Master James Clinton, after spending several weeks with his grandmother, in St. Joseph, returned to Natchez with Mrs. G. H. Clinton, on Thursday last.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Whitney, Mrs. B. F. Young and Misses Mattie Lewis and Clara Whitney spent Saturday at the camp on Tensas River, where they were the guests of Mesdames Hays and Watson and Misses Eliza Whitney and Julia Clarkson, who dispensed most graciously the hospitality of camp life.

The hunt is reported as progressing in a most profitable and enjoyable manner. Two fine buck were secured by the Nimrods of the party, Messrs. E. L. Gulley and Harrison Miller.

The camp is located in the heart of a sportsman Paradise, occupying a very attractive site overlooking the river, which offers finest sport for anglers and devotees of the motor boat. Through the courtesy of Mr. Dwight Stone, who very kindly placed his comfortable boat at the disposal of the campers, some very delightful excursions were enjoyed by the young people.

On Saturday evening last, Miss Willie Lewis entertained a number of her young friends at a jolly Halloween re-union. At the witching hour of eight, the "spooks," in phantom guise, glided mysteriously in. At the door they were received by three little witches, Misses Janie and Berta Newell and Miss May Young.

The rooms were decorated with sheaves of golden rod and autumn leaves, and jack-o-lanterns with dim lights casting a weird aspect over the scene of the r ghostly festivities.

The jolly spooks held high revel until the mid-night hour, when a most tempting menu was served.

The fun of the evening was greatly enhanced by a headless witch contest, in which each contestant was blind-folded and told to pin the missing head on the picture of a witch. Cleon Proby was the winner of the first prize and James Rowan the booby.

The guests were Misses Laura Boudurant, Almeda Vanhoose, Mary Riddle, Elise Hazlip, May Young, Ida and Annie Hornsby, Annie Snodgrass, Clyde Blanche, Inez French, Katie Smith and Messrs. Alex Blanche, Cleon Proby, Joe Harper, Jas. Rowan, Jim Curry, Curry McPherson, Garner Tullis, Will McCamley, Albert Boudurant, Sam Hazlip and Edgar Riddle.

EDISON AMBEROL RECORDS

Are the New Phonograph Records that Play Twice as Long as the Regular Edison Records.

This is not done by making the record larger or longer, but by engraving more than twice as many lines to the inch as on the regular record. Thus Amberol records can be used in the Standard Sizes of Edison Phonographs by the addition of a simple attachment or gear. These new records not only play longer than any other record made but they play better, their tone quality being richer, clearer and more delicate than has been possible in the past.

To play Amberol records on you present phonograph requires an attachment comprising a change gear and a new reproducer. We have this attachment in stock. Write for prices and catalogues.
