New York Claimed to be 1,000
Plurality for the Democrats
—Other News.

CLEVELAND, November 7.—The Democrats fired 100 guns this afternoon over the election, and will parade to-night and to-morrow.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—The Democrats are painting the town red to-night with bonfires, sky rockets and a torchlight parade.

NEW YORK, November 7.—Brooklyn fired 100 guns and had a great torchlight procession, celebrating the election of Cleveland. Several other towns fired salutes.

CHICAGO, November 7.—A number of Republicans went in a body to the house of Postmaster Calver and called out General Logan. He bowed his thanks, but declined to make any remarks.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Herald gives the following as the complexion of the next House of Representatives: Democrats 188, Republicans 118, People's party 21; a Democratic majority of 45.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Post says: "The adherents of Governor Cleveland may rest confident that this State has given him a plurality and that he has a large majority in the electoral college."

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Supreme court to-day granted an order requiring the Chief of Elections to show cause why he should not permit a committee of lawyers appointed at the night's meeting to inspect the election returns.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Mail and Express says: Neither party yields New York State. The contest is so close that neither figures may be given. Returns for the State are not yet received. It is probable that the returns will be completed before night.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 7.—On the basis of the latest official returns reported Indiana has given a Democratic plurality of 2,500, and the Republican State Central committee concedes the result. The Democratic committee claims 7,500 majority.

NEW YORK, November 7.—Returns received from county clerks are what so suddenly changed to Cleveland the plurality for Blaine in this State. The returns by districts and returns by counties do not apparently tally.

NEW YORK, November 7.—By order of the Superintendent of Police, issued to-day, captains are required to hold their men in readiness to meet any outbreak that may occur. Large forces of police officers are in the stations nearest to the newspaper offices.

CHICAGO, November 7.—With sixteen counties to hear from, the Daily News reports the plurality for Oglesby for Governor at 418. The remaining six counties give to Blaine 7,511. The News, on these facts, estimates Oglesby's plurality at about 7,000.

TRIO, November 7.—A New York special from Hoacck Falls to the Telegram says the Butler voters there were all counted for Cleveland. The tickets were so many that the Butler managers here that the same was done elsewhere.

ATLANTA, Ga., November 7.—Patrick Walsh, member of the National Democratic committee from Georgia, telegraphs John Kelly, of New York: "I congratulate you on the fall, fair and honest vote of Tennessee, which made Grover Cleveland President of the United States."

NEW YORK, November 7.—Jay Gould this morning sent the following to Governor Cleveland: "I heartily congratulate you on your election. All concede that your administration as Governor has been wise and conservative, and in the large field as President I feel that you will do still better, and the vast business interests will be entirely safe in your hands."
JAY GOULD.

ATLANTA, November 7.—Latest advices from New York are to the effect that the Republican committee, State and National, after a careful examination of the whole ground, are satisfied that the State has gone for Blaine and Logan. They say a correct count will show a small Republican plurality, and that they have taken steps to establish the fact.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Mail and Express prints the following: "Augusta, November 7.—Chairman B. F. Jones, Republican National Committee: I am advised that there have been frauds committed in New York State. I believe that the honest vote of the State gives a Republican plurality, and I ask the committee to see that we have a fair and honest count."
J. G. BLAINE.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The National Democratic committee issues the following address: "The National Democratic committee has taken very active measures to insure fair and prompt returns in delayed and doubtful districts. Counsel are employed to watch the official canvases and arrangements are made to insure the transmission of correct news over the country. To meet the expense of this action, which are necessarily heavy, friends in various directions are starting subscriptions. Money will be thankfully received by the National committee, and any aid of this nature to assist in enforcing the popular will, should be effectively and promptly rendered."

ALBANY, November 7.—The Evening Journal commends the election of Cleveland. It says: "There seems to be no longer any doubt that Governor Cleveland has been elected President. Every county has sent in its full returns after careful verification, and the result affords Government Cleveland a plurality of about 200 in the State. The vote will not vary 200 on either side of these figures. New York gives Cleveland enough votes to elect him. The Journal has devoted all its energy towards securing another result, and it now reluctantly states that the election has been decided in favor of his desired candidate because it believes that a prompt recognition of the will of the majority is essential to the maintenance and preservation of American institutions. So long as the people of the United States have decided to transfer the Federal administration to the Democratic party, we are glad that the election has been made in favor of a Democrat from New York."

