Miss Emily Briscoe was the guest of Mrs. L. A. Murdock this week.
 Master Jim Clinton was the guest of his grand-mother, Mrs. Lizzie Clinton, this week.
 Miss Stella Crooks, of Vidalia, has accepted a position as day operator at the St. Joseph Exchange.

Dr. G. N. Clarke returned Thursday night from a visit to his brother, Dr. Claude Clarke, at Mount Pleasant, Tenn.
 Mrs. C. W. Van Hoose has returned home after a most delightful visit of several months to relatives in Michigan and Illinois. Her youngest daughter, Miss Alameda, will spend the winter in Michigan.

Mrs. Louis Buckner, Jr., entertained at cards on Tuesday evening, complimentary to her sister, Miss Lillie McDowell, of Natchez, and sister-in-law, Miss Alice Buckner, of Newellton. The prizes were awarded to Miss Frances Curry and Mr. J. C. Macpherson. Delicious refreshments were served and a most delightful evening spent.

Mr. J. W. Whitaker, who has been located in this parish for the past twelve years, where he has enjoyed the fullest confidence and esteem of all our people, has accepted a position with the United States Department of Agriculture, in farm demonstration work, and will be located at Mansfield, La. We regret very much to lose Mr. Whitaker and his excellent family from our parish and wish them all success in their new home, and commend them to the good people of that little city.

The marriage of Mr. Thomas Magruder Wade, Jr., to Miss Kate Burton La Cour was celebrated at Saint Mark's Church, Shreveport, on Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Shortly after the wedding the couple left on a short bridal trip, and will return to St. Joseph about the 2nd of February, when they will be at home to friends in their own home on the Court House square, recently purchased by the groom.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Thedosa Burton La Cour, of Dodson, La., and is a young lady of many rare accomplishments and endowed by nature with many noble attributes of character. She will receive a most cordial welcome to our town.

Mr. Wade, the groom, is an only son of Hon. and Mrs. Thos. M. Wade of this parish, and is a very bright and promising young attorney, who by diligent industry and close application, has forged his way to the front, and is now counted among our most prominent practitioners. His hosts of friends are a unit in extending him their warmest congratulations and sincerest good wishes for a long life of wedded happiness.

If this paper had sufficient space we would publish a complete list of our satisfied "Gilt Edge" flour customers.—Gulley Grocery Co.

 The river out-look is very much improved.
 The weather is beautiful to-day.

Miss Bessie Goodrich was the guest of Miss Louise Johnston this week.
 Mrs. A. B. Bowman and two daughters were guests at the Losey House this week.

Miss Emily Blanchard spent several days in St. Joseph this week with Mrs. Buckner.
 Miss Muir left this week to attend Carnival in New Orleans.

Miss Alice Buckner was the guest of her brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Buckner, Jr., this week.
 Mrs. W. M. Davidson has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Baxter, at Chattanooga.

Messrs. Jake Mayer and Joe Pasternack leave Sunday to enter South Commercial College, New Orleans.
 Mr. and Mrs. Thos. M. Wade, Jr., arrived Friday night and for the present are guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Young.

Mrs. S. P. Hornsby and little daughter, Miss Katherine, have spent the past week with Mrs. Wimberly, "Osceola."
 Mr. W. B. Smitha, a popular knight of the grip, spent several days in St. Joseph this week as the guest of his brother, Mr. H. L. Smitha.

Rev. Mr. McIntosh visited St. Joseph last Sunday and conducted service at the Union Church in the morning. The heavy rain interfered with night service.
 Supt. Wade conducted a teachers' examination on Friday. Those present for the examination were: Mrs. Bowman, Miss Briscoe, Miss Ward, Miss Goodrich and Miss Blanchard.

Mr. Grocery Man, the New Year is with you. Shake the dust of inferior flours out of your old apron, and resolve to handle "Gilt Edge." We sell it.
GULLEY GROCERY CO.
 Mrs. Alice Solomon has opened a rooming house in New Orleans, at 1525 Carondelet St., and caters especially to the traveling public. She will be pleased to accommodate any of her old Tensas friends who attend Carnival.

Rev. Mr. Johnson conducted service at Christ Church Wednesday evening. His next regular appointment for St. Joseph will be the second Sunday in February, (9th), at 8 o'clock in the evening, with holy communion at 7 o'clock next morning.
 Mr. Jas. R. Lynch died at his home at New Light early Saturday morning of pneumonia. He had been ill for some time and his entire family was with him when the end came. The news of his death came to us as we were going to press and we can only chronicle the sad event to-day and defer to next week more fitting tribute to the memory of the deceased.

St. Joseph and surrounding country was visited by a very hard and prolonged rain last Sunday, the precipitation being nearly two inches.
 "A spirit of progress seems in evidence about our town in building circles and every carpenter is kept occupied.

Mr. A. Bondurant, the parish assessor, is building a very handsome residence on his lot in the lower part of town, known as the Parmeter property, and which is fast approaching completion, and will be quite an ornament to that section of town.

Mr. C. R. Darden, one of our most progressive young men, who has risen to prominence in business circles through his tireless energy and close application, is erecting a very neat and attractive cottage in the upper part of town, on the edge of "Panola" plantation, as a home for his aged uncle and aunt, and foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Hunton, where they can spend the evening of their days in comfort and ease, and which when completed will be quite an addition to that neighborhood.

The old Lewis home, on the Court House square, recently purchased by Mr. Thos. M. Wade, Jr., is being thoroughly overhauled and repaired and repainted and made practically a new house, which adds very much to its appearance.
 Other minor building is also in progress in different sections of town and the last remaining signs of the flood of 1912 are fast disappearing.

"Gilt Edge" flour could not be improved, at twice its present cost. Its product of highest grade wheat combined with careful and experienced milling. No flour is better.
