LIQUOR INTERESTS WIN COURT FIGHT

BEER AND WHISKEY AGAIN ARE FREELY SOLD OVER NEW ORLEANS BARS.

INJUNCTION IS GRANTED

Less Than An Hour After Court Takes Action Saloons and Cafes Are Selling Drinks To Thirsty Patrons.

New Orleans. — Whiskey, four per cent beer, wines, cordials, in short complete bar upon assortments of liquors, were purchased freely in New Orleans following the granting of an injunction by Federal Judge Foster, which, in effect, held the wartime prohibition acts unconstitutional.

Less than an hour after Judge Foster had enjoined federal authorities from interfering with the sale of bonded whiskey, in compliance with the petition of the Herman Leisler Liquor Company, bar rooms were serving liquor in steadily varied assortments. Mixed drinks were unobtainable during the day because of the rush for "straight liquor." Later, however, it was possible to obtain practically all of the widely known mixed drinks, for many years peculiar to New Orleans. French restaurants served claret with dinners, adding the touch which chefs and managers of the establishments always have claimed was necessary for the proper appreciation of their meals.

Hammond. — Fifteen-cent bread by January 1 is the prediction of Bernard Antony, who operates a large baking business in Tangipahoa parish at Pontchatoula. The recent high cost of flour, Mr. Antony maintains, will force this price on the bakers despite their reluctance to advance present prices.

New Orleans. — Mrs. Herman J. Seiforth was elected president of New Orleans Chapter 72, United Daughters of the Confederacy, at the annual meeting in Memorial Hall, to succeed Miss Doriska Gautreaux, who held that office the prescribed limit, two years.

Pointe a la Hache. — John S. Bo has sold his large orange grove situated at Buras to Roy B. Schaefer, of New Orleans, for $15,000. The grove has a large crop of fruit this season, which is being packed and shipped to the New Orleans and Northern markets.

Monroe. — What good roads have done for Ouachita parish was demonstrated when H. W. T. Hunt sold to U. D. Goff of Memphis a 420-acre plantation for $53,000. The same land was sold about two years ago for $50 an acre.

Alexandria. — Robert F. Liebler, a member of the Alexandria bar, while defending an accused person charged with murder in the Federal District Court was stricken with apoplexy and died at the sanitarium.

New Orleans. — All port facilities of New Orleans, save five wharves, are to be roofed at an expenditure of approximately $2,000,000, W. U. Hudson, president of the Dock Board, announced.

New Orleans. — Chester S. O'Reilly, 2610 Royal street, was named by the War Department as a candidate for West Point.

Denham Springs. — Mayor J. L. Westbrook received a shipment of government supplies a few days ago and sold them out as soon as they were unloaded. A larger shipment has been ordered.

Bogalusa. — S. W. Francis is in the Bogalusa Hospital in a serious condition. His right arm was amputated as a result of being accidentally shot while hunting birds with his brother.

Amite. — The tax rolls this year have been filed and show the total property valuation of Tangipahoa parish to be $20,364,175, with the various taxes amounting to $338,238.97.

Pointe a la Hache. — The cold weather has given the oyster and fish trade a boost, and orders are keeping the fishing fleets and shuck factories busy.

Baton Rouge. — Former Governor Martin G. Brumbaugh of Pennsylvania, nationally known school man, was a speaker at chapel exercises at the State University.

Bunkie. — Fire originating in the basement of the high school building was discovered and due to the efforts of the fire department the flames were quickly extinguished. The building was damaged to the extent of 150, covered by insurance.

Lake Charles. — Floyd Hamilton, former parish engineer, announced that the entire thirty-five miles of Pelican Highway traversing Allen parish has been staked off and bids have been requested to be opened soon for the graveling of the length.

Monroe. — Seven new churches built and dedicated three parsonages built and seven rebuilt, 1254 members secured, salaries of pastors more than doubled, and the debt on the district parsonage paid and extensive repairs made on it is the record made by the Monroe District of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the year which Rev. Albert B. Lutz has served as presiding elder.

Winfield. — The buying, selling and recording of oil leases and bringing suits to annul them in this parish is keeping a large number of people busy in the courthouse and causing mineral rights to advance rapidly. The clerk's office is crowded to overflowing all the way and all of the abstractors are working overtime. It is believed a large oil field will be discovered near this place.

New Orleans. — Fire losses in Louisiana in 1919 will be greatly decreased over those of last year, the number of fires occurring in the state will be much smaller and there will be practically a total absence of incendiarism when the report for the year is compiled in the office of the fire marshal, W. M. Campbell, according to L. A. Hagerly, chief clerk of the department.

Shreveport. — Congestion in the Claiborne field is reflected in reports from Homer operations. But two completions yielding about 1500 barrels new production were made and both wells were immediately closed in on completion. Some of the operators, according to reports are drilling merely to the sand to conserve the oil as much as possible.

Monroe. — Committees composed of the leading business and professional men of the parish have been appointed by the presidents of the Monroe Chamber of Commerce, and the Rotary Club, to take the leadership in the campaign for the good roads bonds issue election here this month.

Baton Rouge. — To aid the Red Cross Christmas seal movement for funds with which to combat tuberculosis, Governor Pleasant issued a proclamation calling upon the people of the state to observe the period to December 10 as a special time for co-operation with the Red Cross.

Lafayette. — This city wants a real hand, and to raise the necessary funds the association of commerce has closed a contract to give a carnival here the week of December 8-14. With the net proceeds uniforms will be purchased, a complete library of classical and popular music will be bought.

Washington, D. C. — Sugar growers in Louisiana were considerably relieved when informed by John M. Rogers, representative of the American Cane Growers Association of New Orleans, that the Railroad Administration would furnish sufficient car equipment to handle transportation of sugar in Louisiana.

Shreveport. — Delays in getting material combined with inadequate transportation facilities, is acting in nearly all North Louisiana fields. Red River is the only field which is picking up in production as pipe lines are being rapidly extended in the Bull Bayou district.

New Orleans. — The last of the pioneer Dominican nuns who came from Ireland sixty years ago to found their educational order in New Orleans passed away a few days ago when Sister Mary Xavier died at the Dominican College in St. Charles avenue.

Amite. — The directors of the local light and power company of this place have decided to secure the plant and add the necessary machinery for giving Amite a daytime current for lights and power.

Monroe. — Masonic Grand Lodge officers laid the cornerstone of the new Methodist Church in West Monroe with L. E. Thomas, past grand master of Louisiana, master of ceremonies.

Hammond. — Since the inauguration of the cooling plant at Orange, the latter part of September, a daily shipment of 500 gallons of milk has been maintained, bringing the dairy-men rich returns.

Hammond. — Breaker ground and hauling material for the canning plant of the Strawberry Growers Selling Company is amongst the recent building activities.

Denham Springs. — The largest crop of potatoes ever grown in the parish is being gathered. The market price is so low, however, that most of the crop will be stored and kept over until next spring.
