The Way of Life.

The following lines, blended in happy meter, are but deductions from famous poems by different poets. The names of the poets are given in the key following. The compilation is the work of H. A. Dening, of San Francisco, and was published about 35 years ago.

1. Why all this toil for triumphs of an hour?
2. Life's a short summer,—man's a flower.
3. By turns we catch the vital breath and die.
4. The cradle and the tomb, alas! so nigh.
5. To be is better far than not to be.
6. Though all men's lives may seem a tragedy.
7. But light cares speak when mighty griefs are dumb.
8. The bottom is but shallow whence they come.
9. Thy fate is but the common fate of all.
10. Unmingled joys here no man can befall.
11. Nature to each allots its proper sphere.
12. Fortune makes folly her particular care.
13. Custom does not often reason over rule.
14. And throw a cruel sunshine on a fool.
15. Live well, how long or short, permit to heaven.
16. The who forgive most shall be most forgiven.
17. Sin may be clasped so close we cannot see its face.
18. Vile intercourse where virtue has no place.
19. Then keep each passion down, however dear.
20. Thou pendulum betwixt a smile and a tear.
21. Her sensual mares let faithless pleasure pay.
22. With craft and skill to ruin and betray.
23. Soar not too high to fall, but stoop to rise.
24. We masters grow of that we despise.
25. Oh, then renounce that impious self esteem!
26. Riches have wings, and grandeur is a dream.
27. Think not ambition wise because 'tis brave.
28. The paths of glory lead but to the grave.
29. What is ambition? 'Tis a glorious cheat.
30. Only destruction to the brave and great.
31. What's all the gaudy glitter of a crown?
32. The way of bliss lies not on bed of down.
33. How long we live, not years, but actions tell.
34. That man lives twice who lives the first life well.
35. Make, then, while yet ye may your God your friend.
36. Whom Christian worship, yet not comprehend.
37. The trust that's given, guard, and to yourself be just.
38. For live we how we can, die we must.
