

From its path;
And if tempests and lightnings their terrors shall urge,
We will sail with the nautilus safe o'er the surge.

From Greenland's cold hills when the iceberg shall roll,
And float in the current that floats from
the pole;
Of its mystic course the companions
we'll be,
Till its tall crystal turrets dissolve in the sea.

OCEANA.

I've waited long.

BY J. K. MITCHELL.

I've waited long but not in vain,
Tho' youth and health are gone,
And days of sorrow, nights of pain,
Have found me still along.

I've waited long for thee, and now
Thou comest back to me,
With sorrow on thy furrow'd brow,
A wreck from fortune's sea?

But welcome still thou broken one,
Tho' nothing's left of thee,
But that fair name and thrilling tone,
So dear of yore to me.

Tho' gone the flesh of love's young day,
His calmer light will come,
To shed a purer, softer ray,
On sorrow's stainless home.

Thou couldst not know, in brighter days,
How much my heart was thine;
It is when suns have ceas'd to blaze,
That purer planets shine;

Then let the world frown on, since thou Art true to love and me,
And I will fan thy fever'd brow
And be a world to thee.

Sentimental.

Ain—'Jesse, the flower of Dumblane.'

De sun has gone town shuts behind de blue mountains,
Unt' left de dark night to come on us
again;

Ven I sthump'd along 'mong de schawmups
unt de fountains,
To see vonce mine Katy vat lives on de blain.

How schweet is de lily mit its brown yellow blossom!
Unt so ist mendo all color'd mit
grain;

Put nothing's so britty and sticks in my posen,
Like schweet little Katy vat lives on
de blain.

She's bashful as any, schoost like her aunt Chimy;
She's udder high larnt, nor yet foolish
nor fair;

And he's a great fillain outout any feelin;
Dat would hurt mine schweet Katy vat lives on de blain.

Sing on you schweet pird, mit your song
fur de night.
It's so nice ven de hills sing your song
hack again;

Soech choy to mine heart, and soech
monstrous telfight, Prings schweet little Katy vat lives on de blain.

Mine tays vas like noting, dill I met mit
mine Katy,
All demtings in de town, dey was nonsence and fain,
I didn't see a gal I would call 'my tear
laty.'

Till I met little Katy vat lives on de blain.

Why is marriage like truth? Because its a certain tie.
