

$3.50 RECIPE CURES WEAK KIDNEYS, FREE

RELIEVES URINARY AND KIDNEY TROUBLES, BACKACHE, STRAIN-ING, SWELLING, ETC.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the aching, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the dependency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a QUICK RECOVERY, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this:
Dr. A. E. Robinson, K-290 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.
It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home.

In Perplexity.
"Michael Dolan, an' 'is it yourself?"
"Yes, sure it is."
"Well, ye know that bletherin' spalpeen, Widdy Castigan's second husband?"
"That I do."
"He bet me a bob to a pint I couldn't swally an egg without break-in the shell or it."
"An' ye did it?"
"I did."
"Then what's allin' ye?"
"It's doon there," laying his hand on the lower part of his waistcoat. "If I jump about I'll break it and cut me stomach wid the shell, an' if I kape quiet I'll hatch and I'll have a Shanghai rooster scratchin' me inside."

DO IT NOW.

If you have the slightest symptom of kidney trouble, begin using Doan's Kidney Pills at once. Delay may lead to dropsy, diabetes, or fatal Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills began curring sick kidneys 75 years ago. They have been curing kidney trouble ever since.

Mrs. William Mc-Gregor, 711 Little
St., Pendleton, Ore., says: "All my life my kidneys had troubled me. I bloated terribly, could not control the kidney secretions and suffered intense backache. Finally I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and was cured completely. I had previously doctored without relief."

Remember the name—Doan's.

Benny on Benevolence.
Benevolence is a great thing. When you have benevolence you cannot rest until you do something to make other people feel grateful to you. The other day my mamma went up into the attic to find a lot of old clothes to give to poor people who could not afford to buy any clothes for themselves. While she was hunting around she found a gold-headed cane worth $25 that grandpa had put up there 18 years ago, and forgot all about. Thus we see, dear friends, benevolence brings its own reward.—Benny.

Triumph of Optimism.
"How are you feeling today, uncle?" asked the robust nephew of his aged and feeble kinsman.

"Pretty well, pretty well!" quavered that feeble optimist, "my rheumatism is bothering me a good deal and my arthritis is worse than it was yesterday. I've got a slight headache and I went down to the dentist today and had all but two of my teeth pulled, but thank heaven those two are opposite each other!"

Was All Right.
Howard—Did you telephone Mrs.
Howard that I would be detained at the office until midnight?
Office Boy—Yes, sir.
"And what did she say?"
"She said she'd blame you—she had made an engagement to go to the theater herself."—Smart Set.

Discouraging.
"George," said her husband's wife,
"I don't believe you have smoked one of those cigars I gave you on your birthday."
"That's right, my dear," replied his wife's husband. "I'm going to keep them until our Willie wants to learn to smoke."

Winter Turbans

THIS is decidedly a season of draped hats with velvets the leading fabric for draperies. Entire hats are made of it and numbers of others are combinations of velvet and silk, velvet and tapestry, velvet and fur, or beaver cloth or any of the millinery fabrics.

These draped hats are, naturally, made on turban shapes, whose inspiration in most cases, is plainly drawn from the oriental headdress. Many of them set closely to the head, and some of them so close that they might be classed as caps. They are becoming and full of "style," that elusive quality which is worth so much to the milliner in money and to the wearer in "distinction."

Large turbans bordered with shaggy furs, have crowns of velvet draped and cleverly arranged into trimming.

Other shapes show crowns of velvet with brims of tapestry, and velvet or of silk folded and tacked about the brim. A big bow of the fabric finishes a simple model of this sort, as shown in the illustration. But any other trimming that is fancied may be used as a finish.

A lovely model as a soft crown (what is called this season the "flexible" crown) and a wide brim or coronet of marten fur. It is finished at the side with a handsome shaded willow plume, showing three colorings.

Turbans, in fact, include most elaborate designs as well as those pretty simple models in which velvet is employed alone, and in which the designer relies upon clever draping effects to achieve style.

CREAM BEAVER HAT.

Chintz or Brocades Used for Covering Instead of Conventional Wall Paper.

The newest thing in the line of handiwork familiar under the title of decorative art is a chintz or brocade covered bonnet box. Since a hat box is generally kept out of sight on the closet shelf it has not until now occurred to the average girl that it might just as well be made an attractive thing to look upon when it is brought down from its resting place.

The bright flowered wall paper with which many hat boxes are covered nowadays is, of course, effective, but it does not compare with pretty chintz or dull brocade ornamented with bands of antique braid to bring out its soft, rich colorings.

Since the exaggerated large hats show small sign of dying out, the hat box, large and clumsy as it is, must certainly be reckoned with if a girl cares to have every detail of her private sanctum perfect. Even if a pretty paper-covered box is thought sufficiently attractive for a closet, it certainly will not do if the box is to be kept on one of the new hat racks which are now resorted to in small rooms where the closet room is so small as not to admit of more than two or three hat boxes on its shelves.

