LIGHT FLASHES.

What the Reporters Learn on Their Tour Through the City.

—There will probably be a football match to-morrow.

—The United States court at Austin opens to-morrow.

—The favorite horse got "accoped" yesterday.

—The Probate court will open the first Monday in February.

—The hack driver called "The Kid" was spending a plug last night.

—To-morrow is St. Hickory Jackson's day—the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans.

—Sanitary Officer Opperman is inspecting the houses where the small-pox patient died, and will fumigate it.

—Last evening the Iron Mountain was be-lashed schedule time three hours, and the Missouri Pacific was two hours.

—How the scrup of the Mexican goes into hibernating state such a morning as this in the presence of an alder.

—Division No. 1, A. O. H., give a grand concert to-morrow evening at Casino hall. Thanks for a ticket thereto.

—In the District court this morning justice seemed frozen out. All the criminal cases called were continued.

—Socks with toes, or foot gloves, are now the rage in Boston.—[Ex. A fellow's girl can now "give him the mitten" in her stocking feet.

—Some of the betting men are trying to make a match between the double teams of Charlie Calvert and Sam Bennett, for $1000.

—Bishop Nevez has returned from New Orleans, where he had gone to assist at the obsequies of the late Archbishop Perche of that city.

—Behind time—the bells of the San Fernando and St. Mary's church. They should adopt the standard time to avoid mistakes and perplexity.

—Major Test, it is authenticated, has withdrawn from the Aldermanic boot race, thus leaving only the present Alderman, Gallagher, and Cardenas, to boot it.

—The Aldermanic hippodrome takes place one week from to-day. In some ways the contest will be quite spirited. None but progressive men should be supported.

—At last! The cock-pit yesterday afternoon, there were two hack fights and several slash fights. Wharton lost two combats this time, contrary to his usual skill and luck.

—Colonel John Withers has resigned as cashier of the San Antonio National bank, to take effect on the first of March. He will become President of a new bank to be shortly established here.

—Yesterday morning Miss Lillie Howard was buried from the residence of Fannie Kelly. An elegant casket was prepared for her and six lady pall bearers conveyed her to her last home.

—Mrs. Mary Glaze, wife of Henry, and mother of Edward Glaze, died this morning at 9 o'clock. The funeral will be held from the late residence No. 407 Dawson street, at 10 o'clock to-morrow.

—The City Council meets to-morrow afternoon. It will discuss important business, such as Major Humphreys' sewerage system plans and the date for holding the election on the subject of issuing bonds for said system.

—Mickey O'Malley O'Phat is no longer a subscriber to the Light. Ten cents a week is now saved by him as his mortuary subscription to the aid of one whom he told a LUCRATOR man was "gone on the force." Now, watch Mickey steal his perusal of this item.

—Seaman, the wonderful magician, whose programme of marvels is carried out to the smallest details and whose distribution of prizes is beyond cavil, performs to-night at Turner hall. The performance of Electra is alone worth the admission price.

—Is to-morrow Detective Jackson's anniversary of a newboy's collection, or that of old General Andrew, By the Eternal, Jackson, the hero of New Orleans, who always paid his bills and never absconded a newboy. Does it require a detective to investigate this?

—Leap year parties, where despondent bachelors are put up as prizes during the evening, with their age, pedigree and prospects announced by a lady auctioneer, are threatening to break out in San Antonio. Already three of them are talked of to take place next week.

—The Union services in observance of the week of prayer, will commence this evening at the First Presbyterian church of this city. The topic for prayer is Praise and Thanks-giving. The sermon will be by Rev. W. H. Preston; subject: "The Holy Spirit." To begin at 7:30 p. m. standard time.

Special Bargains. Can be had for the next week at L. Wolfson's in ladies' underwear and corsets. 12-15-1m

Taken Up. A small pony, branded on left hip B. D., had on saddle and bridle. HENRY WERNER, Hiver avenue. 12-15-1m

Special for the Ladies. For the next week I will sell, at greatly reduced rates, a large lot of ladies' underwear and corsets. The ladies are especially invited to call and see for themselves. These articles are first-class and will positively be sold. L. WOLFSON. 12-15-1m Baron Seeman. Will give away elegant and costly presents at Turner opera hall to-night.

Fug Dogs! Fug Dogs! These of the abandoned pug dogs living to be recalled by the owner, Leo's saloon, back of restaurant, January 25. First prize, "Young Comedy" second, "Darky"; third, "Judy." Three chances for $1. 12-15-1m

Dr. M. E. Huxley. At 403 East Houston street, has returned from a three months' visit to Georgia, and can be found at this office. 12-15-1m

Notice to the Public. I am prepared to do, in first-class manner, all kinds of carriage work, from mending and wood work. I also make a specialty of horse-shoeing. MICHAEL FURRY, 12-15-1m Baron Seeman. The great magician, at Turner opera hall to-night.

White Elephant Restaurant and Lunch. Both restaurant and lunch counter equal to any in the country. French cooking. Perfect attendance. Choice of soups, gâteaux, oysters, fish, salads and perfumes. BLANCHETT, Proprietor. 12-15-1m Baron Seeman. An elegant performance of a warm comfortable house at Turner opera hall to-night.
