Mrs. Willie Eckles entertained a number of her friends at a lovely card party Tuesday evening. Miss Clarice McCrea won the ladies prize, and Mr. F. M. Davidson the gentleman's prize. Delightful refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Davidson, Vance, McCrea, Schuchs, Dawee, and Gordon; Misses Gladys and Clarice McCrea, Mollie Schiele, and Messrs. Davidson, Vance, Harrington, Dawee and Eckles.

The many friends of Mrs. E. W. Cordes are glad to hear of her improvement, after being ill for several days.

Mrs. Clifton Wortham, of Monroe, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Jno. D. Hart, for a few days this week.

The members of the Whiting Workers were delightfully entertained by Mrs. W. A. Beard, Thursday afternoon.

The boys basketball team defeated the Y. M. C. team, of Natchez, Wednesday afternoon, 27 to 10.

A delightful little program was rendered at the Vidalia High School auditorium Thursday, morning, commemorative of Armistice Day.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray McNeely have moved into their pretty home, that has just been completed.

NOTICE.

It is my desire that the general public of Concordia Parish know that I have not given, do not give, and will not give at any time, aid or assistance to C. A. Stewart in any of his actions whatsoever, and at no time will I defend him—makes no difference what the trouble may be. Neither will I be responsible for any of his obligations or checks.

OLD TIMER

Dear Editor:—The writer ventured to prophesy in a previous letter, that the election would go one way or the other, and the compiled election returns show that it went the other, and gives grounds for belief that the people did not want the League of Nations. Champ Clark, George Chamberlain, and many other old democratic war-horses went down to defeat—sacrificed on the altar of the League of Nations. Even the splendid oratory of Riley Wilson and Aswell could not stem the tide. They were only able to cut Harding's majority in Ohio down to 400,000. The Democrats have issued a call to "get together." They will NEVER get together. They need to do so. 'Tis a pity they did not get together before the election. They will never get together, while Mr. Wilson is in control of one wing of the party and Mr. Bryan the other; and these two gentlemen having outlived their usefulness, should retire to the shades of private life and give the party a chance. If the Democrats start out again, under the League of Nations banner, they may as well stay at home.

Many stirring events will happen between now and 1924, and the writer ventures to predict there will be at least a half dozen tickets in the field in that year. The Republicans, the Democrats, the Prohibitionists, the labor unions, the Socialists, the Soldier's Legion, the Anarchists, and last, but not least, the Woman's ticket—and the women may all get together, nominate candidates of their own and make a clean sweep of everything. They may do it, they can do it, and they WILL do it.

Now Mr. Editor, we come to the Republican vote cast in Louisiana at this election. It was the heaviest since reconstruction times. It has been hinted that Louisiana may be in the Republican column in 1924. Now, the administration possibly, may be content to stand, hands off, and see the real voters put the State in that column, but will the administration be content to stand, hands off, and see her take out in another column? Let us hope that by 1924 a new leader will have risen in the Democratic party who can unite it. Mr. Wilson and Mr. Bryan both aspire to the leadership, and the best either one can do is to lead the party to defeat. If Mr. Cox runs again, he will still have the League of Nations tied to his neck. If the writer is on this side of the Great Divide in 1924, he will give the Women's party his vote. They will have a ticket, never fear—they have tasted power, and realized their strength. A new broom sweeps clean, and they will surely do some sweeping. The writer would suggest that they have a broom at the head of their ticket, as the Democrats have a rooster.

Yours truly,
OLD TIMER.

IT HAS HAPPENED BEFORE

Prices melt like mud pies in water. Only a little while ago, merchants told us that labor was so high that it was impossible to make reductions. Now merchants tell us that raw materials are so low that it is possible to make reductions. This editorial might have been headed, "Feeding the Fish."

In any event, people are more interested in facts than causes.

The nation is getting back to normal; back to definite sense of values. This thing is good. Just a little more of propagandic fiction would have brought the country to wrack and ruin. As it is, there is going to be considerable discomfort in the process of deflation. Right fat folks don't take off superfluous flesh without illness or its equivalent in terms of self-denial.

We are going to learn thrift again.

We are going to practice common sense again.

We are going to be able to call our souls our own and set about our daily affairs without dizziness, suspicion and violent protest.

Prosperity is going to become less a disease and more a reality. That readjustment is being effected without panic is much more than wonderful; it is a condition without precedent in the annals of industry.—Holland's Magazine.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The "Fourth Red Cross Roll Call" began on Armistice Day and ends on Thanksgiving Day. The selection of this period between these two great days was a very timely one. The Red Cross stands for the same thing that these two dates stand for—the making of the world a better place to live in.

I do not think it necessary to make an appeal to the people of Concordia. You have always stood by the Red Cross and I believe that you always will. Your service did not end with the war—you are still "carrying on." You have been asked to help make the Fourth Roll Call of the Red Cross long enough to reach around the world; helping our service men and their families, our disabled men, our flood sufferers, our neglected children and the sick, on every side.

There is so much to be done and the help of every loyal Concordian is needed.

POLICE JURY MEETING CALLED.

Dear Sir:—The President has instructed me to call a meeting of the Police Jury for the purpose of considering a petition signed by the residents of Black River requesting the building of a road on Black River; for the purpose of making a budget, levying licenses, and for any other business that may come before the Jury. Said meeting to be held Mon-

No wonder the fat man chuckled

I SWELLED with pride.
THE FAT man next to me.
WAS READING one.
OF MY cigarette ads.
AND I felt him chuckle.
NOW NO one had ever.
PRAISED THAT ad.
SO I had to ask.
IF HE liked it.
AND HE said, "Sure."
AND LAUGHED some more.
THEN HE said.
"LOOK HERE" and pointed.
AND WHERE I'd written.
"PURE TOBACCO."
THE PRINTER had set.
"PURE TABASCO."
AND THAT'S why the man.
THOUGHT MY ad.
WAS NOT stuff.
BUT THEN he said.
"FORGET THE ads.
I NEVER read 'em.
BUT LEMME tell you.
SOMETHING DIFFERENT.
THEY OUGHT to say.
ABOUT THAT cigarette.
AND THAT is this.
THEY SATISFY."
AND DARNED if I don't think.
HE REALLY believed.
HE WAS giving me.
SOMETHING NEW!

YOU can blame it on the printer if you don't see "They Satisfy" in a Chesterfield advertisement. But be sure of this—you'll find it in the cigarette, every time. Wonderful Turkish and Domestic tobaccos, wonderfully blended—it sounds easy. But you'll find nothing else like Chesterfields. That blend can't be copied.