These new hat racks, or, rather, hat box racks, are really excellent in a small room. Made triangular in shape, they will fit into an unused corner, and can be made with enough shelves to hold as many hat boxes as desired. The plain wooden frame can be either painted the color of the woodwork of the room or else rendered still more inconspicuous by being covered with a bit of the same paper as that which adorns the wall.
The hat boxes are then covered with the same cretonne with which the room is hung. A French print framed with gold or silver metal lace placed in the center of one panel of the box is most attractive.

These hat boxes are already much in demand for prizes, while for gifts or for sale at a fair they are still sufficiently original to be eagerly sought. When not planned for any special room or rack, there is, of course, greater freedom in the choice of material and color.

To Wash Bed Clothes.
To wash heavy bed clothes make a warm sud with good soap and let the comfortables or blankets soak in it for awhile. Then take a new, clean hoe for a pounder. Pound well, and pound again in another sud. Rinse thoroughly and hang on the line without wringing. If a hose is handy spray plenty of water over them when on the line. The cotton comfortables will not mat when washed in this way.

It takes a woman to find an excuse when there isn't any.

There is no accounting for taste, for even if a woman knows she does not look well in a hat pulled down over her eyes until half her face is hidden, that hat she will wear because it is the fashion.

One of the most startling millinery freaks seen was a blue velvet toque which can best be described as a be-dizened sugar loaf.

The cone part of this sugar loaf toque was of Wedgwood blue velvet, while a deep band of steel embroidered lace formed the lower part, and hanging from this was a tiny fringe of steel beads which would adorn the forehead Salomewise. The toque, it should be added, completely covered all signs of hair and hid the wearer's left eye entirely.

Other toques of the moment have crowns ascending skywards. So high and so full are these velvet crown rings from a band of bizarre en-brodery that they give a top-heavy appearance to the unfortunate wearers.

Some of the new traveling cosies have pockets almost as big as hat bags.

LETTER FROM MRS. COOK

Entirely Recovered From Illness, And Now Growing Stronger
Each Day.

Cave Springs, Ga.—"I sleep better than ever," writes Mrs. Kate Cook from this place, "and get stronger every day. Before I tried Cardui, the woman's tonic, I was very sick, and the doctor's medicine did me no good.
I can never speak too highly of your medicine."

Sleeplessness and nervousness, from which many women suffer, often make living unendurable.

If you are ailing, no need to stay so. Most of the ailments peculiar to women are preventable, curable.

Others have obtained relief by taking Cardui. Why not you?

Cardui is a popular medicine with women. It is popular because it has been found to banish nervousness, relieve pain, bring roses back to pale cheeks, and strength to weak bodies.

Cardui acts specifically on the cause of most female ills, and thus it is a medicine especially useful in women's ailments, in the treatment of which it has a record of over 50 years of success.

At least it can do you no harm, to give Cardui a fair trial.

It may be the very medicine you need.

Old Pete's Little Joke.
Foolish questions and funny answers were under discussion in the Trenton avenue and Dauphin street police station the other day, and after listening for a while to some amusing instances, Sergeant McCay told the following:

"Old Pete Flood was the attendant in the Franklin cemetery some years ago, and it became the custom to ask him how business was, just to hear his reply. It came in a heavy bass voice:

"Ain't buried a living soul today."
—Philadelphia Times.

An Unmistakable Hint.
"Young Stately got a delicate hint from the young lady he was calling on the other evening."

"What was it?"
"She found looking at the clock and other familiar devices useless, so she ordered some refreshments and her mother sent her a plate of breakfast food."

and All Stomach Misery Ended in Five Minutes.

This harmless preparation will promptly digest anything you eat and overcome a sick, sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach within five minutes.

If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of Indigestion.

Get from any drug store here in town a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapesin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal gripping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain regulator for out-of-order stomachs, and besides it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

Remember, if your stomach feels out of order and uncomfortable now,

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. It cures, thereby, destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and a healing nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to

THE MALARIA MONSTER

If the mosquito were as big as it is bad, it would darken the air like a gigantic death-breathing dragon. Each sting of a mosquito sows the germs of malaria. These germs multiply with wonderful rapidity. Then come chills and fever with other forms of malaria that undermine the health and sap the strength.

OXIDINE

quenches the fever fires. It stamps out the cause and consequences of the disease. That's only the beginning of helpful healing work of OXIDINE. It builds up the body, revitalizes the system, enriches the blood, tones up the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys. OXIDINE puts the body on a fighting footing of superb health.

The tonic qualities of OXIDINE make it the best
