An admission fee of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children will be charged. The public is cordially invited. Our sister town possesses amongst its young people much histrionic talent of no mean order and we are sure a play put on by them will be well worth going there to see.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The Lycium Committee appreciates the large audience that was present at the last entertainment, "Canny Ricks." We were glad to be able to give an entertainment which every one enjoyed. We feel that the program next Monday night will be equally enjoyable, though it will be of a different character, and we hope to have present an equally large audience. The Kellam Duo are great artists and are unexcelled in their line. The program will be varied and will provoke the fun-loving to hearty laughter as well as thrill the lovers of good music with beautiful melodies and strains of the most exquisite music. No one should miss this opportunity of an evening's complete enjoyment.

The committee deserves especially to thank Mr. Scott for his support and assistance in printing the dates of the circulars and giving us so much space for advertising in the Gazette—free of charge. "May his tribe increase." I appreciate the help of Mr. Alex Blackman, who is managing the course during the time of my indisposition.

The Gazette is requested to publish the following:

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES CLAYTON SKINNER

request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter

to

MR. EDWIN RANDOLPH McDONALD

on Wednesday, the twenty-seventh of December, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two, at twelve o'clock

UNION CHURCH
ST. JOSEPH, LOUISIANA

We have been requested to state that no other form of invitation will be issued to the McDonald-Skinner nuptials and all friends will accept the above as personal as well as general.

Mr. Frank Skinner of Bovina, Miss., visited his mother and other relatives at St. Joseph this week. Mr. Skinner says his children that were injured so badly in the dreadful railroad crossing accident, and who have been at the sanitarium at Vicksburg for some weeks, are getting along well and he does not anticipate any permanent disability to either of the three, which is most gratifying news to his friends here.

The river show, "French's New Sensation," gave a performance at St. Joseph on Thursday night and had very good attendance. The showboat had great trouble getting here on account of the hard south wind that blew all day, making impossible to tow the floating palace down stream, as the waves dashed over the deck to the discomfiture of everything, and forcing the steamboat to swing around, with the opera boat up-stream, and then back down stream, and landing at St. Joseph head down, the force of the wind absolutely overcoming the force of the current. The show was very good, but the late arrival of the boat, 6:30 p. m., made impossible to get the approaches to the stage-plank in good shape, and all who saw the show had to bog around a little. Much complaint was made by the people at the misunderstanding in the charge. The show advertised the admission fee at 30c, without further statement that reserve seats would cost 45c extra, making the total price 75c, causing some embarrassment to those who did not anticipate the greater charge and who may not have been prepared. This sounds so much like misrepresentation to the public that many think the attention of the management should be called to it.

St. Joseph had this week the pleasure of a visit from Miss Nellie K. Smith, whose home is at Monterey, California. Miss Smith's visit to our town was made unusually pleasant to many of our older citizens because of the fact that she is the daughter and youngest child of the late and lamented Rev. Thos. W. Smith, who was for so many years rector of Christ Church at St. Joseph. She is a lady of strong personality, bright mind, highly cultivated and possesses most charming manners. Her features and voice bear striking resemblance to her father, who, she intimated, it was never her pleasure to know. During her stay here Miss Smith met a number of our people who had known her father well and who had received ministerial service from his hands. In company with friends she visited the present telephone exchange, which had been her father's home during the many years of his pastorate here, and gazed fondly upon the walls which had known him so long. From some of his close friends she secured a photograph of her father and other souvenirs that brought the dead close to the living! On the whole Miss Smith's visit was very pleasant and brought to happy and a search that she has been making for years to locate the town in which her father had lived and the people among whom he had spent so many happy years of his life. She is engaged in business at Monterey, where she conducts a tax room and gift shop, and is now visiting New Orleans for the purposes of buying antiques suitable for her line. We hope to have a visit from her again. Any of our people who may have anything that once belonged to her father that they would not mind parting with, that his own blood might possess, such as photo or letters or autograph, would put her as she said under lasting obligations if they would kindly bequeath same to her, and a line from any one who may have known her father well would be greatly appreciated.
