HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Two Well-Known Parties Arrested Charged With the Crime.

Full Details of the Affair—Statements from the Man Who Was Robbed and Both of the Accused Parties.

This morning there appeared before Justice Makeig a man named W. C. Grimes, who made the following affidavit for a warrant for arrest:

"W. C. Grimes, who being duly sworn, deposes and says that Geo. F. Oglesby and Frank Henry, in the county of McLennan and the state of Texas, on or about the 31st day of July, 1888, did then and there unlawfully enter into an agreement and did conspire together and rob affiant of $500 in currency, lawful money of the United States, of the value then and there of $500.

(Signed.)
WILLIAM C. GRIMES.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this the 2nd day of August, 1888.
F. M. MAKEIG,
Justice of the Peace.

Upon the above affidavit Justice Makeig issued a warrant for the arrest of Geo. Oglesby and Frank Henry, and Constable Lee Jenkins and Deputy Jim Lockwood made the arrest of both parties and confined them in jail.

STATEMENT FROM THE VICTIM.

About the following statement was gleaned by the NEWS reporter from the man that was robbed: "My name is W. C. Grimes; I came from Little Rock, Ark., and landed in Waco two or three days ago. I became acquainted and was in company with one Frank Henry all during the day previous to the night I was robbed, and I walked around various parts of the city with him; and he saw me have my money in a sock underneath my clothes next to me. On the night I was robbed Frank Henry and myself were in company together. (The man was unable to tell the reporter accurately what portion of the city they were in, he being a stranger here, but from his description, we are almost certain the robbery occurred in the alley which runs directly back of the jail.) He stated that Henry and himself took a drink together at a saloon on the square, and when they were in the alley above mentioned Henry made some excuse and walked off a few steps, when he saw a man accost Henry and have some conversation, then both parties came up to him and the stranger went directly to him and informed him of his object and proceeded to rob him, and seemed to know exactly where his money was secreted, that he spent no time in searching him, but went straight for the place I had the money secreted. The man further stated that when the robber had completed his work he ran down the alley and he and Henry followed, although Henry did not go in the exact direction the man was going. He also said that Henry remarked to him at the time, "That it was hard luck," and that he and Henry then went in front of a saloon on the square, and he there saw the man that had robbed him. The man said he lost something over $500, and that he had a fine watch on him at the time but the robber refused to take it.

There is also another affidavit made by the man Grimes before Justice Makeig, stating that Geo. Oglesby (the alleged perpetrator of the robbery, when committing the act represented himself as being an officer of the law, and pretended that he wished to arrest him, (Grimes.)

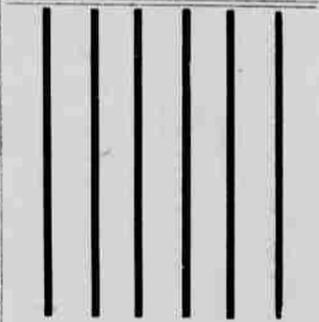

STATEMENT OF THE ACCUSED MEN.

Mr. Oglesby and Mr. Henry were both seen by a NEWS reporter to-day, and both parties protested their innocence and claimed that they had no connection with the crime whatever. Mr. Oglesby states that he can prove that he went directly home, to the Brunswick hotel, on Franklin street, where he and his family is boarding, on that particular night, between the hours of 9 and 10 o'clock, as he had been on the corner of Third and Mary streets listening to the patent medicine band, and as soon as they concluded their performance he departed straight for home, and says he remained there until the following morning. Both of the accused parties were reared in McLennan county, are well known and have numerous friends here, and their actions heretofore have been nothing of a disreputable nature. Up to 3:30 o'clock this evening, the hour the NEWS goes to press, neither of the men had given bond, nor had their bonds been fixed.

The Quick Meal gasoline stove is absolutely safe and free from dirt, soot or smoke; does its work quicker, cheaper and better than any other stove made.

A Quick Meal stove means comfort to the cook and perfect satisfaction.

Mr. E. Wright, of Navarro county, owns a threshing machine and fourteen mules. These last two weeks he has, with that outfit, been threshing oats and wheat near Lorena, in the Foster's Branch neighborhood. He threshed, of wheat 400 to 450, and of oats 1000 to 1400 bushels per day. He says that in the neighborhood where he threshes oats have yielded from 30 to 75 bushels per acre, and will average 50, and wheat from 7 to 12 bushels. Yesterday twenty-three wagons loaded with oats were at Lorena at one time, waiting to be weighed. Oats sold for 24 cents per bushel. Two more threshers—one a steam thresher—are at work near Lorena. There is yet two weeks' work for all. In Navarro county, Mr. Wright's home, crops are not so promising as here.

W. E. Levinson, a merchant at Pittsburg, Penn., and cousin to the Messrs. Rosenthal of this city, arrived at the Mitchell House night before last. This afternoon he left for Temple, on a visit to an uncle, also a Mr. Rosenthal, who is a dry goods merchant at that place. Mr. Levinson thinks of selling out at Pittsburg and locating in Texas. He is now prospecting with that object in view, acting on the advice of the Messrs. Rosenthal, who have just made him a visit at Pittsburg. Business at Pittsburg seems to be overdone. It is a flourishing mining and manufacturing city, with 140,000 inhabitants, of whom 15,000 are Hebrews.

There is a large open ditch on North Thirteenth street about six feet deep and ten wide, caused by a small creek which comes down the hills in wet weather. The crossing of Franklin street is very narrow and occupied by the street car track. On Monday night a man driving a reaper with four horses attached attempted to cross with the result of plunging two horses in and a narrow escape from sliding the whole team and reaper piled on each other. The harness of the lead team had to be cut to pieces to extricate the horses.

There are now about twenty-five county convicts assisting Mr. Darwin in making a crop. The Darwin farm is a popular place, to judge from the number of visitors and their protracted stay.

The enormous crop of grass will make fat cattle and fat cattle will make tender meat on which the people will grow fat and healthy.

The toniest barber shop in town is that of Jeff Williams, the old "O. K." stand, Austin street, near the square. He has four tonsorial artists unsurpassed in the state, and a nice cool room. Everything kept nice and in the best of order.

The millers are nonplussed about wheat. They desire to buy all that is offered but the grades of much is so low as to oblige them to reject it. The price paid for good wheat is 75 cents, but it is bought as low as 50 cents. Grades below that are unsalable.

A social hop, which was to have been given to-morrow night at the Philo Literary hall, complimentary to Miss Wilson, of Caldwell, Miss Westbrook, of Loreno, and Miss Gibbs, of Mexia, is postponed on account of the illness of Mr. J. E. Sears, in whose family the latter young lady is a visitor.

There was a delightful party given at the residence of Mr. W. W. Mahan on South Fourth street last night. The affair was given complimentary to Mr. Mahan's daughter, Miss Pearl, and was a highly enjoyable affair. Quite a number of invited guests were present, and the time was pleasantly past in games, dancing, etc. Elegant refreshments were served to all.

The Avenue meat market is one of the neatest and cleanest places in the city, and Mr. Webb the prince of butchers. New repairs are being made in the house which will make it as daisy as an ice cream parlor. When they are completed steaks and roasts will touch nothing but pure marble slabs. There are no flies on the meat in the Avenue market, and the country is ransacked to find the fattest and tenderest animals for its customers.

Workmen are busy on the building, 402 Austin street. The old front has been torn down and a new one is to be erected of artistic iron columns and plate glass windows. When finished it will be occupied by E. W. Mitchell, jeweler. The new store will make a grand addition to that block, as Mr. Mitchell will open up there with a grand stock of extra fine goods. See formal notice of removal on our second page.
