Two happy brides started from New York the other day for a 12,000-mile cruise up the Amazon on a honey moon which will last two months. The party will cruise farther up the Amazon than is usual for excursionists.

Mr. Benedict, the owner of the yacht Oneida, considers this unexplored region the most beautiful in the world and has visited it several times. The members of the party are: Seated, from left to right, Mrs. Colgate Hoyt (bride), Commodore E. C. Benedict, Mrs. Richard Sinclair Blair (bride). Standing, from left to right, Mrs. Edwin think the end would come so soon."

"Kindly wait a minute more," entreated the aged man. Meanwhile he sat down and began writing something.

On finishing he turned to the colonel and asked him to read what he had written. "You and I are soldiers," he said. "We have our enemies, and I especially sign this paper in which I describe how I and my staff were captured. Our enemies may say we have surrendered, when, Allah! I never Colonel Marcholeff complied with his request. Half an hour later Shukri

Pasha and General Ivanoff met. The Bulgarian general showed the greatest civility and respect for the Turk-defense was almost equal to the at-

WILEY HITS OSLER THEORY

Maximum of Efficiency Not Reached

Until Three Score, Says Pure

Food Expert,

Washington.-Men and women sixty years old and over are the real benefactors and the actual workers for the uplift of the human race, in the opinion of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former made the declaration to the Washing-distinctly opposed to the Osler theory and insisted that it was possible to thought of surrendering the city."

SHUKRI PASHA'S PLEA ACT OF BRITISH AMBASSADOR SIT Cecil Spring-Rice Gives Personal

Wanted World to Know That He Did Not Surrender

Details of Manner in Which Noted Turkish Commander Was Made a Prisoner at Adrianople by Victorious Bulgarians.

Sofia, Bulgaria.-One of the most interesting incidents of the fall of Adrianople was the manner in which Shukri Pasha, the brave defender of the city, was captured. When brought to Sofia he emphasized the fact that he did not surrender to, but was cap-tured by the Bulgarians. His capture, indeed, was a romantic one. During those eventful days, March 24 and 25, upon which the fate of the capital of Thrace was decided, Shukri Pasha's activity was intense. He was directing affairs everywhere.

When, after a series of most bloody encounters the victorious Bulgars of ish commander, telling him that the the Twenty-third regiment had come to the last Turkish fortification and tack. "The defense of Adrainople will there was a pause and a wavering for a moment, Lieutenant Colonel Pashi-Turkish history," declared General noff, seizing the regiment's flag. Ivanoff. "My boys, for the honor of Bulgaria, for the honor of our army, for the honor of the Twenty-third regiment, for ward! Follow me!" These words had a magic effect upon the men, and one after another all the forts connected with the Aivas-Baba fell into the hands of the Bulgarians.

When the Turkish officials and population found out that resistance was hopeless and that the whole city was enveloped by the Bulgarians, they began to surrender. Lieutenant Colonel Marcholeff, after sending two detachments of his cavalry into various directions of the city to institute order. started for the government house, where he surprised a large number of grow old without becoming senile. the Turkish officials and pashas, humanity are rendered by young men tested that he was not, but found he commander of the artillery, and oth

"Where is Shukri Pasha?" demanded

"We don't know," was the answer.

The Bulgarian officer drew his re volver and, pointing it at Rifaat Pasha, shouted again: "Where is Shukri Rifast, with a coolheadedness typical of a Turkish pashs answered: do not know, but if you will wait a minute I will inquire about him." With Rifaat Pasha leading, the party started for Hasderluck.

At Hasderluck the Bulgarians found some 300 officers and officials gathered there for safety. Shukrl Pasha, how ever, was not among them. Here Marcholeff recognized Tekir Bey, an old acquaintance, of whom he asked the commandant of Adranople was. He was immediately led to a small annex, in the basement of which Shukri Pasha, together with ten of his trusted officers, had taken refuge. Colonel Marcholeff, on opening the door of the underground chamber, at once services are rendered by elderly men knew who Shukri Pasha was. He first and women. We do not reath the saluted him and thep said: "In the maximum of efficiency until the age name of our royal majesty, the king, I of sixty." command you to follow me. You are Shukri Pasha was a prisoner!" thunderstruck at the suddenness of the procedure. After recovering from the shock he answered coolly, "I beg to say that I am not a prisoner, for I have sent messengers who have not yet re-

"It is too late," was the reply of Colonel Marcholeff. "All of your forts have fallen, your army has been beaten at all points and your soldiers and She was caught in a recent raid in officers have been made prisoners."

