Vidalia Drug Co.

The first and most important event to chronicle this week is the "Tom Thumb Wedding," which had its setting at the Vidalia High School auditorium Tuesday evening, in which most of the bright little tots of our town participated, impersonating different couples of our good townspeople, and doing full honors for an occasion of this kind, with as much beauty and grace as "Hyman". The lovely little bride, Martha Helen Conner, was as sweet and dainty as any little fairy, while the groom, John Basil McNeely, the little man of her choice was as handsome as could be. The other members of the bridal party were: Maid of Honor, Ruby Chandler; the Bridesmaids, Alice Spires, Lulu Gordon, Ida Mae Conner, and Amelia McCreas, who were dear little misses wearing pretty costumes of voile and lace; the groomsmen, Master Robert Calhoun, Jr., ring-bearer, Master Jack Dale, in a suit of white. In attendance at this brilliant affair were the quaint little mother of the bride, Miss Dora Beard who shed burning tears upon losing her daughter, but who was consoled by her comforting husband, Master George Scott; the two devoted grandmothers of the couple, dear little Miss Herno Davidson and Johnnie Polly Gregory, who made splendid old dames; Grandfathers Walter McCreas and George Murray, Jr.; and last, but not least, the three old maids, Eloise Dixon, Julia Schuchs and Rosa Roberts, who were fine in their robes, who represented, so they said, three of our fairest buds, Misses Gladys McCreas, Corinne Boatner and Josephine Dale. Of special mention were the two ushers, Masters Willard Schuchs and William Anthony Beard, Jr., who were past-masters in their life. Fair guests, all wearing elaborate costumes were grouped around this happy couple. Much credit is due Miss Myrl Brown, who trained these little folks and much credit is due themselves, for their little entertainment. Mr. James M. Lessley, who has been visiting his daughter, Mesdames John Dale, Sr., Richard Dale and Eliza Netterville, returned to his home in Woodville, Miss., on Tuesday of this week, having gone in Mrs. Dale's car accompanied by his daughters, Mrs. Netterville, Miss Stella Lessley and grandson Richard Dale, the last three returning to Vidalia the same evening. Miss Louise Bisland, of Pine Ridge, Miss., is visiting her sister Mrs. Tam Winston this week. Mesdames Mattie Boatner, E. K. Purcell and Howard Henderson attended the tea given by Mrs. W. A. Bowman, at the Prentiss Club Wednesday evening. Friends of Mrs. Richard Wilds are gratified over her condition after quite a serious operation at the Sanatorium Wednesday evening. We hope she will continue to improve and soon be restored to her usual good health. Shopping expeditions to the realm of "Toyland" are now in order and we feel sure old Santa's expense account will be quite large pretty soon. Among the shoppers this week were the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Neal and Mrs. E. C. Rhodes of Con-suelo, La.; Mesdames Albert Gillespie

Homer Smith, Pauline Baldwin, L. K. Purcell, John Dale, Sr., James M. Davis, W. J. Cockfield, Slocumb, H. E. Conner, Eliza Netterville, Mattie Boatner, Chas. Campbell, E. P. Campbell, Jos. M. Reeves, W. A. Beard, Dora Beard, and Misses Mary Belle Mason, Josephine Dale and others. We are sorry little Alma Dale is on the sick list this week, but hope she will soon be well. Mr. Ernest Purcell, of Greenwood, Miss., visited his brother, Mr. L. K. Purcell, one day this week. All deft hands are making preparations for the Bazaar to be held at the old Anna Robinson Restaurant stand on Saturday, December 4th. Be as generous as you can, and patronize the worthy cause advocated by these excellent ladies in charge of the Bazaar for the benefit of the Union Church. Our former townsman, Mr. Willie D. Smith, now of Benton, La., was shaking hands with his friends in town recently, having come on business. We were glad to see Willie, who reports things on a boom and flourishing in his section. Mesdames James Davis, of Glendale, and Slocumb, of Shelby, Miss., were guests in the Conner home this week. Mrs. Davis also visited Mrs. John Dale, Sr. Hon John Dale was a visitor to Harrisonburg several days of this week, having attended court at that place.

WHY HAVE THIN HAIR?

I give eight treatments per month including two shampoos. I guarantee to rid your scalp of dandruff, invigorate and nourish the impoverished hair roots. I am a graduate of hair culture, and can give the best of references. I treat your scalp at your own home, at any time you name. Call me at any time over phone 34. ELLA WILLIAMS (Colored) VIDALIA, LA. Solicitor of White Trade Only

Mr. T. J. Williams, prominent planter and member of the Police Jury from the 10th Ward, was a caller at the Sentinel office Tuesday. Mr. Williams last Wednesday killed a huge black bear with his pistol, in the swamp about four or five miles from Monterey. The animal weighed 442 pounds dressed; and had one of the prettiest furs yet secured this season. We hope our friend Mr. Williams will get another bear soon, so he has promised to send us a piece of it.

Going home to turkey and trimmin's

THANKSGIVING DAY last year.
I ATE my chow.
ALONE in the big town.
AND THE TURKEY was all.
NEATLY VARNISHED and had.
NICE LITTLE paper pants,
ON BOTH its legs.
AND TASTED strongly.
LIKE NOTHING at all.
BUT THIS year.
MAN ALIVE, I'm going home.
AND THERE will be.
A COUNTRY turkey.
DONE TO a turn.
BROWN AND savory.
CRISP AND flaky.
SENDING UP little clouds.
OF TANTALIZING steam.
MAKING NOSTRILS wrinkle.
AND PALATES quiver.
OH BOY, real turkey.
AND THEN afterwards.
ABLE to breathe.
BUT NOT to bend.
I'LL REACH for a smoke.
THAT'S THE real turkey, too.
COSTLY AROMATIC Turkish.
BLENDED WITH the best.
OF MELLOW Domestic leaf.
AND ONCE again—oh boy.
CAN'T YOU just hear me.
INFORMING THE world.
"THEY SATISFY."

IT'S real Turkish tobacco that goes into Chesterfields—really grown in Turkey and bought on the ground by our own buyers. To blend it with best Domestic, in the exclusive Chesterfield way—leave that to us! "They Satisfy?" We'll leave that to you.

In packages of 20 protected by special moisture-proof wrapper. Also in round AIR-TIGHT tins of 50.
