

Sick Women Made Well

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers—hundreds of them—are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. TILLIE WATERS, 1135 Knight St., Camden, N.J.

And this one from Mrs. Haddock:

UTICA, OKLA.—"I was weak and nervous, not able to do my work and scarcely able to be on my feet. I had backache, headache, palpitation of the heart, trouble with my bowels, and inflammation. Since taking the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I am better than I have been for twenty years. I think it is a wonderful medicine and I have recommended it to others."—Mrs. MARY ANN HADDOCK, Utica, Oklahoma.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others—why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.

Write to LYDIA E. PINKHAM MEDICINE CO. (CONFIDENTIAL) LYNN, MASS., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Mrs. W. F. Roy, N. Third St., Fort Smith, Ark., says: "I doctored for kidney disease for years, but to no avail. The pains in my back were terrible and for hours I couldn't get around. The kidney secretions passed too frequently and were filled with sediment. When I had almost given up hope, I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills. They helped me right away and three boxes cured me. ### FOR BREAKFAST TABLE

APPETIZING DAINTIES WITH WHICH TO START DAY.

Sally Lunns Are Easily Among Best of the Fancy Breads—Lily White's Muffins—Excellent Way to Serve Eggs.

By LIDA AMES WILLIS.

Sally Lunn No. 1.—Fancy breakfast breads are enjoyed more at this season than at any other time. The housewife who prefers yeast to baking powder will be repaid for the extra trouble in making her Sally Lunns by this old-time recipe:

Sally Lunn No. 2.—Sift together two cups of sifted flour, half a teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of sugar and two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Rub in a large tablespoonful of butter until well mixed. Beat one egg lightly, add to a cup of milk and stir into the dry materials. Beat to a smooth batter and bake from twenty to thirty minutes in a quick oven.

Lily White's Muffins.—Rub together a tablespoonful of butter and a tablespoonful of sugar. Then add the stiffly beaten whites of four eggs. Mix well. Add a saltspoonful of salt, and three teaspoonfuls of baking powder to three cups of sifted flour and add to the butter and sugar mixture, alternating with a pint of milk. Have your gem or popper pans very hot and well greased. Fill two-thirds full and bake about twenty-five minutes in a hot oven.

Egg Biscuit.—Sift with a pint of flour one teaspoonful of baking powder. Chop into it a tablespoonful of butter. Beat an egg and mix with half a cup of milk, or part milk and part cream is better. Make a hole in the flour, but in a saltspoonful of salt, and pour in the egg and milk; mix all together in a soft dough, using more milk if necessary. Roll out as quickly as possible half an inch thick; cut in rounds and bake in a quick oven.

Eggs a la Placentina.—Separate four eggs. Beat the whites stiff, then add the yolks and a rounded tablespoonful of butter melted, a little salt and pepper. Butter well a small earthen baking dish and cover the bottom with a layer of thinly sliced cheese; use a good, rich kind. Put in the oven a few minutes to heat thoroughly, then turn in the beaten whites of eggs mixed with the other materials; return to the oven, and when the eggs are a golden brown serve immediately.

Filipino Beef.
Trim all portions not edible from 1 1/2 pounds of round steak and half a pound of lean, fresh pork; put the meat with 1 onion peeled and 1 green pepper pod, freed from seeds, through a meat chopper; add 1 teaspoonful salt, a cup sifted bread crumbs (soft, not dry crumbs) and a beaten egg; mix all together thoroughly, then shape into a roll; set the roll of meat in an agate pan, strain about a quart of stewed tomatoes around the meat, put 2 slices of bacon above and let cook about 40 minutes, basting several times with the tomato. If preferred the tomato may be omitted and the meat be basted, with dripping. Cook boiled potatoes with the meat and serve the dish with a brown tomato sauce; use small potatoes so as to serve whole.

Savory Sauce.
Take two ounces of salt pork, bacon or sausage. If bacon or pork is used, cut it into small pieces. Heat until crisp but not burned. In the fat which fries out of the meat, cook a small amount of finely chopped onion and red or green pepper, being careful not to burn them. Add one cup of thick tomato juice or a larger amount of uncooked juice, and cook the mixture until it is reduced to a smaller amount. Season with salt. To this sauce capers, mushrooms or finely chopped pickle may be added.

Tripe Ragout.
Wash a pound of tripe and cut in two-inch strips. Chop two tablespoonfuls of Spanish onion, and cook until straw color in two tablespoonfuls of butter. Add the tripe, toss and cook gently for ten minutes. Add a cupful each of celery, cut in inch pieces, and solid meat of tomato, cut in pieces. Let simmer gently until all are tender, adding a little tomato juice if it cooks too dry. Garnish with toast points and parsley.

