OFFICE OF J. B. GILMER & CO., WACO, TEX., REAL ESTATE MARKET FOR WEEK ENDING APRIL 12, 1906.

The real estate market is steadily improving as the season advances and there is a fair demand for building lots in all parts of the city. To investors we are offering good bargains in the most beautiful suburb of the city. It is on the heights overlooking Padgett Park and near the artesian wells. It commands a view of almost the entire city, and of the valley of the Brazos and the country beyond as far as the eye can reach. It gathers the breezes from the gulf and prairies fresh and uncontaminated by city odors. It is traversed by lines of long streets and when built up by residences will be still more a thing of beauty. We offer this in blocks of 12 lots or as a whole at what must justify the most judicious investors.

As another specialty we offer 50 lots between Columbus and Barnard streets by the block at attractive prices. This property is on an elevated plateau, on two of the popular residence streets and immediately on the line of principal growth of the city. It is safe to predict that in twelve months or less these lots will steadily sell at double the price for which we are now offering them.

Also nine acres between Austin and Franklin streets and east of Glenwood addition at figures on which you can double your money in six months. The owners of the above properties are progressive men and propose to turn them loose at fair prices to keep the real estate ball in motion. We have residence and business lots in all parts of the city at retail. Long or short loans negotiated at low rates. I. B. GILMER & CO.

A COMPLETE PLANT.

The Waco Ice Factory—Its Capacity and Appliances. If any fears of an ice famine this summer have been entertained they would be speedily allayed by a visit to the Waco Ice factory, now owned and run by Mr. V. A. McDonell, one of the most thorough going business men in the city, assisted by Mr. Jno. H. Roller, one of the most skilled ice men in the state.

A reporter was through the entire establishment this morning, and must say that it is a model establishment, with the most complete details. The Waco Ice Factory has a capacity of ten tons of ice per day, under an ordinary run. It has been completely remodeled and arranged, so that nothing but an act of Providence can successfully interfere to prevent a steady output of ice. Its engines, wells, ice storage and machinery are all first-class. A new gas condenser has been put in, it has two immense boilers only one of which is necessary, stacks of extra pipe, extra ammonia tanks, and nearly everything in duplicate. It is really two complete ice plants, got up at great expense so as to preclude any, even temporary stoppage. All the expense of duplicate appliances have been put in so that any accident cannot stop the running of the factory for ten minutes. New, cold storage capacity has been added for the use of merchants. There is one cold storage house for the Anheuser-Busch beer, of which Mr. McDonell is agent, another of two car capacity for another beer and a third for merchants' use.

The Waco Ice factory is undoubtedly one of the most complete in the state, and under first-class management and thousands of dollars have been spent by Mr. McDonell to make it such. It might have begun operation a month ago but the proprietor would not start till everything is perfect. It opened up the throttle valve yesterday and has to-day fifteen tons of ice, and will always keep a surplus on hand. Every emergency has been anticipated and provided for, and the city of Waco need have no fear for an abundant supply of pure ice for the summer. Everything about the factory is as neat as a pin and it is an interesting place for visitors. Mr. McDonell and Mr. Roller are nice, genial gentlemen, as well as hard working, and pains-taking experts and men of business. An ice wagon was put on to-day for the first time and soon the wagons will be running all over the city delivering the cold and grateful product of the factory to those who favor it with their custom.

How a Georgia Lady Lost Her Teeth. A lady was visiting a friend at Americus lately and she wore a set of false teeth. A little 5-year-old boy saw her take the teeth from her mouth, and ran terrified to his mother, exclaiming: "Mamma, mamma, Miss Mary pulled out a whole handful of teeth at once, and tore all the skin out of her mouth, and didn't cry one bit. It didn't hurt, but you'll have to give her all of old Speckle's eggs to eat, for she can't chew her victuals." He couldn't be made to understand that they were false teeth and was sure the lady would starve to death.—Savannah News.

