williams for several years, and leaves there to take employment with the Globe National bank.

Deep Snow at Gibson's—

Forest Ranger Taylor yesterday brought in the news that snow in the hills near Gibson's is two feet deep, and in the Graham mountains is in places twenty-two feet deep. This large amount of snow will furnish an excellent flow of water far into the summer and will be of great benefit to farming interests.

Store Busy All Day—

The store of Levy Brothers was busy all day yesterday, as it was the day before, and great crowds came and went, attracted by the bargains offered in closing out the stock of women's goods taken over from Mrs. W. G. Dikeman. G. W. Huntzinger and other salesmen are waiting on the trade. Mr. Levy previous to opening his store made a vigorous advertising campaign in the columns of the Silver Belt, and if you don't believe advertising pays, just step over and watch the crowds at Levy's.

Wall Collapses—

The retaining wall which bounds the lot recently condemned by the city for street purposes, formerly owned by Charles Slack, toppled over during the storm of last Sunday, falling more than ten feet and smashing the stable in which Mr. Slack keeps a team of horses. Suit for damages has been entered by Mr. Slack against the city.

Serious Operation—

Mrs. L. Walliman yesterday at the Old Dominion hospital underwent a very serious operation entirely successfully, under the direction of Drs. Holt and Kennedy. Mrs. Walliman will be confined to the hospital for several weeks.

Nearly Died in Mountains—

Harry Johnson and Tim Kelly, two cow punchers who started out of this city at an early hour Sunday morning, were saved from freezing to death by Tom Connolly and Dick Carlton, two prospectors, who came upon them just in the nick of time, as the cowboys were plodding aimlessly through Western gulch. Johnson and Kelly had been drinking heavily before they left town at about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The rain and snow storm overtook them on the way, and when the prospectors met them in Western gulch, the two cow punchers were about all in, down and out. The sufferers were led back some distance to a woodpile, where a huge fire was kindled, and, duly thawed out, set again upon their way, thoroughly sobered. It was at about the same spot that Jim Boles, some years ago, was so numbed with cold that he fell off his horse and froze to death, his body being recovered about a week later.

Limestone on Streets—

Street Superintendent Floyd Blevins is elated with the results he has so far attained in experiments with limestone chips from the Old Dominion quarry in street surfacing. Broad street, between Bone and Pine, has been surfaced with this material, giving the best of satisfaction.

Opening New Business—

Frank Ringgold, an experienced business man, who is well known in this city, has purchased the location of Steve Halby and will start in business there March 1, running a delicatessen and fruit store, Steve Halby moving down below the Broad street bridge.

Under Heavy Ball—

George Dorn, the negro who was arrested by Deputy Marshal Cochran for selling liquor to Indians, was placed under a $1000 bond by United States Commissioner Johnson yesterday to appear before the federal grand jury. Dorn was detected through statements made by Indians before Justice Pratt at the hearing following the rioting on the reservation Sunday before last. The Indians are more ready than ever to give the names of those who sell them liquor, and this sort of business is becoming extremely hazardous.

Middleton Building Nearly Done—

The two-story brick building being erected by Leroy Middleton in North Broad street has nearly reached completion, one side of the ground floor already being occupied by Bailey & Sons as a blacksmith shop. The other side of the ground floor will be devoted to commercial use, and the upper floor will be used as a rooming house. The building, constructed of the best quality of brick, is one of the handsomest in that end of town and will be, when finished, an ornament to North Broad street.

Workers Locate Mine—

One running 11 per cent copper, 15 per cent sulphur and ten ounces in silver to the ton, according to an assay made by C. B. Hudson, is what is to be had from the surface of a new claim located in the foothills of the Sleeping Beauty mountain, about ten miles from town, by Fred Dickson and Martin Despot, with whom are associated Albert Riekland, Wade Sotel, John Kendall, Ben Spodeck, Ed Laoney, and John Pargas, all of whom visited the claim yesterday and returned delighted with the prospects of the property, on which a tunnel 125 feet deep has been driven. R. B. Hegardt, George Kingdon and H. V. Snell will visit the property today.

THIS IS THURSDAY, FEB. 25.

Change night at the Majestic, and we are presenting a big double bill, unquestionably the strongest yet produced by the Jas. P. Lee Comedy Players.

DANCE OF GLOBE CITY BAND

Boys Need the Money and Are Deserving of a Good Crowd at Their Hop Saturday Evening.

The Globe City band will give another of its popular social dances Saturday evening at the Globe Bakery hall. The dances given by the band in the past have been well attended, and deservedly so. The Globe City band is one of the best musical organizations in the territory and compares favorably with the bands of much larger cities—bands which receive much more liberal support. The band has been forced recently to pay rent for Firemen's hall, an expense from which they have been exempt in the past, and it is partly for this purpose that the funds to be raised at the dance will be used. The band will give a free concert on the street before the dance Saturday evening and will furnish the music for the dance. The public is earnestly invited to come out and enjoy the evening with the musicians and all are guaranteed a good time.

MEDAL IS OFFERED

HIGH SCHOOL WILL COMPETE IN DECLAMATORY CONTEST TO DECIDE WINNER.

One of the most interesting school functions of the year will occur Saturday evening, March 6, when seven students of the High school will compete for a gold medal offered by the Hon. George W. P. Hunt to the best speaker in a declamatory contest. The students who will participate and their selections are as follows: Ethel Herndon, "My Christmas Story." Winnie Belcher, "The Battle of Waterloo." Ada Lange, "The Old Surgeon's Story." Ruby Johnson, "Death of the Old Squire." George Belcher, "One Day Solitary." Douglas Duncan, "Mare Antony's Oration," (Revised). Arthur Pavitte, "Winning a World." The entertainment of the evening will be varied by good music and the presentation of a funny farce entitled "We're All Teetotalers," in which the parts are all taken by students of the High school. The program is so planned that there will be no monotony and no tedious waits. Added interest is given to the contest by the fact that the winner not only receives the gold medal referred to above, but will be sent to Tempe to represent the Globe High school in the territorial declamatory contest to be held there on the evening of March 13. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to pay the expenses of the contestant who is sent to Tempe. The young people should be encouraged in this effort by good attendance. The entertainment will be well worth the small admission fee charged, so when the youthful ticket agents call on you, be prepared to be generous, and, above all, don't plan anything else for Saturday evening, March 6.

THIS IS THURSDAY, FEB. 25.

Change night at the Majestic, and we are presenting a big double bill, unquestionably the strongest yet produced by the Jas. P. Lee Comedy Players.
