THE DITCHES.

An Interesting Communication Defining the Purposes for Which the Ditches Were Established.

And Showing That Alderman Lockwood's Position on the Subject Will Not Hold Water.

Editor San Antonio Light.

I see a strong pull is being made all around for the abolition of our irrigation ditches or their declaration as sewers. Alderman Lockwood has come to the front, and argues that it would be to the sanitary benefit of the city to pronounce the ditches sewers. Now we will inform Alderman Lockwood and all others who are not within the power of the city or any other authorities to divert our irrigation ditches to any other purpose than that for which they were originally intended. It is proposed to prohibit people living along them from using the water, and make the ditches carry the filth and dirt of the city to the river south of the city. Does Mr. Lockwood know that this would greatly impair the health of the city, rather than improve it, by the accumulation of filth along the ditches to poison the air? Unless the ditches are walled in and covered, Mr. Lockwood's idea would certainly, if carried out, drive people away from the ditches and greatly impair the health of the city. But these ditches were dug by the early Spanish and Mexican settlers of this valley, and the land through which they ran was valued simply for its irrigation facilities. So many streets, or canals, of water were bought, and the land thrown in for nothing. Land was regarded as of no value without irrigation, which was sold by the time required to water the land under cultivation. The ditches were made the inalienable property of the people, and cannot be taken from them, nor can they be diverted to any other use than for irrigation. More than this, there is a space of so many yards along the main ditches, the San Pedro and the river which belongs to the public, but which has never been reclaimed to public use and advantage. The people should have their interests in this little matter examined into. Our irrigation ditches are of great benefit to the city. They make the trees and shrubbery that beautify our city grow, give us our vegetables all the year around, are a protection against fire, drain the city during heavy rains, and, in fact, are more useful and beneficial to the city than any system of public works or improvements that has been instituted in Alderman Lockwood's day and generation. Our main ditches passing through the city should be kept as pure and free from filth as possible, and the community should see that this is done. It is everything with some people to get all the water out of the way except what comes through the water works' mains. Crying down the wells and ditches is a part of this programme. Mr. Lockwood is probably a candidate for the mayoralty again, and is starting out early to set himself right with the water works monopoly, for antagonism to the company was the card he played before when he ran, to cover popularity.

THE MAN FROM KENOSHA.
Ed Baxter, a backdriver, charged a gratuitously looking man with refusing to pay the lawful back fare. He deposed that he picked the defendant up last night; he was then drunk, very drunk, and wanted to go to see a pretty Mexican girl. He took him to one and then to several public houses. While in the back the man said: "I am a man from Kenosha, and can fight," and wanted to leave. He demanded $5 for four hours' driving, which the defendant refused to pay. The Recorder: "The defendant was drunk at the time he engaged you, eh?" Baxter: "Yes." The Recorder: "Then I shall dismiss the case; you are not obliged to carry men in that condition."

A Foul Chimney.
J. Wolfe, proprietor of the Hoed hotel, was charged before the Recorder with having a foul chimney. On behalf of the defendant two witnesses were called who declared that the chimney was cleaned 10 days ago, and that at the time of the complaint the fire had been just lighted, and a few sparks only were issuing from the chimney. For the City Officer Kehr deposed that he saw about two feet of flame coming from the chimney. The Recorder gave Mr. Wolfe the benefit of the doubt and dismissed the case.

Insulting a Little Girl.
San Howard was charged in the Recorder's court with being disorderly. Mr. J. F. Cassiano deposed that on Sunday he and his family came to the city and had a Mexican supper on the plaza. His grandchild was sitting on a bench when the defendant intentionally rushed against her and nearly knocked her down. He turned to the man, who was imperious, struck him and gave him into custody. Two witnesses were called for the defense, one of whom wanted to say it was the little girl's fault, but the Recorder was satisfied as to the defendant's guilt and fined him $5.

Military Orders.
The General of the army having decided that the target year ending September 30, 1883, shall be considered as having commenced April 12, 1883 (the date of General Orders No. 45, current series, from the Adjutant General's office), for the purpose of determining the "figure of merit," regimental and company commanders, in making their Annual target reports, will be careful that the number reported "present but not firing" shall include only those men present at any time since April 12, that is, men who did not fire, but who were discharged prior to April 12, or who were absent during the entire time between April 12 and September 30 (although present prior to April 12), shall be counted as "absent during the target year," and not considered in determining the "figure of merit."

What is the Difference?
The attention of the Lunar has been called to the disgraceful actions of a couple of colored prostitutes at the springs last Sunday. As no arrests were made, the question arises what right have they any more than the white women on the grounds. If one class of these people are denied the privilege of visiting the grounds, the regulations should be enforced against all nationalities, races or color. The lesser can hardly be held responsible for the reputation or character of every person visiting the springs, but most of these disgraceful characters are known to the officers, and they should not shut their eyes against one class and be extra vigilant in arresting others. There are also men who make themselves conspicuous in associating with these characters on the grounds, and use obscene language to the disgust of all respectable people, and should be likewise arrested.

