Mass Meeting to be Held at Court House Next Tuesday.

A mass meeting of the citizens of St. Joseph is called to be held at the Court House on next Tuesday, 11th inst., at 11 o'clock, to select a municipal ticket to be voted for at the regular April election. This is a very important meeting and should be attended by all who feel interest in the welfare of our town.

Joseph Levy and wife are visiting relatives in New Orleans.

J. E. Byram made a business trip to New Orleans this week.

Patrick Henry Wade was a most welcome visitor to St. Joseph this week.

Miss Louise Murdoch spent several days this week with Mrs. Thos. Wade, Jr.

Mr. J. Luther Ellis, of Memphis, was the guest several days this week of Mrs. W. J. Steen.

Miss Pauline Bowman of Natchez and R. E. Fulton spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Stanton at Thistle Ridge.

Harris, M. Kullman, J. G. Gortz, I. Jacoby and F. Mc C Hopkins were visitors to St. Joseph last Monday.

The annual teachers' institute to be conducted in St. Joseph will be held on Friday and Saturday, 4th and 5th April.

J. Lester Wilson has joined his father, Rev. R. A. N. Wilson, at "Marydale" and will spend the year in this parish.

Prof. A. M. Whipple, principal of the Newellton High School, is a week-end visitor to St. Joseph as the guest of Prof. W. C. Jordan.

Rev. W. S. Henry conducted services at the Union Church last Sunday night and delivered a most interesting and effective sermon.

Mr. W. J. Steen is spending a few weeks with his friend, Mr. E. C. Canning, at the latter's country home, at Grand Chenier, on the Gulf Coast.

Sunday, the 9th inst., being the second Sunday in the month, the Rev. Roberts Johnson will conduct services at Christ Church in the morning and at Newellton in the evening.

The friends of E. L. Gulley, who has been so ill at the Losey House, will be pleased to learn that he is improving and will probably leave within the next few days for New Orleans to consult a specialist.

Dr. Baker, Grand Lecturer for the Masonic Lodge, was a visitor to St. Joseph and Newellton this week and delivered lectures to those lodges. Dr. Baker's friends in this parish are always glad to see him, and his lectures to the lodges are very interesting and instructive.

The Police Jury, in session at St. Joseph on Monday, was entertained at luncheon by the Domestic Science Department of the St. Joseph High School. A most delicious menu was served and the guests expressed their enjoyment of the repast in most complimentary phrases.

Supt. Wade has been advised by the State Examining Committee that all papers of applicants who stood examination on January 30 last have been graded and results will soon be made known. All teachers in this parish interested can expect to hear from Mr. Wade as soon as he hears from Baton Rouge.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Smith entertained at tea on Monday evening complimentary to Miss Marjorie Davidson and her guests Miss Thomas and Mr. Murphy. The dining room was most artistically decorated in appropriate design, the color scheme being green and purple. A most delicious repast, consisting of several courses, was served, followed by a delightful evening spent in social converse.

The many friends of Louis T. Hunter, Esq., Police Juror from the Sixth Ward, and editor of the Waterproof Enterprise, were delighted to see him while here in attendance on the meeting of the Police Jury. Mr. Hunter had not been in good health for some time and recently went to New Orleans to Hotel Dieu, where he was under the care of Dr. Smythe for several weeks. His friends were glad to see him looking so much improved.

Mr. A. Schaffly, of St. Louis and Mr. John C. Mills, of Kirksville, Mo., were visitors to St. Joseph this week. These gentlemen are interested in the "Marydale" plantation, in the fourth ward, one of the largest properties in the parish and came down to inspect their property. They seem very optimistic as to the future of this section and are hopeful of attracting a worthy class of immigration to this parish,—"a consummation most devoutly to be wished."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Union Church are arranging for an Easter Sale to be conducted at the residence of Miss Jennie Boney, on Saturday, 22nd inst., when good things to eat of home preparation will be for sale. The public is invited to attend this sale and buy of the delectable dishes for their Easter Sunday dinner. The proceeds of the sale will be used in the purchase of a carpet for the aisle and rostrum of the Union Church—a long felt want.

Better each succeeding time grow the delightful dances given by the young men of St. Joseph. The hop Friday night was further evidence of their hospitality which has been so cordially extended at frequent intervals. Those dancing were:

Miss Hopkins and W. E. Scott.
 Miss Bauer and W. J. Martien.
 Miss Hazlip and Jas. Rowan.
 Miss Ward and Fred Smith.
 Miss Fleming and Myles Hopkins.
 Miss Crothers and Merrick Rowan.
 Miss Bessie Muir and Fred Blanche.

