CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. McCarthy, of 411 Cedar street, entertained a few of their friends at a wedding Monday afternoon in honor of the tenth anniversary of their marriage.

The host and hostess were the recipients of many gifts made from the shins of metal. Some of these will find use in the kitchen but were chosen solely for the mirth they would cause upon presentation. Gifts were all accompanied by congratulatory verses, most of which had been composed by the donors, and a great deal of merriment was read.

The evening was spent in playing which was a very lively and interesting one. The prize for the highest score was won by Mrs. Nave, and the consolation prize, a hard refreshment, consisting of many refreshments, were served, and general good wishes were extended upon the host and hostess.

The following guests were present: Mrs. T. Sturgeon, Dr. and Mrs. P. Kennedy, Judge and Mrs. Nave, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hurd, and Mrs. L. O. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Purdum, Mr. C. Mallard.

PORTENHANSEN MARRIAGE

A quiet wedding occurred Monday afternoon at the home of Judge H. H. Hurd when Miss Josephine Porten and John Hansen were united in marriage.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Pratt about 5 o'clock, Mrs. Pratt, Mr. W. H. Rawlings acting as witness.

The bride and groom have recently arrived from Jerome and will reside in this city.

MASQUERADE POSTPONED

The children's masquerade ball which has been given by the ladies of the John's Guild on Friday evening, November 12, has been postponed for a week or two. This action has been taken on account of the development of a few cases of scarlet fever in the city. It is deemed better to be cautious and proper measures have been taken to isolate those who have contracted the disease or who have been exposed. After a few weeks when all danger has passed the masquerade will be given as originally planned.

It will be better in some ways as it will give the mothers a longer time to get the children ready, and it will enable the ladies to arrange for special drills and fancy dances which would otherwise have been possible.

FRATERNAL SOCIETIES

The Mountain Chapter, No. 8, of the Order of the Eastern Star, met Monday night at Odd Fellows hall. The meeting was largely attended and, besides the regular business, several causes were initiated. After the conclusion of the business session a very interesting social hour was spent, the entertainment committee having supplied a variety of good things in the way of refreshments.

Brother Woman's Relief Corps, No. 12, met yesterday afternoon at Odd Fellows hall.

SAFFORD NEWS BUDGET

MRS. W. D. FRENCH, Correspondent

SAFFORD, October 26.—The school children from the sixth grade up have been working overtime on plans for a bazaar next Friday afternoon at the school house. Money is needed to stock up the school library, to buy books and for other wants that the board cannot fill. Misses Purdum and Hurd have the matter in charge and the plans sound very promising. Different rooms will be devoted to special objects such as: a postoffice; the telling booth; ice cream, candy, pop, corn, lemonade and other refreshments; a kitchen where tamales, sandwiches, coffee, cocoa and other things are sold a play room devoted to all kinds of games a small auditorium for dancing and one where work, paper flowers, dolls, doll furniture and other things made by the girls are disposed of. The pupils advertising the affair well by putting up hand made signs that attract attention to the work of a personal nature.

Miss Hunsaker came in from El Paso Tuesday evening.

Miss M. Perry of Clifton registered at the hotel yesterday.

Miss Mabel Weber left last night for where she will visit for a few days.

Miss Lillian Henson of Solomonville entertained Miss Mary Tucker as guest this evening.

J. Duffy, district fiscal agent in the treasury department, stationed at Safford, left this morning for his post of duty.

A. J. Leggett, of Chicago, was an interesting speaker last evening.

Mr. G. H. Clifton is a business manager in Safford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurd were putting up hay in the Purdum ranch, about two miles from Safford and, in an attempt to do the work, one of them, Castalia Hurd, was crushed and instantly killed. An inquest was held and a verdict of accidental death was given.

Y. S. Sandstead, of St. Louis, is in town.

Mr. Markowitz, of Los Angeles, arrived town last night.

Mr. Duffy is sick with the grip.

Postmaster T. T. Swift was giving a best demonstration of pack and riding in the open today as part of the necessary examination for a license.

lows hall. Most of the members have now returned to their homes and there was a better attendance at yesterday's meeting than at any previous meeting during the summer.

The Improved Order of Red Men held a regular business meeting last night at Fashion hall.

The Knights of the Maccabees met last night at the Trades Labor Union hall. No special business came before the meeting but it is expected that there will be some initiations in the near future.

EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth League devotional service of last Sunday was largely attended, there being sixty-two present.

The topic for the hour was "The Prodigal's Return." An able discourse upon this subject was delivered by R. E. Whalley, who was the leader of their evening. Many short talks were made by members and friends, and in general a most profitable hour was evidenced. The devotional exercises of the league are held every Sunday afternoon at 8:30 in the Epworth League Free Reading rooms.

CLUB MEETING

The Wednesday club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. C. Bruner.

In response to roll call the ladies will name the various mineral products of India.

Mrs. H. P. Cory will read a paper on the manufactures of India.

The remainder of the program will be slightly changed from that outlined in the year book, owing to the absence of the ladies who were to read the papers.

Woman's Beauty

Some women retain their beauty to an advanced age. But women, who regularly endure pain, age rapidly, for suffering leaves its lasting marks on them.

Nearly all women suffer more or less with some form of female trouble. It should not be neglected. Avoid the pain—treat yourself at home by taking Cardui, as thousands of other women have done. Begin at once and give Cardui a fair trial.

TAKE CARDUI

It Will Help You

Mrs. Katie Burlison, Goreville, Ill., tried Cardui and writes: "I suffered with female troubles, and was so sick I could not stand on my feet. Finally I began to take Cardui, and soon began to mend. Now I am able to do all my housework and am in much better health than I was before." Try it.