Railroads Cutting Rates to the East and Giving a Chrome With Each Ticket.

Holding the Pool Room at the Races—New York Democrat Wants Harmony—Split Among Greenbackers.

CHICAGO, September 24.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road had things all its own way during the day in selling tickets at the rate of $1 to Indianapolis, and at local rates from Indianapolis to points beyond, which, of course, made the cut to Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus and other points. Late to-night, however, the Panhandle and Kankakee lines decided to meet the cut and will begin selling at the same rate to-morrow morning. The Kankakee line has not heretofore taken part in the war, as it was not affected by the cut when confined to Chicago and Louisville, but when extended to Indianapolis, Cincinnati and other points the Kankakee line was forced into the fight, and now promises to meet any cut made by anybody. The Cincinnati and Indianapolis companies also are forced into the game and judging by its first move it promises to be quite a marked factor in the problem. It announces to-night that it will begin to-morrow selling tickets to Indianapolis, including the chrome, for 5 cents. It understood the cuts is for the chrome, and the fare is thrown in gratis. The officers of this line say they have been forced into the fight and propose to make it as hot as possible. Louisville, New Albany and Chicago people say they are prepared to meet any rate made. It is impossible to say where the matter will stop.

CHICAGO, September 24.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago have cut their rates. Thus far the cut has not been met by the Panhandle, Scalpers are selling tickets to Indianapolis and Louisville at $5 and 50 cents.

LOUISVILLE, September 24.—The Colored National convention met this evening in Liederkrantz hall and was called to order by William Holland, of Washington, D. C. About 350 present. Fred Douglass will be chosen permanent President.

MADISON, September 24.—A Courier special says a hail storm swept over the Ohio valley yesterday afternoon, from Carrollton to Lawrenceburg, covering the ground from two to four inches deep with hail and ruining crops. Nothing similar was ever before experienced in that region.

CHICAGO, September 24.—About half of the Villard Northern Pacific excursionists arrived here at noon on their return. They spent the afternoon on a visit to Pullman, and left this evening for the East. Villard declined to be interviewed with respect to the Wall street raid on the Northwestern Pacific.

INDIANAPOLIS, September 24.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad will commence running through trains from Indianapolis to Chicago to-night, making a rate of $1 between the cities named. This is the result of the fight on rates between them and the Chicago and Louisville. There are no indications of what action the railroads will take.

BOSTON, September 24.—As the result of the split in the greenback party in this State, E. Moody, Governor of the National committee of the Greenback Labor party, has issued a call for a greenback convention at Worcester on October 16, to nominate a State ticket. The call protests against the convention in Boston to-morrow, as without a precedent in the history of the party, and also against the ratification of General Butler's statement that the mission of the Greenback party has been accomplished.

NEW YORK, September 24.—The audience that filled the large hall of the Cooper Union assembled this evening in the interest of Democratic harmony in this city. Many prominent Democrats were upon the platform. David Dudley Field was Chairman. Dana and Pulitzer, editors of the Sun and World respectively, were among the Vice-Presidents. A committee was appointed to present resolutions at the State convention at Buffalo and urge on the Democratic masses the necessity of harmonious action.

CHICAGO, September 24.—A decision was rendered to-day in the case of Frederick Ker, who absconded to Pennsylvania with $300,000 worth of securities belonging to Preston, Keen & Co., bankers. Ker made application for release from arrest on the ground that he was kidnapped from Peru, and therefore not properly or legally under arrest. The decision of Judge McAllister remains Ker to custody. The gist of the decision is that if proper writs of arrest were issued by the court having jurisdiction over the crime in these courts they are operative, no matter how the prisoner was brought within the territory of courts with jurisdiction. This case will go to the Supreme court.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 24.—It is stated on good authority that Neilson, acting as attorney for Miss Maggie Hill, against Senator Sharou, declines to assume any responsibility in respect to the authenticity of the alleged marriage contract published some days ago. Miss Hill claims, under the contract, to be the legitimate wife of the Senator, and he has preferred against him charges of adultery. She entrusted Neilson with a copy of this contract, with instructions to publish it, which he did over her signature, but beyond the assertions of his client, does not pretend to vouch for the accuracy of the document.