Aid to Young Man Hurt by an Automobile.

On hearing this, Shukri Pasha wept like a child. Then he said: "I didn't Washington,-Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the ambassador from Great Britain, "Do not be depressed, general," said although only here a few days as successor to James Bryce, already has Colonel Marcholeff. "Your splendid deshown the same democratic characterfense of the city has elicited the adistics that endeared his predecessor to miration of the whole world. Come, let us go. The orders are to take you the capital. It developed recently that to General Ivanoff."

Sir Cecil Spring-Rice.

to the Chevy Chase club in the embassy automobile the chauffeur became confused as to the direction "Stop and we will inquire the way," ordered the envoy, observing a young man approaching on foot,

"Can you direct us to the Chevy Chase club?" he inquired of the pedesgovernment "pure food" expert, who as the big car came to a stop. The trian, who stepped into the roadway ton Secular leagues. Dr. Wiley was by a car tearing cityward. man was almost immediately struck

"Are you hurt?" asked Sir Cecil, jumping from the motor. The young man, who proved to be Odie Howe, "The idea that the great services to a street car conductor off duty, pro could not walk. Despite his protests, he was bundled into the embassy car and whirled to his home, Sir Cecil himself lifting him in. The ambassador made inquiry into his condition.

NO SECRET DIVORCE TRIALS

Every Court in England Open to Every Subject and Must Leave Doors Open, Is Ruling.

London.-An end has been put to the possibility of secret proceedings in divorce and other suits in the United Kingdom by a judgment delivered by the house of lords, sitting as the highest court of appeals. The divorce court had adjudged a

Mrs. Scott guilty of contempt of court in circulating among her friends the report of a case heard "in camera" in which she had been accused of infidelty, but had been vindicated. The lord chancellor's opinion, in which the other law lords concurred. reverses the judgment for contempt of court.

The lord chancellor declares "Every court of justice in the land is open to every subject of the king and a court has no power to sit other wise than with open doors."

Leg Tax Makes Him Peevish. Kansas City, Mo.-Indignant that county assessors should levy a tax on his cork leg, Joseph Lynch has demanded exemption, or taxation of all women on switches, puffs and other aids to nature. "If you put my legs on the tax list, you must assess all the false teeth and glass eyes in the county," was the ultimatum of Lynch to the assessors. WOMAN THIEF IS A FIGHTER ued at several hundred dollars when TO MAKE BIBLE POPULAR

Passed In Pennsylvania Would Compel Reading of Verses in Harrisburg, Pa.-Ten verses of the Bible will be read each day in the public schools of Pennsylvania if a house bill passed by the senate last night is approved by the governor. Penalty for violation of the proposed law is dismissal of any teacher who fails to comply with its provisions.

MOST COZY OF MEALS

AFTERNOON TEA PROPERLY SERVED, ALWAYS A DELIGHT.

Simple Preparations Only Necessary, but Every Appointment Should Be as Perfect as They Can Be Made.

It is very unusual girl who doesn't like to have a chat and a cup of afternoon tea. One girl friend who wishes to have afternoon tea for two or three friends will find she has but the simp lest preparations to make. She will set a small table in her sitting ro placing a chair at it for herself, as she will pour the tea. Have a pretty fresh linen cloth on the little table with cups and saucers, a little jug of cream, one large enough, however, to prevent the need of refilling it, and a sugar bowl with lump sugar, and sugar tongs.

For the eatables have a plate of lit tle sandwiches, or very, very thin bread and butter, or tiny hot rolls, split and buttered and brought in at the last moment. Put a pretty wash able dollie on the plates under the cakes and sandwiches. Have a plate of little cakes, or cake cut small enough to be easily handled, and per-haps a little dish of home-made candy. That is always nice to end up with

Bring in the teapot with freshly infused tea just when you are ready to pour it. Have the tea cosy on the ta-ble ready to slip over it. The linen slip covers for cosies are nice, as they are so easily laundered. White embroidered in white or color, or colored linen worked in white is always pretty. Be sure to have a supply of hot water, in a brass hot water kettle, or in pretty jug if a brass kettle is not available. Some people use, at afternoon tea, very small plates, but they are not seen as a rule.

