DISTRICT COURT HAS BUSY DAY

MORE EVIDENCE DESIRED IN ROSE A. WOODS SUIT FOR DIVORCE

BOTH SIDES LOSE LOT CASE

DECISION MAKES HOUR OF FILING IN LIEN CASES UNNECESSARY

In the district court yesterday, Rose A. Woods, who is suing her husband, Harry A. Woods, for a divorce, introduced the testimony of a number of witnesses, through Attorney J. M. McCollum, representing Jones & Flannigan, to show that her spouse had failed to provide for her the proper necessities of life.

Much testimony in the case was heard, but as the court desired additional evidence in the matter, the case was continued until this morning, when it will be completed.

Both Sides Lose

In the suit of Mrs. Nan Smith vs. H. A. Brewer, to quiet title to a number of lots in East Globe, neither side won a victory.

The court decided that neither the plaintiff nor defendant had a valid claim to the property in question, and the matter was referred to Judge P. C. Robertson, ex-officio trustee of the townsite, for disposition of the property.

Interesting Point Settled

An interesting point of law was settled in the suit of Goodwin vs. Rubottom, regarding the necessity of indicating the hour of filing a judgment from the justice court in lien cases, to make the filing a valid one.

It has been decided in the past that unless the clerk of the district court indicated the hour of the filing of a lien, that such lien is invalid. In the case which was disposed of yesterday, however, Judge Lewis decided that the indicating of the hour was not necessary.

As to whether this rule will hold good in attachments which do not go through the justice court, remains to be settled.

In the suit in question, both the plaintiff and the defendant filed suit for a lien on the property of H. C. Coffee, both holding that their claims were valid.

In the suit of E. T. Stewart vs. F. Ewing, a demurrer of the defendant was sustained. Judgments for the plaintiffs were granted in the suit of Morehead & Lunn vs. W. H. Mercer and J. C. McNeil vs. W. H. Mercer.

Lieut. Sutton's Death to Be Investigated

ANNAPOLIS, July 14.—Keen interest is taken in the forthcoming re-investigation of the death of Lieutenant Sutton, who, according to the finding of prior investigators, committed suicide. "Lieutenant Sutton shot at a man who was at the back of his neck, holding his head to the ground."

This was the version of the shooting by an officer of high rank, who will be an important witness in the coming investigation Monday.

"I examined Sutton's wounds after the shooting," the officer explained. "I tried holding a revolver in the same position and am convinced he believed the shot would hit the man on his back, but sent the bullet crashing through his own head."

The statement was made tonight by insurance men that Sutton carried $20,000 on his life, and that being officially declared a suicide invalidated the claim.

BOLIVIA AND PERU STILL HOSTILE

BUENOS AYRES, July 14.—The minister of foreign affairs received a telegram from Senor Fonseca, Argentine minister at La Paz, announcing he has left that city. Hostile demonstrations against Argentine and Peru continue and Mme. Fonseca was obliged to take refuge in the artillery barracks. The Bolivian minister at Buenos Ayres has addressed a note to the minister of foreign affairs explaining his reasons for refusing to participate in the official pronouncement of decision. The Bolivian minister declares that his government considers it imperative, before accepting the decision, that the reasons on which President Alcorca based his decision be submitted.

The foreign minister replied to this by a note pointing out that the simplest as well as necessary way for him to learn the official decision and the reasons therefor, would have been by accepting his invitation to appear at the foreign office.

A resolution to place under control of the subordinate lodges the $50,000 contributed to the 'Frisco disaster sufferers was tabled, leaving the money in the hands of the grand lodge as an emergency fund. Thousands of visitors spent the greater portion of the day at the beaches, enjoying yacht and motor boat races and fish barbecues.

In the afternoon they went to Ascot park, where at a championship meeting of the Pacific Coast Amateur Athletic league, Harry McLean, the runner from the Phoenix Indian school, furnished a sensation by overcoming a hundred yard lead of the 'Frisco Olympic club champion in the last quarter of a two-mile race, and beating him by fifty yards in 9 minutes and 54 seconds, within three seconds of the record.

TARIFF CONFERENCE HAS STRENUOUS SESSION

PROVISIONS FOR COURT OF CUSTOMS APPEALS PASSED BY CONFEREES

WASHINGTON, July 14.—Objections were raised by house members of the tariff conference today to the senate provision in the maximum and minimum features of the tariff bill, which gives the president authority to employ persons as he may desire, to aid him in enforcing the tariff laws. This opposition alone prevented the adoption of practically all sections dealing with the administration.

The provision establishing a court of customs appeals was adopted. The five judges salaries were fixed at $10,000 instead of $7,000.

When adjournment was taken at 3 o'clock, maximum and minimum provision had been agreed upon tentatively as a substitute for the house feature with the exception of employment of tariff experts.

GINGLES CASE WILL REACH JURY ON FRIDAY

CLOSE OF STATE'S CASE AGAINST LACEMAKER WITH RACY TESTIMONY

CHICAGO, July 14.—The state closed its case against Ella Gingles today. It is expected that the defense will rest tomorrow noon and that the case will reach the jury Friday.

The last witness to appear against the young Irish lacemaker was Agnes May Barrette, proprietor of the lace store, who is said to figure in plots against the girl.

Attorney Short spared Miss Barrette the recital of acts which had been charged against her.

