THE WHITLA CHILD ABDUCTION.

(New Orleans Picayune.)

The abduction of young children from parents who are fond of them is always a horrifying event because there are so many possibilities of evil to the little ones that the parents suffer more than if their offsprings had fallen victims to some fatal disease.

These abductions are perpetratparents through threats that if the children are not promptly re-deemed the little ones will be exposed to frightful tortures and death. In this connection many of the Picayune's readers will rethe authorities got very hot on the trail he was cruelly murdered by the miscreants, who were seeking to extort money from his parents. Some of the criminals concerned were caught, tried and awarded terms of imprisonment, inadequate penalties for the mur-der of the little one, and for the unspeakable agonies inflicted on the parents.

These observations were suggested by the abduction of the Whitla boy who was stolen some days ago from his parents in Sharon, Pa., and was recovered on Sunday last by his father on payment of $10,000. The news came late last night that the villians had been caught in Cleveland and most of the money recovered.

One of the most memoral of such cases was the abduction of Charley Ross, a Philadelphia child, many years ago. Instead of paying the ransom demanded, the parents put the police on the case with the result that the child was never recovered and no trace of the abductors was discovered. Another notable case was a young son of Cudahy, a millionaire pork packer at Omaha. He recovered his child by paying a hundred thousand dollars of ransom money. Some years afterward a man named Crowe, who was charged with the abduction, was arrested and brought to trial, but for some reason or other he could not be convicted. So far as the noted cases are concerned the abductors have generally got the money they demanded, and have so far escaped any punishment whatever save in case of the Lamana child in this city, and they would have escaped if their crime had not been planned almost under the eyes of the child's parents by the persons who were known to them, so that clews were readily discovered. But for these circumstances in all probability the Lamana child's abductors would have been lyn Hunter were flower girls. quite as successful in getting away as were the others.

While there is no water in sight yet to warrant grave alarm, the outlook is not at all favorable. A general rainy condition is re ported in the upper valleys, which. with the present stages, is cause ents, consisting principal for anxious concern. Much lands out glass, which attested out side of the levees, which raised of the bride and groom. no crops last year, are already under water. Of course at this season there is a good margin of hope that the river will subside in time for planting. It is repetition, but there is nothing else to say of the situation, than that the high water future is a question of rainfall; on this all forecasts of the ultimate flood height and duration depends .- Vicksburg Hernld.

FARRAR-MUIR.

The marriage of Mr. S. Duncan Farrar, Jr., to Miss Josephine Muir, which ccurred on Thursday the 25th instant, at First Presbyterian Church, on Lake St. Joseph, was a very happy affair and was witnessed by a large gathering of friends and well-wishers of the young

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Hillhouse, of Vicksburg, and at its conclusion the bridal party and guests repaired to the beautiful country home of the bride's parents on "Sunflower" plantation, where a magnificent reception was tendered.

The entire affair was marked by the nost perfect taste; happy faces, exquisite most perfect taste; happy faces, exquisite flowers, beautiful presents and heart-felt congratulations were in evidence, all contributing to one of the happiest and most auspicious occasions which marks the social history of our parish.

The groom is the eldest son of Mr. S. D. Farrar, one of our most prominent citizens and planters. He is a progressive young man, faithful to duty and has hosts of friends, all of whom recognize his many manly qualities.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Muir, one of the oldest familie of this parish. She is one of Tensa loveliest girls; fair of face, admirable of character, a devoted daughter and sised for the purpose of extorting ter, she possesses every attribute of true large sums of money from the womanhood and will bring to her new estate all of the qualities necessary to constitute the loving wife and to make happy home.

The Gazette only voices the sentiments of a wide circle of friends of Mr. and Mrs. Farrar when it expresses the hope call the case of the little Lamann boy who was stolen in this city and held for ransom, and when live always in the sunshine of life, the shadows falling elsewhere.

CONNER-GRAVES.

On Wednesday evening, March 24th, at 7 o'clock, Mr. Haney B. Conner was married to Miss Margaret Estelle Graves at the M. E. Church, in Waterproof, Rey. Norman Guice, a cousin of the bride, officiating.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Everett Graves of Waterproof, La., talented and cultivated, endowed with all the charms that have ever graced our Southern women, the circle of whose admirers is as wide Yas her acquaintanceship. The groom is a native of Chattanooga, Tenn., having come to this parish several years ago to accept a position in the public school work. For a time his home was in St. Joseph, from which place he moved to Waterproof, where he took charge of the High School as principal. He made many friends both in the social and business life of this parish, and his ability and worth were recognized when he was invited to accept the position of cashier ef the Waterproof bank, in which capacity he has fully demonstrated the wisdom of those who advocated his can didacy for that place. The church was beautifully decorated with a profusion of evergreen and flowers, the color scheme being green and white. The bride entered on the arm of her father, who gave her away. Her gown was of white satin, princess effect with train. She wore a wreath of orange blossoms, the bridal veil was caught with a jewel. The maid of honor, Miss Ludie Graves, was gowned in white lingerie and carried flowers; Miss Essie Marks, bridesmaid, wore an exquisite white satin princess, and also carried flowers. Mr. Guy N. Hunter was best man, Dr. J. E. Slicer and Mr. Robt. S.

Graves were ushers. The gentlemen of the bridal party all wore evening dress. Mendlesshon's Wedding March was exquisitely rendered by Miss Elizabeth Gorton, Rev. Norman Guice sang "Be cause" as the bridal party entered. Little Misses Mariam White and Eve

From the church the bridal party and guests returned to the home of the bride where a reception was tendered them and delicious refreshments were served and the health of the happy couple was drunk in many a flowing cup. The color scheme of the church was carried out in the home decorations. In the parlor were displayed the numerous and costly presents, consisting principally of silver and cut glass, which attested the popularity

The wedding and reception were at tended by a large number of relatives and friends both from this parish and

The Gazette extends its congratula tions and wishes for Mr. and Mrs. Con-ner a life of perfect happiness.

RAYMOND-ANDREWS.

The numerous friends of the contracting parties will be interested to know that at New Orleans on the 17th inst., Mr. Guy S. Raymond, until recently of Washngton, Miss., and Miss Mary Andrews, daughter of Dr. Mark Andnews, of Waterproof, were married. Mr. Raymond has recently been offered an advantageous connection for resuming the general practice of law, at San Antonio, Texas, and it was on the eve of his leaving to take up his new work that he met his future bride at New Orleans, where she was visiting, and they were married. They left at once for San Antonio, which will be their future home.

The Coopers Given Bail.

Nashville, Tenn., March 20-After filing a bond totaling nearly a million and a half, Colonel D. B. Cooper and Robin J. Cooper, convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary for the killing of former United States Senator E. W. Carmack, retired to the home of Judge J. G. Bradford to-night and discussed the next move in the case.

Although Judge Hart fixed the bond at $25,000, for each defendant, there was a rush to sign it on the part of the wealthy citi-zens of Nashville which fairly swamped the clerk of the criminal court. In vain he protested over and over again that more than enough sureties had been signed, but the invariable answer was "we want to put our name on that bond too." It seemed as though every friend of the Cooper's considered it incumbent upon him to sign the bond. When there was no more room for names at the foot of the document, the new bondsmen endorsed it across the face until it was difficult to discipher the signatures.

The Cooper's returned to the jail this evening late and removed their personal effects. For the present Colonel Cooper will make his home with Mrs. Burch and Robin will return to his old quarters with his uncle Judge J. C. Bradford.