NEW YORK, November 7.—This morning a salute of 100 guns was fired in the City Hall park by order of the leader of the county Democracy in honor of Grover Cleveland's election to the Presidency.

The booming of the guns drew a large crowd from the bulletin boards at the newspaper offices to the park. During the firing a portion of a wall from a gun struck a woman, named Jacob, who was standing near the bulletin board. The Herald, Sun and Extra have withdrawn their bulletin boards. At the World's bulletin board this morning the crowd was so dense that the editor announced election of Cleveland, and this was increased when it was declared that Jay Gould had conceded the State to Cleveland, and had sent a telegraphic dispatch to the Governor, congratulating him upon his election. The Republican press, however, still maintain that Blaine has carried the State.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The question of how has carried New York State is now chiefly a question of the accurate footings of long columns of figures. The footing of the county clerks, with only a few missing, indicates that Cleveland has about 100,000 plurality. The footings of the election districts made in the Associated Press office indicate that Blaine has nearly equal plurality. Twelve districts in the State have not up to this morning reported at all. Some sixty others are reported, but their accuracy was questioned, and they will be verified to-day. The whole list of counties will be carefully re-visited by the Associated Press office, as well as the result of that office, as well as the result of the compilation of the County Clerks' figures, will be sent out by the Associated Press. This work will probably not be completed before night.

JUBILATION.

THE DEMOCRATS OF SAN ANTONIO
IN AN ECSTASY.

They Hold a Meeting To-night's Celebration-Firing of Guns,
Fire Works, Bonfires.

An enthusiastic meeting of the Democratic club was held this morning at Krisk's hall, for the purpose of taking the necessary measures to commemorate the election of Cleveland as President and Hendricks as Vice President of the United States in a suitable manner. Heating smiles and congratulatory hand shaking were in the natural order of things, and the feeling of exultation was not restrained in the slightest degree. Mr. Ferguson took his seat in the Presidential chair amid loud applause, which did not cease until he had called the meeting to order.

Mr. Ferguson after order had been obtained, that they had met on very important business. At the selection of the principal members of the club, he had called the meeting, and it seemed to him it was opportune that it was called in the light of the address which has been issued by the National Democratic committee, which he would proceed to read to them, and he particularly wished to call attention to the wording of that address. The Chairman then read the address which was as follows:

HOUSE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC COM. No. 1112 West Twenty-fourth St., New York, Nov. 7, 1884.

There can no longer be any question concerning the result of the Presidential election. Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks have a majority of 18 in the Electoral college. It is not worth while for our adversaries to claim the electoral vote of New York State. It is absolutely certain that the returns of the proper officers of election on the night of the 4th of November showed a decisive plurality in the State for the electors supporting Cleveland and Hendricks. If any different or altered returns are now being prepared or promulgated, they are corrupt falsifications of the records of the State of New York, and the men acting or abetting in the preparation of such returns are not only guilty of a crime, but they are also guilty of a crime against the nation and against the country and against the people.

It is not expected that you will submit to the machinations of such men. Let them understand that they are not to be tolerated. Tomorrow, throughout the United States, the actual election of Cleveland and Hendricks by firework national and patriotic bands will be celebrated throughout the country and express your opinions in a manner that cannot be misunderstood. The men of New York State who are guilty of such gross outrage attempted to be perpetrated upon their rights, and will speak for themselves.

Chairman of the National Democratic Committee, A. P. Gorman.

Chairman of the National Executive Committee.

The Chairman, continuing, said that though thousands of miles away from where this address emanated, they had with the Democrats in New York on the basis of this address, and that was after a fair count and free canvass. The Presidential election of the United States to Grover Cleveland and Thomas A. Hendricks. He did not conceive they had met for any other purpose. They wished to be careful of what they said. They had met in the interests of constitutional government, in the interests of the people, and in the interests of the nation. They would be determined upon a certain issue, with a firm and well settled determination, to maintain the principles of justice and honesty which had been found on the side of right and justice. They did not wish the meeting to be misinterpreted; they did not wish threats to be made, and they did not wish any party to be named. They were determined upon this matter, and the people of the United States were determined there should be no more.

