MILLINERY SALE!

BY MRS. RUCKER AND MISS HUNTER

At Waterproof, March 19, 20 and 21, at Residence of Mrs. N. B. Hunter
At St. Joseph, March 22, 23 and 24, at Residence of Mrs. G. W. Clarke

We take pleasure in announcing that we have arranged to handle a complete assortment of latest creations in millinery and will be prepared to fill orders for anything in modern effects. We had also expected to display a complete line of furnishing goods, spring suits in silk novelty materials, including shirt waists and separate skirts, silk dresses and evening costumes, shoes, hose, gloves, etc., but were disappointed at the eleventh hour, our house finding it impossible to supply the trade because of the great demand of the factories, car shortage and difficulty of securing materials. We regret to be compelled to disappoint our customers, but hope at a later date to be able to make a full display of all feminine apparel, including everything needed by the tiny boys and girls as well.

We will make a special effort to please all customers and hope to be favored with the patronage of all friends, both in town and country. All goods are guaranteed to be as represented and are the latest effects in style and colors.
