GRAHAM'S is the oldest and most popular of the American Literary Magazines. The number for January, 1843, will be the first of the 35th volume. Its long and universally successful career, from its commencement with a few hundred subscribers, until the present time, when it has a circulation of fifty thousand copies a month, is perhaps as good an evidence of its great and increasing merit as the publisher has in his power to offer. To his old subscribers, he trusts no assurance is necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. The engagement during the past year, of such men as BRYANT, COOPER, DANA, LONGFELLOW, HOFFMAN, MANCUE, etc., of high reputation in the literary world, as regular contributors, in addition to a previous list embracing many of the first names in the nation, is a sufficient guarantee that the work will continue to be the principle medium of communication between the best authors and the public. Among the attractions of the thirty-fifth volume, will be several TALES by Mr. J. F. Cooper, Mr. Gratman, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Herbert, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Mary Claever, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Ellet and Mrs. Stephens' poems by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Dana, Mr. Longfellow, Mr. South, Mrs. Sible Smith, Mrs. Cogswell, and Mrs. Sigourney; essays by Mr. Fay, Mr. Jones, Mr. Tickerman, Mr. Poe, &c. &c. National Magazine OF LITERATURE, ART AND FASHION. Graham's Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine. PROSPECTUS FOR 1843. EDITORS: J. FENNIMORE COOPER, RICH'D. H. DANA, WM. CULLEN BRYANT, H. W. LONGFELLOW, CHARLES F. HOFFMAN, T. C. GRATMAN.

GRAHAM'S is the oldest and most popular of the American Literary Magazines. The number for January, 1843, will be the first of the 35th volume. Its long and universally successful career, from its commencement with a few hundred subscribers, until the present time, when it has a circulation of fifty thousand copies a month, is perhaps as good an evidence of its great and increasing merit as the publisher has in his power to offer. To his old subscribers, he trusts no assurance is necessary of his determination to maintain its present ascendancy over all the rival periodicals of the country. Among the attractions of the thirty-fifth volume, will be several TALES by Mr. J. F. Cooper, Mr. Gratman, Mr. Hoffman, Mr. Herbert, Miss Leslie, Mrs. Mary Claever, Mrs. Embury, Mrs. Ellet and Mrs. Stephens' poems by Mr. Bryant, Mr. Dana, Mr. Longfellow, Mr. South, Mrs. Sible Smith, Mrs. Cogswell, and Mrs. Sigourney; essays by Mr. Fay, Mr. Jones, Mr. Tickerman, Mr. Poe, &c. &c. [Here follows a more full list of the names of contributors, the most distinguished of the country which we omit for want of room.]

GRAHAM'S Lady's and Gentleman's Magazine has been from its establishment more than any other the favorite periodical of the greater sex. Though its plan does not entirely exclude articles of the most important character, such as have raised Blackwood's and some other foreign journals to their high influence and reputation, its pages will be principally devoted to what is usually termed light literature. It will be distinguished from other publications of similar aims by the literary and artistic merit of its contents. While those of other works are known or anonymous, the contributors to this are the most eminent authors of our age and country; the very creators of our National Literature. Especially is it celebrated as containing the choicest productions of the finest female writers of the time. Every number contains gems which may be appealed to with pride by the sex as vindicating their intellectual eminence.

SPLENDID EMBELLISHMENTS. In the department of Engravings it is well known that Graham's Magazine has far surpassed any periodical work ever published in this or any other country. The highest ambition of rival publishers seems thus far to have been to maintain a respectable imitation of the numerous costly and beautiful works of art with which the successive numbers of this journal have been graced. In the course of the succeeding volumes many important new features will be introduced. Sartain and Sade the most celebrated Mezzotint Engravers in the Union, and equals of the best in Europe, will continue to furnish their exquisite productions; and Rawdon, Wright and Hatch, G. Parkers, A. L. Dick, Gimbridge, Jackson, Jones and others, of New York, and Dodson, Welch and Waters, Tucker and others, of Philadelphia—all among the most eminent line engravers of the present century, have been engaged to furnish a succession of highly finished steel engravings, superior to any that have hitherto appeared in periodicals. Among the pictures that will be engraved for the volumes in 1843, are several ORIGINAL PAINTINGS, by Ingham, Inman, Cole, Thompson, Freeman, Franquetin, and other distinguished artists. The American periodicals have hitherto contained, save in a very few instances, only engravings copied from foreign prints. The publisher of Graham's Magazine will be the first to reform the practice, and to make his work strictly original in its embellishments as well as its literary contents.

OUR PORTRAIT GALLERY.—One of the new features of the coming volumes will be the introduction of Portraits of the contributors to Graham's Magazine, which of course, will include nearly all the eminent writers of the day. The 35th volume will include, from the burials of Parker, Johnson and others, portraits engraved in the highest style of the art of Mr. Cooper, Professor Longfellow, Maria Del Occidente, Mrs. Sigourney, Miss Sedgwick, Mrs. Sible Smith, Mrs. Embury and several others—all from paintings executed expressly for the purpose.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT will continue to embrace notes of current literature etc, and reviews of all new American and foreign works of general interest or value. The criticisms of Graham's Magazine are acknowledged in all parts of the country to be superior in acumen, honesty and independence to those of any contemporary. Indeed, while a majority of the monthly and quarterly journals have become mere advertising mediums for the booksellers, in which every thing that is indiscriminately praised, this periodical is looked upon as a just and discriminating arbiter between authors and readers, in which both have implicit confidence.