"I will simply ask you," said Short, "if you ever attempted to sell this girl into 'white slavery'; if you ever abused or assaulted her in the Wellington hotel, or had any knowledge of these things?"

"No, sir," replied Miss Barrette, in tears. "It is a falsehood from beginning to end."

Much to the surprise of both prosecution and spectators, P. H. O'Donnell, counsel for the defense, excused Miss Barrette without asking her any questions.

The state brought three witnesses from Canada, who had known the defendant. A Canadian photographer testified that Miss Gingles came to him giving the name of "Wilson," and had him take her picture in a lace gown.

In direct testimony, Miss Gingles declared it was the reproduction of a photograph taken in Ireland. The picture showed her in a dress belonging to her employer's wife, Mrs. D. S. Thornton of Belleville, Ont.

FLYNN BESTS PAPKE IN FAST TEN ROUND BOUT

Outpointed in The Early Rounds, Pueblo Fireman Outclasses Dutchman and Finishes in the Lead

LOS ANGELES, July 14.—In a fast ten round bout before the Pacific Athletic club tonight, Jim Flynn, the scrapping Pueblo fireman, won a shade over Billy Papke.

Starting the fight in whirlwind fashion, Papke took a decided shade in the opening rounds. Before the contest was half over, however, Flynn was gaining ground and at the end of the mill had a decided advantage.

No decision was given, a local ordinance preventing it.

Papke was a ten to six favorite in the betting. Flynn had the edge over him in weight by eight pounds.

Round 5—A hard right to the face followed by a right and left to the pit of the stomach had Flynn badly dazed. Flynn reached Papke's head with right and left uppercuts and Papke got to the body.

Round 6—Flynn opened with hard right over heart and rushed Papke, landing to the head. Both men were bleeding freely. Flynn knocked Papke through the ropes with a right swing. Papke reached Flynn with a right to the jaw. They clinched, Papke holding on. Flynn sent Papke against the ropes with blows to the head. Papke appeared distressed.

Round 9—Flynn made Papke run away with uppercuts. Papke reached Flynn's badly swollen left eye. Flynn fought Papke to the ropes, but the German held his own. They exchanged straight lefts. Papke continued to butt Flynn.

Round 10—Papke began playing for the body, but Flynn made him back up with a terrific right to the head. Flynn rushed Papke to the ropes, reaching the head with a right. They exchanged body blows. Flynn again rushed Papke to ropes. A right uppercut caught Papke in the mouth and Flynn landed an overhand blow to the head. Flynn landed hard right to Papke's face and hammered him hard on the kidneys in the clinch, as the gong sounded.

SHERIFF THOMPSON RETURNING WITH PRISONER

J. C. PHILLIPSON, CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLING, NOW ON WAY TO GLOBE

HE OFFERED NO RESISTANCE

MAY ASK FOR BAIL UNTIL THE FALL TERM OF THE COURT

According to a telegram received by Undersheriff Frank Haynes yesterday, Sheriff Henry Thompson is now on his way to Globe with J. C. Phillipson, wanted here on a charge of having embezzled several thousand dollars.

Unless there was some unforeseen delay in Sheriff Thompson's arrangements, he left Edmondton, Canada, where Phillipson was arrested and detained, yesterday morning. He should arrive here within the next ten days, with his prisoner.

Phillipson offered no resistance to being brought back, not even asking that the requisition papers, held by Sheriff Thompson, be duly certified to by the department of state at Washington.

Phillipson will undoubtedly make application for bail, when he is brought back to Globe, as his trial can not take place until the fall term of court, if he is held to answer to the grand jury by the lower court.

PLANS TO RAPP PINAL CREEK BANK

WORK WILL EXTEND FROM CAR SHOPS TO MESQUITE STREET

THE JOB WILL TAKE WEEKS

WILL PROTECT YARDS FROM WASHOUTS AND GIVE MORE ROOM

The work of rip-rapping the east bank of Pinal creek, upon which Contractor B. F. Harmsen has been working for the past two weeks, will be carried out from the Gwa Valley shops to Mesquite street, according to a contract entered into by the railroad company and Mr. Harmsen yesterday.

It was the original intention of the company to carry out his work from the shops only a short distance north, toward the passenger depot. The new appropriation provides for a continuation of this work, however, and the work of putting the stone work in place will commence within the next few days.

Rock for this work will be secured from the dacite quarry, below town. Nearly a quarter of a mile of rip-rap work will be put in place, and it will require several weeks to complete the task.

By the carrying out of this project, the Gila Valley railroad will not only protect its property in this city from washouts, but will gain a considerable amount of new ground in the local yards.

SAN DIEGO UP IN ARMS AGAINST RACING

MEXICO ASKED TO RESCIND PROPOSED GRANT OF COURSE AT TIA JUANA

WASHINGTON, July 14.—The concession recently granted by the Mexican government to a company of horse race promoters in California, for the establishment of a race course at Tia Juana, Lower California, will probably be rescinded, as the people of San Diego have protested in strong terms. Petitions have come to the state department, with the result that the department has recently communicated with President Diaz, through the American ambassador.

It was pointed out that encouragement of horse racing in Tia Juana, which had become outlawed in California, would be offensive in the eyes of the people of that state.

It was stated that the United States did not question Mexico's right to grant the concession, but in view of the universal protest in California, it is hoped that the Mexican government will rescind. No response has yet been received.
