May, Jr. On Sunday the little form was in Waterproof spending the day with her grandparents, seemingly perfectly well and bright as the sunshine. Little did they dream, as she waved her tiny hand "bye-bye" that this was her last good-bye. Tuesday, after a very short illness of 36 hours, God called her home, just a blessing and comfort to her mother and daddy for only three short years. Just one more little fair flower swept away by an all powerful hand, Death! The deepest of sympathy was extended by all to the heart-broken parents and the dear grand-parents.

Many beautiful scenes were thrown on the screen and a great many photos of the guests were also enlarged by the machine.

After the show the guests were served with ices and cakes, then the children had a game in which they tried to pin a fish on a fisherman's hook while being blindfolded. The fortunate winners of the prizes were Josie Fultz and Orvis Marlow.