Graham's Magazine will be published on the first of each month in every quarter of the Union. The most distant subscribers will therefore receive it on that day, as well as those who reside in Philadelphia. The proprietor being more desirous of presenting the best and most beautiful than the cheapest work in the country, and anxious to bring it within the reach of all, offers the following as the lowest terms at which it can be afforded:—THREE DOLLARS per annum in advance for a single copy, or ten copies, eight for five dollars, or eleven for ten dollars, sight drafts furnished as usual invariably in advance. Postage on all letters to be pre-paid. GEORGE R. GRAHAM, Dec. 7, 1842. No 98 Chestnut St Philadelphia

LIFE AND SPEECHES OF HENRY CLAY, Complete in two volumes, of over 1100 pages, WITH THREE ENGRAVINGS! THE WHOLE FOR ONE DOLLAR.

The Publishers of the New-York Tribune have effected an arrangement with Mr. James B. Swain, proprietor of the only full and illustrated collection of the SPEECHES OF HENRY CLAY, preceded by a Biographical Memoir of the Great Statesman and Orator of the West, and embellished by three superb Engravings—by which they will be enabled to publish, from Mr. Swain's stereotype plates, an edition of that work for the People, in two large and elegant volumes, at the unprecedentedly low price of ONE DOLLAR for the whole! This edition will comprise— I. A MEMOIR OF HENRY CLAY, clear and glowing, written expressly for this work, by HENRY J. RAYMOND, Esq. II. The speeches of Mr. Clay, from 1810 to 1842 inclusive, carefully collected from various sources for this work compared and corrected, and all restored to the first person—many of them having been only reported in the third person—"Mr. Clay said" and so, and "he urged," &c., instead of giving his own vigorous and graphic diction, without interpolation or dilution. No collection of Mr. Clay's Speeches at all comparable with this, in completeness or correctness, has ever before appeared. Each Speech is prefaced by a brief introductory paragraph explaining the circumstances which called it forth, and whenever it is desirable and not otherwise indicated, a note at the end gives the fate of the measure under discussion.

ILLUSTRATIONS. I. A Portrait of Henry Clay, from an original painting by Linnin, engraved by Prud'homme. II. A view of the birthplace of Henry Clay, in "the Slashes of Hanover," Virginia—engraved on steel. III. An Engraved Fac-Simile of a letter from Mr. Clay. Such is the character—such are the contents of the edition of THE LIFE AND SPEECHES OF HENRY CLAY, which the subscribers now offer to the public in two large volumes of 1100 pages, for One Dollar. It will be beautifully printed, on fair, white paper, and neatly put up in flexible covers. It is afforded cheaper than any such work ever was before, because we hope to give it the largest circulation ever attained by any.

To the friends of HENRY CLAY—Mighty, glorious host!—to the advocates of the benignant principles and measures of National Policy of which he is the foremost champion—to the lovers of our country universally—but especially to the various Whig organizations and Clay Clubs, do we confidently appeal for aid in our effort to extend the circulation of this work, and render its perusal, as nearly as may be universal. We ask them to do this, for our sakes, but to advance the great Cause to which their energies are devoted, and because that Cause can in no way be more persuasively, more successfully commended to the public judgment, the popular heart, than in the lessons of far seeing Patriotism, the burning Eloquence of Henry Clay. Respectfully, GREENEY & McELRATH. 160 Nassau St., New-York.

This edition of Mr. Clay's Life and Speeches will be issued on or before the 1st of June next, and will be first supplied to those who shall have previously subscribed and paid for copies, in the order of such payment. Price $1 for the whole work, $10 per dozen, $60 per hundred. Subscriptions and orders are respectfully solicited. The exceedingly low price at which this work is to be published absolutely precludes the possibility of disposing of it, in any instance, on terms other than cash in hand. Our friends will therefore understand that, however responsible they may be, we must adhere with the utmost strictness to the cash principle. Almost every village, certainly almost every town will be able to form clubs of twenty-four. And in all cases where the money ($20) for 24 copies, or over is sent through the Post Office, and a certificate taken from the Post Master, it may be sent at our risk, and the Post Master will be entitled one copy gratis. It is particularly requested that all orders be accompanied by specific directions as to the manner in which the books shall be forwarded, and when unaccompanied by such specific directions, the books so ordered will be neatly put up in bundles or boxes, and the name and place of destination legibly marked thereon, and the boxes or packages retained in our warehouse until called for, or directions given as to the manner of their shipment. The publishers will not hold themselves responsible beyond their shipment, or delivery to order. G. & M. New-York, April, 1843.