Fully Accounted For. Jack—Who is that unfortunate cripple minus one arm, one leg, several teeth, one eye and three-fourths of his hair? It's rather early for baseball umpires. Tom—Oh! that is what is left of poor Muggins. He served as judge in a beauty show down east somewhere.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

City Council. The city council met last night in regular session with all the aldermen present and Mayor Hinchman in the chair. A petition protesting against granting the St. Louis and Arkansas and Texas railroad permission to build side tracks, was presented and referred to the street committee. A petition of W. R. Boyd, asking to be appointed janitor of the new city hall, was referred to the mayor. An invitation to the city council to attend the decoration services next Tuesday was presented by Marshal Neil, and accepted by the council. On motion of Alderman Goode the school children were invited to attend the decoration ceremonies under the leadership of their teachers. Aldermen Caruthers, Moore, Jones and Mayor Hinchman were appointed a committee on decoration. City official bonds were passed on and approved, and also report of Treasurer Sealey. The city physician presented his report for April. It showed sixteen deaths and ten births during the month. Alderman Whelan reported for the sanitary committee. Alderman Herbert reported for fire committee. The report contained estimated monthly expenses of fire department to be $651.20. Alderman Lacy urged the appropriation of $8000 per annum for fire department, and after discussion was referred back to firemen's committee. Regular monthly accounts were passed on and ordered paid. Report of City Marshal Neil showed fines collected in April to be $732. Alderman Caruthers, chairman of committee on police, recommended the appointment of three additional policemen. The recommendation was freely discussed, Aldermen Moore, Forsgard and McCulloch opposing, and Aldermen Caruthers, Goode and Herbert favoring it. A motion was made to appoint two policemen. The vote on the motion was a tie, and was carried by the affirmative vote of Mayor Hinchman.

The new contract proposed by the Waco Gas Co. for ten years, which was offered at a previous meeting and published in the News, was taken up. Consideration resulted in favor of accepting the contract with the following modifications: "First, That said Gas Company shall agree to make said contract for six instead of ten years; second, that for any additional light hereafter ordered by the city, either arc or gas, the city shall pay $12.50 per month for each additional arc light so ordered and $2.50 per month for each additional gas lamp so ordered, the city to agree not to order less than five additional arc lights for one circuit at any one time, unless the circuit is already established." The modifications were accepted formally by Judge Geo. Clark for the Gas Company, and the contract was accepted by the council.

A bid of S. L. Samuels offering to make a digest of the city ordinance for $200 was accepted. An ordinance prepared by the ordinance committee according to instructions of the council at a previous meeting and having for its object the regulation and restriction of the social evil was reported by that committee which consists of aldermen Moore, Caruthers and Herbert. The consideration of the ordinance was deferred to the next meeting.

An ordinance to authorize the issue of bonds for the purposes of sewerage the city was read for the first time. City engineer Gurley read a report showing that the amount required to complete the contemplated system of sewers would be $45,150.12. In the bonds provided for in the ordinance are 20 year bonds interest 5 percent paid semi annually. The council after an earnest and businesslike session adjourned to Monday night next when the sewer bonds will be taken up again.

PERSONAL. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crow are the happy parents of a fine boy. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hamilton left last night for New York by rail on their way to Europe. Mr. J. M. Drake, the veteran job printer of Waco, has opened up again at the old place corner of 3d street and the plaza. Rabbi Rosenberg and his fair bride arrived in Waco last evening and have rooms at the NewLehmann where they will reside for the present. Mr. Jno. H. Einks has purchased an interest in the business of his brother, W. K. Finks, and the firm will be W. K. Finks and company. It will be a pushing firm.

To Waco Wheelmen. There will be a meeting of the cyclists of Waco Thursday night, May 2, in office of Stephenson & Son's store. Let all wheelmen be in attendance, as I have a proposition to make them. Wm. M. STEPHENSON, 4-20-2t, Manufacturer's Agent.

If you want a good job of brick work call on G. W. Hewett, or write your name and number on his slate at C. N. Curtis's, and he will call to see you. Genuine cream at Mrs. Ed. White's ice cream parlor, next door to Hotel Royal, South Fifth street. Try a saucer of Lehman's cream.

CITY ITEMS.