NEW YORK, September 24.—David E. Aiken, inspector of the water meters, arrested for complicity in the frauds on the water registers bureau, and indicted for forgery in having altered the back of the record, was arraigned to-day. He pleaded not guilty and gave bail to answer. The Commissioner of Public Works officially states that $23,000 of water rent has apparently been collected and diverted from the revenue from the water service, which is now over $1,600,000. There are 790 water meters in use. While Aiken holds in a civil proceeding to-day, Charles Davis was arrested on a bench warrant. It appears, however, that Davis is a gambler establishment, at which it is alleged William B. Carroll, coupon clerk of the Comptroller's office, played and lost some $70,000 which belonged to the city. Carroll is dead and the city sued Davis to recover the amount. Davis' arrest to-day was on an indictment for maintaining a gambling house. Anthony Comstock and a number of deputies to-day raided the Brighton beach race track and pool rooms in West Brighton, and made some arrests. Comstock then left the Island and almost immediately the West Brighton pool rooms were re-opened.

CHICAGO, September 24.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago road had things all its own way during the day in selling tickets at the rate of $1 to Indianapolis, and at local rates from Indianapolis to points beyond, which, of course, made the cut to Cincinnati, Dayton, Columbus and other points. Late to-night, however, the Panhandle and Kankakee lines decided to meet the cut and will begin selling at the same rate to-morrow morning. The Kankakee line has not heretofore taken part in the war, as it was not affected by the cut when confined to Chicago and Louisville, but when extended to Indianapolis, Cincinnati and other points the Kankakee line was forced into the fight, and now promises to meet any cut made by anybody. The Cincinnati and Indianapolis companies also are forced into the game and judging by its first move it promises to be quite a marked factor in the problem. It announces to-night that it will begin to-morrow selling tickets to Indianapolis, including the chrome, for 5 cents. It understood the cuts is for the chrome, and the fare is thrown in gratis. The officers of this line say they have been forced into the fight and propose to make it as hot as possible. Louisville, New Albany and Chicago people say they are prepared to meet any rate made. It is impossible to say where the matter will stop.

CHICAGO, September 24.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago have cut their rates. Thus far the cut has not been met by the Panhandle, Scalpers are selling tickets to Indianapolis and Louisville at $5 and 50 cents.

LOUISVILLE, September 24.—The Colored National convention met this evening in Liederkrantz hall and was called to order by William Holland, of Washington, D. C. About 350 present. Fred Douglass will be chosen permanent President.

MADISON, September 24.—A Courier special says a hail storm swept over the Ohio valley yesterday afternoon, from Carrollton to Lawrenceburg, covering the ground from two to four inches deep with hail and ruining crops. Nothing similar was ever before experienced in that region.

CHICAGO, September 24.—About half of the Villard Northern Pacific excursionists arrived here at noon on their return. They spent the afternoon on a visit to Pullman, and left this evening for the East. Villard declined to be interviewed with respect to the Wall street raid on the Northwestern Pacific.

INDIANAPOLIS, September 24.—The Louisville, New Albany and Chicago railroad will commence running through trains from Indianapolis to Chicago to-night, making a rate of $1 between the cities named. This is the result of the fight on rates between them and the Chicago and Louisville. There are no indications of what action the railroads will take.

BOSTON, September 24.—As the result of the split in the greenback party in this State, E. Moody, Governor of the National committee of the Greenback Labor party, has issued a call for a greenback convention at Worcester on October 16, to nominate a State ticket. The call protests against the convention in Boston to-morrow, as without a precedent in the history of the party, and also against the ratification of General Butler's statement that the mission of the Greenback party has been accomplished.

NEW YORK, September 24.—The audience that filled the large hall of the Cooper Union assembled this evening in the interest of Democratic harmony in this city. Many prominent Democrats were upon the platform. David Dudley Field was Chairman. Dana and Pulitzer, editors of the Sun and World respectively, were among the Vice-Presidents. A committee was appointed to present resolutions at the State convention at Buffalo and urge on the Democratic masses the necessity of harmonious action.

CHICAGO, September 24.—A decision was rendered to-day in the case of Frederick Ker, who absconded to Pennsylvania with $300,000 worth of securities belonging to Preston, Keen & Co., bankers. Ker made application for release from arrest on the ground that he was kidnapped from Peru, and therefore not properly or legally under arrest. The decision of Judge McAllister remains Ker to custody. The gist of the decision is that if proper writs of arrest were issued by the court having jurisdiction over the crime in these courts they are operative, no matter how the prisoner was brought within the territory of courts with jurisdiction. This case will go to the Supreme court.

SAN FRANCISCO, September 24.—It is stated on good authority that Neilson, acting as attorney for Miss Maggie Hill, against Senator Sharou, declines to assume any responsibility in respect to the authenticity of the alleged marriage contract published some days ago. Miss Hill claims, under the contract, to be the legitimate wife of the Senator, and he has preferred against him charges of adultery. She entrusted Neilson with a copy of this contract, with instructions to publish it, which he did over her signature, but beyond the assertions of his client, does not pretend to vouch for the accuracy of the document.
