Who He Saw.
Mr. Bronette was writing in saying that he had seen Marshal Sharlein and that officer had requested stoppage of the item in the LIGHT concerning his robbery. The official he saw was Detective Hughes.

Four Men.
J. H. G. Meade, just returned from San Lucas Springs, Mexico, presented the LIGHT with a bottle of snare mud, which he says is a great cure for many diseases. It falls, however, to cure the natives of revolutionary ideas.

Inspecting the Convicts.
Judge Mason went out yesterday to Heron's hill, on the Fredericksburg road, where the county convicts are at work and gave them particular directions as to what had to be done for mending the hill and draining the water hole.

The Nationals Are Coming.
The Nationals, of Houston, will be here on Sunday and are going to play a match game of base ball with a picked nine from San Antonio clubs. As these players have beat the crack teams of Austin and Galveston, some good playing may be expected.

Building Permits.
G. J. Gallagher, brick kitchen 20x20, north side Houston street; $300.
George M. Mavrick, to remove an iron clad office 12x20, in west side Navarro street.
J. E. Breeding, lumber dwelling 12x20, corner Olive and Crickett street; $1000.

Recorder's Court.
T. A. Manning, drunk and disorderly, $5; John Bally, drunk, $5; F. Stadenmeyer, drunk and down, $5; Jessie Howard, drunk, $5; Josephine Scott, insulting and abusive language, $5; Dorcas Taylor, insulting and abusive language, $5; W. Boyd, beating and striking, $5.

Robbed of His Beer.
A San Antonio writing to a friend from Fort Worth, on Sunday last, says: "I would drink a glass of beer in you only 'hat the Sunday law is in full force here to-day, and I am as dry as a powder house." This is awkward, especially when a man is fond of a good glass of beer.

Broken Bridges.
Officer Ferris reports the following bridges out of repair:
The bridge on Third street and avenue C, is broken.
The bridge on Fris street is broken; also on Medina street, at the crossing of the Alamo ditch.

The Pretty Brunette.
Miss Nellie Byrd, the pretty brunette attached to the Sunny South, is aroused calling upon the citizens and soliciting subscriptions for her paper. It is needless to say that the paper is home fare, for it has an established reputation second to none in the Southern States, and it is one of those papers that are pleasant companions for the fireside.

"Sugar Ep."
The story is told in Laredo of a Constable making complaint against and having arrested the proprietor of a dance house, charging him with running a disorderly house because the keeper of the house refused to pay him hush money. The accused was tried by jury and found not guilty, and the Constable was properly dismissed from service. Served him right.

A Captured Horse.
Found Master Gleason found a fine dun horse straggling about on East Commerce street. The horse apparently was without an owner, so he took it up. The animal is marked with a Spanish brand, had a United States saddle on it, a colored bridle and webbing reins. The saddle was loose when the horse was caught, and must have shortly been lost.

The Flucky Athletics.
The San Antonio Athletics have sent a challenge to the Austin Red Stockings to play a match game at base ball, and the said challenge has been received. It will be considered at the next meeting of the Red Stockings and will no doubt be accepted. The Athletics think that they can beat the Red Stockings, and it is to be hoped that after the contest they will not have the Blues' fate.

PERSONAL.

Items Cleared in the Hotel Corridor and From Various Other Sources.

Rev. A. J. Kotter, of Buenos, has rooms at the Central. L. Marquass, a commercial man of New York, is a guest at the Menger.

Raul Jordan, a well known citizen and stockman of Helena, is a guest at the Central. Judge G. F. Hall, of the Land Fraud Board, of Castroville, has just returned to the city.

Henry Bauman and Robert Hooks, rancheros of Wilcox county, are staying at the Central.

J. Herrin, Superintendent of the I. & G. N. railroad, Palestine, is staying at the Menger.

Miss Katie Ludwig, returned from Paris yesterday where she has been spending her holidays.

Capt. R. P. Edwards, a prominent citizen and stockman of Fort Worth, is enjoining at the Central.

R. F. Hendricks, an adjuster belonging to the firm of Leon & Blom, Galveston, is at the Menger.

Mrs. Francis, accompanied by her daughter, Miss E. C. Taylor, from Cisco, Texas, are registered at the Menger.

Prof. W. R. Sterling, of the Alamo Music house, has returned to the city after an extended trip through Central and Eastern Texas.