Now you have all your equipment for a delightful little informal tea, where just a few friends have gathered for a chat and confidences. Just one thing may be added—a fern in a fern jar, a small pretty plant, or some cut flowers. This is the last touch to your tea table

So now sit down and help your guests. One of the girls will pass the cups and the plates of sandwiches and cake to the friends seated about the room. Another will see when the caps need refilling, and will bring them to you. It's a pleasant little time, this this after threatening the duchess five o'clock tea.

Just one more suggestion.-Perhaps you will use just one end of a large table. Then have all the tea arrangements on a large tray. If it is a tray without a very attractive appearance, use a tray cloth. But perhaps it is one of the woolen traps, with plate glass covering a beautiful bit of cretonne, brocade, or lace, and with brass handles, or it may be a hammered brass tray, or, the most aristocratic of the tray family, a heavy silver one, that possibly was grandmother's. the tray-cloth is dispensed with.

Spring Dishes.

If you have nothing more unusual than a dish of eggs and bacon do not forget a touch of parsley and the added charm of a dish of rosy red radishes, with their green heart leaves. The tiny radishes should be crisp and solid, suggesting the dewy freshness of the garden. A few pieces of crystal clear ice enhance their beauty Unless the radishes are to be used in decorating a meat dish or salad, do not cut them to represent flowers. Simply trim them neatly, cutting off the large leaves in the center. There is a theory that these aid in the digestion of the peppery little morsels. At any rate they add a contrasting of color that satisfies the eye and this has much to do with good

Strawberries With Lettuce

Perhaps you are afraid to eat straw berries on account of their acid. Try a new combination, calling it a breakmust wash your berries, do so quickly, letting a spraying shower free them of sand and dust. Never let them lie in water, as this will increase their acidity to a distasteful degree. Have them thoroughly drained and then heap each portion to be served in cups made of delicate green tender leaves from head lettuce. Serve with a sweet salad dressing made piquant with lemon or grapefruit juice, or a French dressing, or heap whipped cream, sweetened to taste, over them serve. If you also serve a cereal let it be corn, rice or hominy.

Mint Jelly.

Two bunches of mint, simmered in one pint of water for one-half hour; one cup sugar, one and one-half table spoonfuls of granulated gelatin, softened in one-half cup of water; juice of two lemons.

When the gelatin has softened, pour the water from the cooked mint over the softened gelatin, then add the sugar and lemon juice. A delicious green color may be obtained by the se of a little vegetable color paste.

Strain and chill: cut in squares and serve with lamb in the place of mint sauce. It may be used as a garnish for the lamb.

Hobelspane (Shavings).

Beat two eggs, with a small pinch of salt, add flour, little by little, till you have a stiff dough. Roll out as thin as possible and cut in strips about six inches long and one-half to one inch wide. Fry in hot, deep lard. Sprinkle well with powdered sugar of which I am ashamed. Surely it and serve with coffee or hot choco-

Shopping Emergency.

Always carry an emergency purse in your shopping bag, containing pins of various sizes, safety pins, court plaster, stamps, Aring, rubber bands a perfeil and penknife. You will find this very convenient and invaluable or many occasions.

Corned Beef.

Put the corned beef over the fire in cold water and heat slowly to the boiling point. Drain, cover with boiling water and simmer very slowly until

"TURKEY TROTTING" AND "TANGO" KILLING THE WALTZ

The beautiful gliding waltz will soon be as the stately minuet of our forefathers, a thing of the past, if the The beautiful gliding waitz will soon be as the stately minuet of our forerathers, a thing of the past, if the craze for the "turkey trot" and the "tango," which has been taken up with a vengeance by society, keeps pace with its popularity. The picture shows society engaged in the latest steps of these dances. The upper left picture shows the "tango." The upper right is "turkey trotting" and "one-stepping." In the lower left the "tango" is being enjoyed by youngsters in their teens, and in the lower right the rhythmic steps of the latest in dancing is being enjoyed.

DUKE OUSTED WIFE SIXTY EGGS FOR BREAKFAST

Westminster Tried to Force Her licity which is attached to a deed of to Agree to Separation.

To Pursue More Easily a Countess, the Titled Englishman Created Scandal by Closing Home to Spouse.

London.-The Duke of Westminster has turned his wife out of house and home. He only succeeded in doing with physical force.

