The DeLaval

is the best on the market. We have them in stock and our prices are right. Let us figure with you.

O'NEILL-McNAMARA HWD. CO.

Successors to Louis Hoffman Co. VICKSBURG, MISS.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Stone motored up for couple hours visit to friends and took in the pictures Monday night.

Hon. E. C. Rhodes and Mr. J. S. Peek, of Lake St. John, motored up to Lake Providence Tuesday morning.

Master Louis Levy has returned from a visit to his grandparents in New Orleans. He was accompanied home by his cousin, Miss Beatrice Levy.

A preliminary trial was given Saturday to the two men, Williams and Unclabacher, charged with seditious utterances, and both were acquitted.

Hon. Edgar H. Farrar and Mrs. Farrar, of New Orleans, were visitors to St. Joseph last Saturday. Their friends were glad to see them both looking so well.

Mr. W. L. Rountree, publisher of the Madison (Tallah) Journal, was a visitor to St. Joseph this week. He expects to join the other boys in training soon.

Mrs. Rogillo, acting postmistress at Waterproof, was a visitor to St. Joseph this week to take the civil service examination, conducted by Mr. Reeve Lewis. She was the guest of Mrs. Beaubien while here.

Seventy-seven negro troops left St. Joseph for Camp Pike on Wednesday the 19th inst., and all were happy and seemingly anxious to get into the fray. Eight failed to pass the examination at Camp and were returned.

Mr. Fred G. Smith of the Aviation Corps, U. S. A., is enjoying a furlough at his home on "Hard Bargain", which is his first visit home since his enlistment. It is needless to say he is receiving a warm welcome from everybody.

The hot wave that passed over this section last week put a crimp in many past records. On Tuesday, 18th inst., the thermometer in the rotunda of the Court House, always considered the coolest spot in town, with openings to each point of the compass, registered 106 degrees. It was some warm!

Mr. S. N. Malone, president and general manager of the Natchez Oil Co., was a visitor to St. Joseph this week to see his local agent, Mr. C. R. Darden, and together they took a look at some of the crops in the parish, which put the gentlemen in optimistic humor.

Mr. L. B. Hunter went to New Orleans last week where he entered Hotel Dieu for medical treatment. He was accompanied by Mrs. Hunter. We understand Mr. Hunter has been in bad health for some time, but trust he will improve rapidly and soon be able to return home.

The following white soldiers left here Wednesday morning for Camp Pike: Jas. M. Rowan, Dan M. Lynch, Dave M. and Geo. P. Deatherage and Gus Elgutter. They all said, in case they do "go over", they don't intend to come back until the Kaiser is either on St. Helena or shoveling brimstone.

The Vicksburg Auto & Supply Co. is advertising to-day a choice line of paints made especially for automobiles, and which can be had in any colors and shades. When applied by an artist like Sam Hazlip the car is made to look as good as new. The painter and the painter are both at the service of the interested.

Mr. P. S. Legarde went to Ferriday last Sunday to meet his family, who came up from New Orleans. They are at present stopping at the Losey House and in meantime are trying to rent a cottage. It is understood that Prof. Smith has kindly agreed to share his house with Mr. Legarde during the remainder of his stay at St. Joseph.

Mrs. Stanley A. Turpin and son, Merrick, of the Mississippi Delta, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Turpin, at Waterproof. They were accompanied by Miss Bettie Turpin, who has been with her sister for some time. We regret to learn of the illness of their father and join with his many friends in the sincere hope that he may soon be recovered.

The str. Senator Cordill, for so many years the idol of our people, made a trip in the Vicksburg-Natchez trade this week and her appearance at our landing was hailed with delight by all who saw her. Few of her original crew are still with her; the good natured face of Alf Dagg, the polite and accommodating porter, however, being still in evidence. Alf is now in his 26th year on this run.

The public will bear in mind the picture, "The Beast of Berlin," to be shown Friday, matinee and night, and Saturday matinee for whites and Saturday night for colored. Admission for whites: $1.00 for adults and 50c for children, plus 10c and 5c war tax; for colored 50c straight, plus 5c war tax. This is one of the greatest pictures the war has produced and no one should miss the opportunity of seeing it.

The O'Neill-McNamara Hardware Co., of Vicksburg, has accepted agency for the DeLaval Cream Separator, one of the best of its kind manufactured. Every progressive farmer, and many town people who have cows, know the value and usefulness of the cream separator and none who have them can be persuaded to dispense with same. See Barney McNamara when he comes to Tensas again or write the house direct, for particulars.

The many friends of Dr. James M. Adams will extend him congratulations on his promotion to the rank of Captain in the medical corps of the 11th Field Artillery, U. S. A., at Camp Doniphan, Fort Still, Oklahoma. Dr. Adams has been an indefatigable worker since his enlistment and this promotion comes as merited recognition of ability and energy. His commission is dated May 31st, though he was not notified to that effect until his return to camp from furlough spent at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Cloughton, of Tallulah, were guests at the Abraham hotel several days this week.

Mrs. P. W. Callihan, of Hollendale, Miss., was the guest of her brother, Dr. Jos. Whitaker, on Wednesday.

Mr. R. S. Graves, postmaster at Waterproof, and his son, Robert, Jr., were visitors to St. Joseph yesterday.

Mr. Geo. D. Fish, late of Waterproof, has succeeded Mr. Sam J. Firman as agent at St. Joseph for the M., H. & L.