Chaperones
 Mesdames George Clinton, James Curry and Annie Crothers.

Stags
 Messrs. Dan Lynch, Albert and Byron Mayer, Abie Pasternack, Frank Owen and Magruder Smith.

MOLES AND WARTS

Removed with MOLESOFF, without pain or danger, no matter how large or how far raised above the surface of the skin. And they will never return and no trace or scar will be left. MOLESOFF is applied directly to the MOLE or WART, which entirely disappears in about six days, killing the germ and leaving the skin smooth and natural.

MOLESOFF is put up only in One Dollar bottles

Each bottle is forwarded postpaid on receipt of price, is neatly packed in a plain case, accompanied by full directions, and contains enough remedy to remove eight or ten ordinary MOLES or WARTS. We sell MOLESOFF under a positive guarantee: If it fails to remove your MOLE or WART, we will promptly refund the dollar. Letters from persons we all know, together with much valuable information, will be mailed free upon request.

NEWELLTON SOCIETY NOTES.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Marlow entertained a few of the "younger set" complimentary to their charming guest, Miss Lena Stroud of West Point. Cards, dancing and various games were indulged in, and with delicious refreshments, a most delightful evening was spent. Those attending were: Misses Lena Stroud, Lena and Mary Triche, Alma and Cora Marlow and Messrs. Stephen Triche, Gus, Raoul and Micheal Elgutter, Albert Marlow and Mrs. L. N. Jones of Illinois.

Quite a number of young people enjoyed the Dancing School given in Newellton at the K. P. Hall as usual on Friday evening. Among those present were the following:

Miss Mary Triche and Gus Elgutter.
 Miss Rinette Abrams and Morris de Vries.
 Miss Carrie Muir and L. C. Kell.
 Miss Willie Lewis and Percy Gordon.
 Miss Alice Buckner and P. H. Wade.
 Miss Susie Muir and Ralph Aly.
 Miss Ruth Buckner and J. T. Gordon, Jr.
 Miss Lena Stroud and Steve Triche
 Miss Josephine Aly and Raoul Elgutter.
 Miss Josie Gordon and R. Y. Newell, Jr.

Miss Alma Marlow and Chas. Aly
 Miss Cora Marlow and Willie Aly
 Miss Lucille Jacoby and Micheal Abrams.
 Miss Shepherd and Mr. Lessing.
 Miss Thompson and Carl Seab.
 Miss Natalie Guthrie and Charles Muir, Jr.
 Miss Emma Wulch and Robert Middleton.
 Miss Rebecca Newell and Newell Fultz.
 Miss Cynthia Fultz and Edward Newell.

Miss Bessie Newell and Edward Buckner.

 Stags
 Messrs. Hodge, A. Marlow, Lang, Couvillion and Martinier.

Immediately following President Wilson's announcement "that there would be no bachelors in his cabinet," the older set of Newellton began to stir about, and a most delightful card party was given at the residence of a popular Newellton lady. The couples present were:

Miss Routh Buckner and L. C. Kell.
 Miss Alice Buckner and W. S. Hodge.
 Miss Josephine Aly and W. S. Alsop.
 Miss Willie Lewis and P. H. Wade.

Quite a number of young men gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. Y. Newell and spent the most delightful evening playing Five Hundred. Those present were: Messrs. Ralph Aly, Percy Gordon, Robert Newell, Jr., Gus, Raoul and Micheal Elgutter, Steve Triche and John T. Gordon.

The following notice is taken from the "Reveille," published by the students of L. S. U., at Baton Rouge:

Announcement is made of the marriage of D. H. Stringfield, 1909, to Miss Elina Jenkins. Mr. Stringfield is parish superintendent of education of Washington parish.

Mr. Stringfield is well known in St. Joseph, having served as principal of the St. Joseph High School two sessions, (1909-10 and 1910-11) and was then elected to the office of Superintendent of Education of Washington parish, and principal of the Franklinton High School, which positions he yet holds. During Mr. Stringfield's residence in St. Joseph he made many warm friends among our people, who are a unit in extending him their warmest congratulations and sincerest good wishes for a long and happy wedded life, in which the Gazette earnestly joins.

Mrs. Annie Crothers has requested us to announce that she will receive from Misses Hamilton & Marron, the popular milliners of Natchez, a large number of hats, which she will have on display at her home in St. Joseph some time next week. She requests all of her friends who have not yet bought their Easter hats to withhold their order until her hats arrive, when she will take pleasure in showing her stock and will guarantee a saving of money as well as satisfaction. Her hats are expected next Saturday.