No such scandal has occurred in the British peerage for many years. The richest duchess of England is now an exile with her father and mother on the continent. The Duke of Westminster has literally thrown his wife out of Grosvenor house, the magnificent London mansion owned by the greatest landlord in England.

The Duke of Westminster is thirtyfour years old. He owns some 30,000 scattered over the United Then Kingdom and no less than 600 acres of property in London itself-the value of the latter can scarcely be estimated.

Twelve years ago he married Constance Cornwallis-West, one of the prettiest girls in England. Her elder sister at that time was already Princess Henry of Pless, and her only brother had just achieved fame by marrying Lady Randolph Churchill, formerly Jennie Jerome of New York, who is now seeking through the courts for restitution of conjugal rights from this second husband.

A tremendous scandal which was almost ventilated in the courts occurred in connection with his friendship for the now famous Mrs. Ather

For years his attentions to this woman have been referred to in print and out of it. The duke has taken no pains to conceal the fascination she exercised over him. The duchess, much sympathized with, has always taken matters philosophically and enjoyed life in a harmless way without the benefit of her ducal husband. Some months ago the Duke of ferred his attentions from the famous actress to a beautiful French countess, urged the duchess to get a legal separation. That the pretty little duchess, who is also a good sports- at the hotel. He had a large padlock woman, firmly declined to do.

Duchess of Westminster.

Why," asked the duchess, "should went out." consent to a separation? Neither as the Duchess of Westminster nor as your wife have I done anything bed were his only companions. What tice that at the annual meeting of the would be bitterly unfair to our chil-dren to have all the unpleasant pub-far examined, some of which date from each of the contracting parties.

FILES BIG SUIT FOR BEANS

Complainant Alleges Man Consumed $1,425 Worth In Two Years-20 Plates Daily.

Chicago.-A clerk in the municipal court the other day looked over a claim in a suit that had just been filed and his eyes bulged. He made a hasty grab for his glasses to be sure that he had read the document aright, and then he all but fell off his stool. This is what met his eyes:

separation. We have houses in England and elsewhere. The duchess was well aware that Then recently the duke, who was staying elsewhere, sent word to his then recently the duke, who was staying elsewhere, sent word to his duchess, who as usual was living at palatial Grosvenor house that unless fast later on. palatial Grosvenor house, that unless she consented to a separation she must leave at once. If she refused to leave, he would use physical force to slabs of indestructible pies and two put her out by 3 o'clock the same afternoon. The duke alleged nothing against his wife, except her refusal either to divorse him. either to divorce him or to accept a separation.

The result was that the duchess left and the divorce suit has been filed.

BALL PARK ROUTS POE RELIC ke had ordered:

Old New York Tavern Being Destroyed for New American League Grounds.

New York,-Kingsbridge Tavern, a landmark of 100 years' standing and what he got. a resort where Edgar Allan Poe used to wait for his manuscripts to come back from unappreciative editors, is about to give way to the march of progress. It is on the site of what will be the new American league baseand Broadway. A gang of laborers have taken possession of the old tavern. Efforts of Poe's admirately and the said, "and get some sleep. Tonight, when I get up.

I'll be hungry again."

"I don't drink, chew or said." ern. serve the old tavern for its historical

W. H. Reinke's Morning Order, After "Light" Supper, Makes Waltress Shriek for Help

New York.-At midnight recently William H. Reinke climbed out from there were grounds for divorce if she Fifty-seventh street garage of the Ma under a panting taxicab in the West son & Seamon company and remarked

> So for midnight supped he had only Just eight hours later, "hungry as a bear," he said, he walked into a taurant at Fifty-ninth street and Co lumbus circle and ordered breakfast The waitress shricked for help. Here is what the hungry Mr. Rein-

Fifteen scrambled eggs, fifteen boiled eggs, fifteen fried eggs, fifteen hard-boiled eggs and half a dozen glasses of water.

Please don't laugh. That's eggs actly what he ordered and that Then, fourteen minutes later, be called for his check. It came to $4. but Mr. Reinke paid without a mur mur.

"Now, I'll go home to 306 W Twenty-sixth street," he said, "and get Efforts of Poe's admirers to pre- continued. "My only dissipation is eating eggs; when I want to go out on a spree I eat four or five

NOTED SPY IS DEAD

Secret of the Maine Dies With back thirty years, and most of which "Cat Man."