H. A. Lewis, who has been to New York with a view to raise subscriptions for a new railroad, has returned to San Antonio, ready to begin work.

John Fogg, Austin; J. R. Hawkins, St. Louis; R. Matthews, Philadelphia; John Mowlesworth, Boerne; D. O'Connell, Leceuse, Texas; W. F. Rabon, City Point, Texas; E. T. Durre, Frederick R. Russell, Gallagher's Ranch; John G. Adams, Boonton, Texas, are at the St. Leonard.

TRYING TO INTERVIEW.

A Light Commissioner Tries to Interview Mr. W. B. Sterling, of the Alamo Music House, and Gets Left.

While the LIGHT commissioner was out hunting for news he happened to drop into the Alamo Music house and was enjoying an interview with Mr. W. B. Sterling, the business manager and traveling salesman of that well known music emporium, when a most charming young lady, Miss Carrie Quinry, of Navasota, dropped in and remarked, "Oh, what a pretty little music store. I have never seen anything so tastefully arranged before." She approached Mr. Sterling, and after ordering several pieces of sheet music, took a seat by one of their superb Chickering pianos, and they sang some very pretty duets. Miss Quinry has a very sweet voice and showed evidence of good teaching, while every one who is acquainted with Mr. Sterling knows the tone of his excellent voice.

When the LIGHT commissioner succeeded again in getting Mr. Sterling alone, with a view of continuing the interview, he was unable to talk of anything but the young lady and her accomplishments. He finally made a bad break and said, "I will tell you the fact, just set a pretty young lady down by one of the Chickering pianos and all she has to do is to touch the keys and you are sure to have good music." The LIGHT commissioner pulled his hat down over his eyes, and said to Mr. Sterling, "would you allow a Chickering piano or a lot of fine sheet music come between you and a pretty young lady? as for me I could never think of doing such a thing."

Then the LIGHT commissioner took his departure after promising to call and interview Mr. Sterling to-morrow. All pleasure has an end and so did the talk with one of the most polite music men in our city.

SAN ANTONIO HAS IT.

The Sunset Hospital to be Erected Near the Government Depot.

The question as to whether the proposed Sunset hospital should be located here or at Columbus has, it is stated, been decided in favor of the Alamo City. A tract of land, consisting of 35 acres near the Government headquarters, has been purchased from Mr. Charles Nash for the sum of $18,000, the vendor giving $1800 to the proposed hospital. The hospital has been designed by Mr. A. I. Lucas from the directions of Dr. Harrison and will form a very handsome and convenient building, costing about $60,000, exclusive of the land purchase. The site is a remarkably healthy one. Arrangements are being made to have the building erected and furnished with the least possible delay.

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.

Yesterday there passed away one of the oldest, if not the oldest, inhabitant of San Antonio. Her name is Mrs. Martina Morales, and she died at the ripe old age of 104 years. Though there are many who claim her to be much older, the family give the above age. She was born, raised and died in this city. Her birth took place on Laredo street, in the house which is now owned by John Gamble, and she left this life in a house a few doors down. Her end was a peaceful and happy one. Like the wick of an oilless lamp, her life flickered less and less, and at last quietly yielded to the angel of death. She breathed her last surrounded by her family.

HE GETS AWAY WITH THEM.

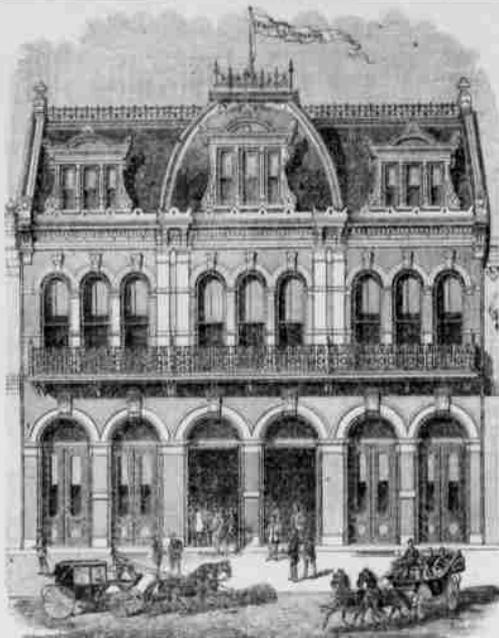

Alex Williams, a colored man, was refreshing his weary spirit with sundry drinks at Harrington's saloon, at the corner of Austin and Sixth streets, when a friend challenged him to a friendly wrestle. Alex succeeded in his companion's request by promptly throwing him. The sudden close acquaintance with the hard floor raised the challenger's fury passions, and Alex had to whip his angry friend. Others crowded in and took part in the action, but Williams got away with them all until one of them fetched a gun and began poking it in Williams' ribs. On this he left, and appeared in court this morning with a handkerchief cranium. The case was put off as the witnesses were not present.