Master William J. van Santen, of New Orleans, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade Newell, in this parish.

Mrs. Edgar Sower, nee Miss Elizabeth Crothers, is visiting her mother and grandmother. Her husband, Lieut. Sower, is "over there."

Mrs. Myles Hopkins and little daughter, of Roosevelt, La., returned home on Monday from a visit to Mrs. F. McC. Hopkins, at "Oakwood."

We are pleased to state that the general health of Tensas parish at this time is exceptionally good; doctors and undertakers can take their summer vacation.

Mr. Jno. Raymond Meng, of Vidalia, was a visitor to St. Joseph on Thursday as representative of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. He will make this territory in future.

Mr. J. R. Wooten of the Wooten-Hyle Implement Co., of Monroe, and Mr. J. B. Wright, manager of the Tallulah Cotton Oil Co., were visitors to St. Joseph and Tensas parish this week.

Mr. Sam Marks returned home this week from a visit to his brother, Mr. Joe Isaacs, in New Orleans. While in the city Mr. Marks received medical treatment and we are pleased to learn is greatly improved in health.

By notice elsewhere it will be seen that a meeting of the School Board is called for Thursday, July 11th, when the Superintendent's annual report will be offered and teachers for the coming term will be appointed.

The Newellton friends of Mr. Gus Elgutter gave a farewell dance Tuesday night in honor of his joining the army. He left for Camp Pike Wednesday. His brother, Mr. Morris Elgutter, is at Camp Beauregard, where he has been for some time.

With the exception of Sunday School there will be no religious services conducted at any of the churches in Tensas parish on Sunday, due to the fact that this will be the fifth Sunday in the month and the three ministers will be in attendance on other charges.

An electrical storm swept over this section on Wednesday night and was accompanied by considerable wind, which tore limbs from trees and blew down more or less fencing, while a great deal of corn was leveled with the ground. The blow was accompanied by a beating rain but which was of short duration.

Mr. W. J. Steen returned this week from New Orleans where he had gone to visit his family, who are spending the summer there, and also to consult a specialist. Mr. Steen expects to return to New Orleans at a later date, when in all probability he will undergo an operation. Mrs. Steen and Miss Amalia are expected home next week.

Mr. Alex Blackman entertained a crowd of his friends at his home on Wednesday evening, when cards and other games were played and a number of late records were played on the Victrola, delicious refreshments being served at intervals. The evening was most delightfully spent, not even the inclement weather marring the occasion.

The farmers have taken advantage of the dry, hot weather that has prevailed of late to work out their cotton and today the crop looks about as clean and promising as the most particular would care to see. Corn has suffered greatly from lack of moisture in many sections of the parish, and unless we have plentiful rain soon this crop, generally speaking, may prove a failure, which will be a great misfortune at this critical time when food stuffs are so scarce and high.

With our next issue the Gazette will publish the opening installment of the celebrated story, "Over the Top", one of the greatest war stories that has been given the American public since the beginning of the present world-war. The author of this very exciting and realistic narrative is Author Guy Empey, an American boy, whose experiences in the war zone, even before the United States engaged in the fray, were harrowing. The story cannot fail to interest the most callous, and the fund of information obtained from its perusal as to the people we are fighting and the country which is now the scene of conflict will alone be well worth the time spent in reading. To our subscribers around St. Joseph the story will later be especially interesting, as the St. Joseph Electric Theatre has already perfected arrangements to run "Over the Top" as a serial, and to those who have read the story the picture will be particularly attractive. Don't fail to read the opening installment next week. The story if bought in book form will cost as much as a year's subscription to the Gazette.

ROE-BUCKNER.

The Union Church at Newellton, La., was the scene of a happy wedding event and was filled at 2:30 p. m., June 10th, 1918, by the friends and relatives who gathered there to witness the marriage of Miss Pauline Routh Buckner, of Newellton, to Mr. Frank L. Roe, Jr., of Omega, La. The ceremony of the Episcopal Church was performed by the Rev. Mr. Rightor, of Lake Providence, La.

The church and altar were beautifully decorated, by loving friends, with palms and ferns, mingled with many flowers, which made a beautiful setting. Miss Josephine Aly was at the organ and played the wedding march and other beautiful selections, which added very much to the otherwise pretty scene.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, Hon. Louis Buckner, and was attended by her sister, Miss Alice Buckner, who acted as bridesmaid, with Mr. Hampton Percy as best man, they meeting the bride at the chancel steps, where the beautiful Episcopal ceremony was performed. The lovely young bride was dressed in an exquisite traveling suit of blue Jersey cloth, trimmed with gray, and a traveling hat to correspond.

The bridesmaid was daintily dressed in a rose colored gown and wore a black and rose hat to match. She carried a bouquet of brides' roses.

After the ceremony the connections of the family repaired to the residence of the bride, where delicious refreshments were served.

In addition to the large number of friends in the vicinity, the wedding was attended by Mrs. Frank L. Roe, mother of the groom, and her relative, Mrs. Sturtevant, of New York.

Soon after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Roe left by car for Tallulah, where they took train for Shreveport to spend a short honeymoon.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Louis Buckner of Newellton, and has many friends, while the groom is a promising young business man of Omega, La., and which place will be their future home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roe were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents, tokens of the love and esteem in which they are held by their many friends, particularly the children of the Newellton High School, of the faculty of which she was a valued member.