Mysterious New York Hermit Was Employed by Spanish Government in the Isle of Cuba-

Son of a Grandee. New York.—Fragments of the life lame for life. While in the Lor of "The Cat Man" came out following legation he was a favorite of Disraell, his death by gas in a dingy little room at the Hotel Trafalgar, 115 East Fourteenth street, where for sixteen years he had lived in seclusion with his believed deposits will be found in service. teenth street, where for sixteen years

His death was as peculiar as his Gas was escaping from a stove, and cards on the bed showed he had been playing solitaire when overcome. A jet was burning and two cats showed fight when hotel employes approached the body. The animals were unaffected, but the fumes had killed 'The Cat Man," who was seventy years old and was known as Manuel de Fuentes Bustillo.

During the long years he had lived on the top floor he always kept his door locked. After some of the dust and litter of papers had been cleared away by the coroner it became known that "The Cat Man" was the Beau Brummel of Madrid fifty years ago. and afterward became one of the greatest spies in the Spanish army, holding back by his skillful work for many years the independence of Cuba.

He was one of the few man believed to know the truth about the blowing up of the Maine. The United States Westminster, who has now trans- has spent much money and several years in a vain effort to get information it is certain Bustillo possessed. No one was ever allowed to enter on the door and used this when he found crouched beside his body on the at Unity church here is forecast in no secret he was guarding has not been church the members will vote on the are ha Spanish. Efforts will be made to find documents relating to the Maine.

Enough has been found, however, to show that his father was a Spanish nobleman and his mother the daughter of a wealthy Cuban land owner. He never was hurt but once in a duel, and the injury then to his hip ma then prime minister.

He was the heir to a large fortune eral banks.

A paper dated June, 1901, executed by Ullo & Ruebsamen, lawyers, with offices at that time at 11 Broad was found in the room. This paper deeded Bustillo's electric railway rights in Spain to J. Barker Carter. From this paper it would appear that the king of Spain had given these rights to Bustillo in recognition of his services to his country. The police are inclined to think that death was an accident, but Mrs. Han igan, wife of the hotel proprietor, does not hold this theory, basing her belief on the fact that the door was unlocked when the body was found.

ASKS CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH

Montclair, N. J., Preacher Says Bride's Physician Must Vouch for Bridegroom.

Montclair, N. J.-The eugenics movement has received recognition here in the announcement made by Henry E. Jackson, pastor of the Christian Union Congrega church, that he will perform no Congregation riage ceremonies unless the groom presents a certificate of health went out.

The two spitting, bristling cats sibility of a similar stand being taken

"There is due and owing the plain- | nineteen and one-half plates a day. rant suing him for that much, hower-The suit was filed by Sally C. Staf-ord and George McDonald and G ford and George McDonald against er day for five cents a pound. At that

Dresses Well Also, According to Reports, and Hustles From Place to Place in Automobile.

Pasadena, Cal.-A woman burglar, faultlessly attired and employing an automobile in her work, was driven from the home of Mrs. P. B. Geary, she was detected by the daughter of the modiste, a fist fight ensued, the Geary girl was struck down and the thief jumped into her automobile and sped away, leaving most of the plun-

Dr. Harvey Wiley.

by the facts to be erroneous. These Deporting White Slave Gang.

sian, said to be members of a gang of white slavers, are on their way to

New York city from Kansas City for deportation. Rosina Tortorica, one of those to be deported, is said to be the most noted white slaver in the world, having operated in every large country in the United States and Europe.

Kansas City,

New York.—Five Italians and a Rus-

Women Won. Chicago.—"Acrimonious" a dressmaker, by Helen Geary, sev- the men and "armageddon" the womenteen years old, after a desperate en-counter between the women. The vis-ston club. The women stood up betitor was ready to depart with loot val- ter than the men and won.

Public Schools

tiff from the defendant the sum of Great Scott! And a 'thousand on $1,425, being the price of beans sold plate,' too. That can't be a restauto the defendant and consumed by him within the last two years."

Arthur J. Thompson, whose identity rate he got away with 28,500 pounds was not disclosed. The clerk got out in two 7-cars, or thirty-nine pounds s his pencil and began to figure.

"Let's see," he mused, "beans are ten cents a plate. At that rate Mr. have an awfully large bean-eating fam-Thompson must have eaten 14,250 ily, or else he runs a boarding house plates in two years, or an average of for people from Boston.

day. "Jumping Jupiter, that fellow must