TRAIN ROBBERY.

Larson is Fined for Money, Papers and Receipts Valued at $20000.
J. S. Larson, who arrived in San Antonio this morning, stated to a LIGHT reporter that he had been robbed on the train, between here and Cotulla, of $40 in money and $1200 in receipts for money paid at banks, besides valuable papers, contracts, letters and other things. His whole loss, he says, amounts to $2000, and he appears to be in a bad way about it. He has his suspicions of the guilty parties, and means to put the officers of the law on their track.

RICHARD IS HIMSELF AGAIN.

And he is Martin in his new store, next door to Netter's drug store, 22 Commerce street.

THE WHITE ELEPHANT!

LIGHT FLASHES.

What the Reporters Learn on Their Tour Through the City.

—J. M. Chavez resigned his position as a city officer yesterday.

—The pay car has been here and the railroad boys are happy.

—Divine service at the Temple Beth-El this evening at 8 o'clock.

—The New Orleans Liedertafel singers will probably attend the Volkfest.

—Leon Stueckhart, aged 40 years, died from natural causes on the 23d in the First ward.

—County Judge Mason was at Fredericksburg yesterday attending to the road and school matters.

—Judge Siemering has procured the portraits of the State officials to include in his descriptive work upon Texas.

—Mr. John R. Billingsley, of Austin, well known in this city, died on the 22d inst. He was in the 67th year of his age.

—A horse, saddle and bridle were stolen from Harry Inselman's saloon, on West Commerce street, yesterday evening.

—Sanitary Officer Oppermann, after inspecting the Fourth ward, declared it to be the cleanest and best kept in the town.

—There was a slight collision on San Pedro avenue yesterday between two cats. No damage was done to anybody or anything.

—The Lone Star baseball club, of New Orleans, contemplates a visit here and think that they can teach the San Antonians how to play ball.

—Mr. James Murphy's card appears in the LIGHT to-day. Mr. Murphy is an able and popular architect and worthy of the patronage of our citizens.

—A man hailing from New York, calling himself L. Huffman, is published by one of the secret societies as a fraud. His last tricks were done at Galveston.

—Jessie Howard was thrown out of a hack by somebody. She thinks it was the hack driver, Jesse Reelster, for being drunk. She was found in that condition on the public streets and fined $5.

—W. Boyd, a colored boy, beat Miss Johnson and the baby she was carrying. He swore it was not so. The girl said she could prove it; she marks on her face, made by his fingers, were seen. He said it was only some black he had on his hands which he rubbed in her face, but for putting that black there he paid $5.

A GOOD SUGGESTION

For the Convenience of Those Who Attend the Travis Park Concerts.

Editor San Antonio Light:
SAN ANTONIO, August 24, 1922.—I observe that you are gently admonishing the city authorities for so far neglecting the comfort of the Eighth cavalry band as to necessitate their "striking" for ice water, to be provided in the pavilion, at their Travis park concerts. It is a wonder that the music loving public have not also "struck" me this, and absented themselves from the concerts altogether, rather than continue being almost blinded and choked by the clouds of dust which are raised by every passing carriage. For more than a month past the dust around Travis park has made attendance at the concerts more disagreeable than pleasant—especially to those remaining seated in carriages. Surely the water carts could be ordered to sprinkle the square at least once a week—on band day.

Yours truly,
W. J. BALLANTYNE PATTERSON.

What is Your School Fund?
Colonel Brewster has written Judge Mason to know the extent of the linear county school fund outside the State appropriation. Judge Mason replies that the school funds realized from school lands during 1921-2 amounted to $1200, and this has been mostly drawn on to aid communities in building school houses, the county usually granting one-half towards such expenses. This information is requested for statistical purposes.