Potato Garnish.
As a garnish for a dish of meat prepare two cupfuls of mashed and seasoned potato. If liked, a few drops of onion juice may be added to the usual salt, pepper and butter. Beat two eggs and stir well into the potato. Butter small molds of any shape, only be sure that they are small, and sprinkle with fine bread crumbs, fill with the potato and bake. Turn out as a garnish round the meat.

Fish Force Meat.
Two-thirds cupful of raw halibut, white of one egg, salt, pepper, cayenne, one-half cupful of heavy cream. Chop the fish finely or force through a meat chopper. Pound in mortar, adding gradually the white of egg and working until smooth. Add the seasonings, rub through a sieve and then add the cream.

Apple and Pea Salad.
Drain through a colander a can of peas. Rinse with cold water. Chop two apples fine with one medium-sized cucumber. Mix with the peas together with one-half cupful of coarsely chopped pecans or walnuts. Serve on lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

Did Really Mean It Once

Newspaper Man's Flowery Compliments Not Altogether a Complete Case of Bunk.

William D. Hassett, one of the sharks on diplomacy and international affairs in Washington, covers the state department for a big news association. One day another reporter covering the same run rushed up to him with this request:

"Bill, fix me up a nice little story about this affair for my paper. You know more about this than anybody."

Hassett not being particularly busy at that time, complied with the request.

Half an hour later the same man came back and requested:

"Bill, please fix me up another little story. You know you're the best informed man in regard to this particular subject."

Bill again wrote the story. The other man came back the third time.

"Look here," said Bill dryly, "I'll write this third story for you, but I hope you don't think it's because I'm failing for this bunk of yours about how much I know."

"Well," said the other, rubbing his chin, "was on the level the first time."—Popular Magazine.

BLOTCHES COVERED LIMBS

19 Roach St., Atlanta, Ga.—"A few months ago I had some kind of skin eruption that spread until my limbs and feet were covered with blotches and watery blisters. It looked like eczema. When the trouble reached my neck and face I was almost driven frantic. It itched and stung so intensely that I could not sleep or wear any clothing on the affected parts. After two months I commenced to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment and after two days I noticed improvement and in six days the trouble left. My skin was fair and smooth again and the eruption never returned."

"My cousin was a sufferer from pimples, known as acne, on his face and seemed to grow worse all the time. I recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to him and now his face is smooth for the first time in three years and he owes it all to Cuticura Soap and Ointment." (Signed) Walter Battle, Oct. 7, 1912.

New York Service.
"Not long ago," relates Ex-Speaker Cannon, a young couple came in from the suburbs to New York city to see the Hippodrome. They arrived very early and decided to have a lunch. They visited a tearoom and had the place all to themselves.

"In serving them the waitress omitted to supply a teaspoon and the fair young bride whispered the fact to her husband.

"Summoning the waitress, the young man asked:

"May we have a spoon?"

"Why, certainly," replied the girl. "I am just tidying up, and you can have the whole room to yourselves in a minute or two."—Lippincott's.

JUST SAVED THE SITUATION

British Royalty's Narrow Escape From What Might Be Called "Simply Awful" Position.

When truth gets a fair inning she rarely fails to be much funnier than fiction. Strange to say, old England, where truth is supposed to be always diametrically sober, now and then makes quite a merry record. A rector of the Church of England, in a remote parish in Wiltshire, recently discovered among his parishioners a fine old figure of a woman, age one hundred and four, the widow of an Innkeeper. This ancient dame has eight sons living, six of whom have served in either the army or the navy. The rector wrote informing King George of these things, and the king ordered a warm congratulatory telegram to be sent to her.

Just as the telegram was sent off, the rector having received additional testimony concerning the "old un," wrote again, explaining that she had been twice divorced, and had not gone through the marriage ceremony at all with the man of her latest household. Another wire was promptly sent at work at the king's command, ordering the postmaster at the other end to stop delivery of the royal congratulations, and that functionary had barely time to grab the coatails of the messenger with the bicycle as he was about to make delivery.

Ex-Speaker Alfred E. Smith, who defeated the Goethals police bill at Albany, N. Y., said at a dinner:

Couldn't Blame the Pump.

A lumberman having awakened on a Sunday morning in a "dry town," after a big spree of the night before, searched his pockets in vain. Being very thirsty, he remembered stumbling over a pump in the alley back of the hotel.
