REPUBLICAN CAMPAIGN

Cost $3,416,000—Over a Million and Three Hundred Thousand Deficit Reported.

French Lick, Ind.—The Republican national campaign cost $3,416,000, according to figures given out here by Fred W. Upham, treasurer of the Republican national committee, who came here for a brief rest. He stated that the deficit amounted to $1,530,000. Treasurer Upham said he had just completed his report and the deficit was after all bills had been paid. He said he would go to New York, where he would submit his report on Republican finances to a meeting of the national committee. After approval by Will H. Hayes and the committee the treasurer said he would file the report in Washington.

BURY TWELVE SOLDIERS.

Observance of Armistice Day in Washington Marked By Burial. Washington.—Observance of Armistice Day in Washington was marked by the burial in Arlington National Cemetery of 12 officers and enlisted men who died while serving overseas with the navy and marine corps. A detachment of blue jackets and marines formed a guard of honor as the flag draped caskets were carried from the receiving vault at Arlington to the graves.

Representatives of the Washington chapters of the Red Cross and posts of the American Legion participated in the ceremonies.

EDGAR GRAHAM DIES.

Heart Trouble Causes Death of West Virginia Politician.

Parkersburg, W. Va.—Thomas Edgar Graham, well known in business and political circles in West Virginia, died suddenly at his home here. Heart trouble is believed to have caused his death. Mr. Graham was a delegate to the Democratic national convention at San Francisco and has been active in the affairs of the Democratic party in West Virginia for many years. He was 65 years old.

ADMIRAL HOWARD DIES.

Retired Naval Official Found Unconscious in Bath.

Annapolis, Md.—Rear Admiral Thos. B. Howard, 66 years old, of the U. S. navy (retired), died at his apartment here. He was found unconscious in the bathtub and died within a few minutes. Heart failure was ascribed as the cause of death.

Yams $50 for 50 Cents.

Macon, Ga.—Sweet potatoes sold on the streets of Macon for 50 cents a bushel, having dropped far below any price quoted since 1914 and to a mark below which the price has seldom gone. An unusually large crop, with the general decline in prices of farm products, is given as the reason. In 1918 the same grade of potatoes retailed here for as high as $3.50 a bushel.

Land Bank Pays.

Louisville, Ky.—Six per cent dividend to stockholders on earnings in excess of operative expenses for the year 1920 was declared by directors of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville. The dividend amounts to $78,000 and goes to approximately 9,000 stockholders or borrowing farmers in Kentucky, Indiana, Ohio and Tennessee, in which states the bank operates.

Gets $3,000,000 Gift.

New York.—The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children announced gifts by Mr. and Mrs. August Penkscher, of New York City, of property on Fifth avenue for erection of new buildings and an endowment fund for their maintenance, totaling in value more than $3,000,000.

Entertain President-Elect Harding. New Orleans.—President-elect Harding will be the guest of the New Orleans Association of Commerce at a luncheon Nov. 18, a few hours before he sails for Panama, according to an announcement made at association headquarters after a long distance telephone call to Point Isabel, Tex.

Elect Wilson and Gov.

New York.—The National Democratic Club, at a meeting of the board of governors, elected President Wilson and Gov. Cox honorary members for "conspicuous service rendered to the world." This election is the first of its kind since that of Grover Cleveland.

Bride Weighs 725.

Santa Anna, Cal.—A bride weighing 725 pounds was brought home by John H. Hamilton, who weighs 155. The bride, formerly Miss Alma Selm, of Venice, Cal., was attended at the wedding by her sister, Mrs. L. C. Kring, who weighs 429.

Bandmaster Dead.

Quincy, Ill.—Ellis Brooks, 72, for many years a leading bandmaster of the country, died here in the Blessing hospital, where he went a week ago for an operation.

Lumber Mill Closed.

New Bern, N. C.—The John L. Roper Lumber Company, employing a thousand men, announced that the plant will be closed for an indefinite period. Lack of demand for lumber was attributed as the reason for the shutdown.

Condensed News Items

SHORT STORIES TERSELY TOLD FOR THE BENEFIT OF BUSY READERS.

POLITICAL.

The Rome Tempo says it understands the mandate for Armenia has been offered to Italy, which is disposed to accept it.

HOME BREW OUTLAWED

Enforcement Officials Ruled Against the Sale of Hops and Malt to Public.

Washington.—Home brewing was brought actively under the prohibition ban when it was learned that enforcement officials had ruled against the sale of hops and malt to others than bakers and confectioners. Great secrecy surrounded the prohibition bureau's action, but it was ascertained definitely that such instructions had been issued.

Details of the order were lacking. The only admission made by prohibition officials in the absence of Commissioner Kramer was that the Volstead act had been construed to mean that the sale of hops and malt as component parts of home-made beer were without the pale of the law and their sale must stop. Enforcement officials throughout the country have been notified of the government's determination, but they have not been supplied with the technical language of the decision.

FIRST DIVISION VETS.

Witness Sham Battle for Entertainment of 10,000 in Reunion.

Camp Dix, N. J.—Under the light of star shells, flares and other illuminants, the old First division, America's first fighting unit to participate in the world war, went "over the top" last week, in a gigantic sham battle for the entertainment of 10,000 of its own veterans in reunion and thousands of civilian visitors. Gen. Pershing and Brig-Gen. Amos A. Fries, guests of honor, with Gen. E. A. Summerall, division commander, and many other prominent army men, were interested observers.