Attend the meeting of the army posts at the district court room to-night. A grand picnic and ball takes place at Walnut Springs on the 9th next Thursday. James E. Childress was re-arrested yesterday on a telegram from Quincy, Illinois, on a charge of forgery. A ten cent circus is in town wooing the youth of the city with seductive music and the antics of a trick mule. The ladies are busy preparing for decoration day at their rooms in the Jones building, on Franklin street. They desire more help. For the rain to fall on the just and unjust is all right, but a frost to fall just now would smash up just and unjust in a common ruin. One of the insurance adjusters is here to adjust the loss of Jasper Jenson, by late fire, for two of the companies in which he was insured for $500 each. Richelieu to-night at the Garland should and will draw a full house. The amateurs have worked assiduously and succeeded wonderfully and should have an ovation to-night. At the cottage of the Cottage wagon yard this morning, Justice Mackeig celebrated the ceremony of matrimony, between Mr. J. H. Hager and Miss Bettle Morfue. A little colony of Turks and Armenians near Pattison in Waller county, are engaging in silk culture from eggs brought from the Orient and mulberry trees from the same place. Sheriff Dan Ford, returned this morning from Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he had been in quest of Sloan, wanted in this county, on a charge of high-way robbery. Sam Dow, the alleged murderer of Henry Marshall, was taken this morning before Justice Jack Harrison, and by his attorneys, Blair and Evans, waived examination and was taken back to jail. The arguments of counsel in the case of the State vs. Lafayette Bivens, charged with rape, closed at eleven o'clock this forenoon and the case given to the jury. Up to twenty minutes of five this afternoon the jury had not returned a verdict. Work on the Arkansas Pass railway towards Rockdale is going on all along the line Wacoward. Would it not be well for the proper persons to open up a correspondence with Mr. Lott in regard to the future destination of the road, if only to relieve public anxiety. A motion was made yesterday for a continuance in the case of the state vs. Lafayette Bivens. The object was to bring the case under the operation of the new law which allows the accused to be a witness in his own behalf in which law takes effect ninety days after the adjournment of the legislature. The motion was overruled. Mr. William Janes died this morning at the residence of his son J. A. Janes corner 10th and Webster streets. The deceased died at the ripe age of 78 years of heart failure after a life of industry and usefulness, 30 years of which were spent in Texas and 19 in Waco. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 10 o'clock from the church of the Assumption Rev. Father Badelon officiating.

Soldiers Graves. The following is the roster of dead soldiers buried in the East Waco Cemetery. Confederates.—John Reagan, A. Tomelson, Jas. Patterson, Fred Axline, W. Tomelson, Moke Wright, F. Adams, Rev. J. E. Pulliam, Sandy Monroe, J. Battle, L. Branch, Frank Brown, Doc Pippin, Jim Purvis, W. Fowler, Jas. Garrison, Alf Neill, Wm. Fowler, T. J. Powers, John Beall, F. J. Nally, George Pinkston. The following soldiers of the war of 1812 also lie buried there; G. W. Clayton, J. Cagle, John McBride, Col. Wm. Nalby, which makes 26 in all.

At the Bat. The game yesterday between Fort Worth and Waco ended in a victory for Fort Worth. The play was a brilliant one throughout and Waco fought hard but in vain. Below is the score of the game:

Shot to Death. HILLSBORO, Tex., May 1.—The details of a sad and distressing accident, resulting in the death of a man by the name of Mose Farris, reached this place to-day. About eight miles northeast of here Tuesday a man by the name of Holland endeavored to shoot a dog, supposed to be mad, but the cap snapped and Farris, who was with him gave him a fresh one. In the meantime the dog had disappeared and the men mounted their horses and started in hot pursuit, and as they were turning a corner in the road Holland's horse became unmanageable, and while endeavoring to quiet him his gun was discharged, the contents taking effect in Farris' head, killing him instantly. Esquire Vison of Itasca held an inquest, and pronounced the shooting accidental.

Taken for a Chicken Thief. SAN AUGUSTINE, Tex., May 1.—George W. Wall, a prominent sawmill man, was waylaid and badly wounded with a shotgun about 11 o'clock Saturday by unknown parties. George Wall and his brother, L. P. Wall, after being in town late at night started home and on going a trail way passed near the residence of Henry Martin, colored, and Martin waked and thought somebody was among his chickens, and fired both barrels of his shotgun, striking Wall with six turkey shot, but Wall being at a good distance is not badly wounded, though he is very sore.

Jefferson's Best Line. JEFFERSON, Tex., May 1.—At a meeting of the board of trade this afternoon there was a committee appointed to address a circular to the citizens and merchants in all cities in the vicinity of Jefferson calling upon them to take advantage of freight rates by ordering their goods by the steamers Dacotha and Friendly to Jefferson and from thence by rail to its destination. By so doing adjoining towns and cities can get cheap freights and at the same time help to sustain the line of independent steamers now running.

Will Get the Arkansas Pass. ROCKDALE, Tex., May 1.—Rockdale now looks forward to the early completion of the Arkansas Pass railway through its limits from its present terminus, West Point, on its line to Waco. The subsidy asked has nearly been raised and no doubt is entertained that the full amount will be fully subscribed and secured within the necessary time.