As the Chairman concluded, cries of "McLeary were raised, and in response thereto, that gentleman ascended the platform amid the plaudits of the enthusiastic and jubilant audience.

Honorable McLeary said he thought there was a slight mistake in the address. Instead of saying that Cleveland had obtained a majority of 18, it meant that Cleveland had obtained 18 more electoral votes than was necessary to elect him, and that was a clear majority of 37, and he thought that Hob Inaoh, though a good Republican, was correct about one thing when he said that Shakespear wrote an inspired book and was a prophet because in his Richard III, he says, "Now is the winter of our discontent made glorious summer by the Sun of (New York)." He did not believe that Blaine meant any fight, but if he did want to fight let him trot out his substance and send him down. If there were going to be any fight about this thing, for which they had waited 25 years, and which they had been defeated in, let them trot out their part. He wanted his share. There were more than ten millions of Democrats who would see that Grover Cleveland was inaugurated. He had not been able to find but three men this morning who were Republicans, and those were Sam Johnson, Dr. Deacon and Ed Terrell. Second, they would for Jim Newcomb to be a good Democrat before the 4th of March. If J. Anderson said that he was elected, or just in time, he considered that instead of firing 100 guns, they should fire 215, that being the number of electoral votes. He was glad that from their kindness and partiality he should be able to cast a vote for a Democratic President of the United States. It was the most glorious event that had occurred in his history. There was only one shadow of regret that he felt, and that was that their friend Major Dwyer, had not lived to see this happy day.

Mr. McLeary then offered a resolution that the President of the club take such measures as were necessary to have the

MR. BLAINE.

What He Thinks of the Situation in New York.

Augusta, Maine, November 7.—Mr. Blaine's residence was crowded all day, many prominent citizens from distant parts of the State arriving. Interest in the result of New York is growing deeper every hour.

This afternoon Blaine talked freely about the situation. He said to a distinguished citizen of Maine: "I feel entirely satisfied that the honest vote of New York will result in the election of Cleveland, and that the result will show a plurality for the Republican electors of not less than 1500 votes. I don't speak idly, but from the most reliable sources."

Mr. Blaine added that the dispatch of Daniel Manning, published yesterday, and which was so respectful and offensive threat to control the election returns in the interest of the Democracy ever made in a Northern State, and which he thought would be to arouse the law-abiding citizens of New York, who would not allow the State to be reduced to the level of lawlessness prevailing in South Carolina and Mississippi.

The general feeling here is in favor of Mr. Blaine if he felt that the law-abiding citizen of the State should be disappointed over the possible prospect of losing the Presidency by such means.

The following answers: "I do not feel so in any personal sense, but profoundly so on account of the vast National interests depending on the result. I feel proud that we are engaged in a contest against the members of the Republican party in any State or district. I do not believe the American people would consent to have a fair and honest vote of Tennessee, which made Grover Cleveland President of the United States."

NEW YORK, November 7.—Jay Gould this morning sent the following to Governor Cleveland: "I heartily congratulate you on your election. All concede that your administration as Governor has been wise and conservative, and in the large field as President I feel that you will do still better, and the vast business interests will be entirely safe in your hands."
JAY GOULD.

ATLANTA, November 7.—Latest advices from New York are to the effect that the Republican committee, State and National, after a careful examination of the whole ground, are satisfied that the State has gone for Blaine and Logan. They say a correct count will show a small Republican plurality, and that they have taken steps to establish the fact.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The Mail and Express prints the following: "Augusta, November 7.—Chairman B. F. Jones, Republican National Committee: I am advised that there have been frauds committed in New York State. I believe that the honest vote of the State gives a Republican plurality, and I ask the committee to see that we have a fair and honest count."
J. G. BLAINE.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The National Democratic committee issues the following address: "The National Democratic committee has taken very active measures to insure fair and prompt returns in delayed and doubtful districts. Counsel are employed to watch the official canvases and arrangements are made to insure the transmission of correct news over the country. To meet the expense of this action, which are necessarily heavy, friends in various directions are starting subscriptions. Money will be thankfully received by the National committee, and any aid of this nature to assist in enforcing the popular will, should be effectively and promptly rendered."

ALBANY, November 7.—The Evening Journal commends the election of Cleveland. It says: "There seems to be no longer any doubt that Governor Cleveland has been elected President. Every county has sent in its full returns after careful verification, and the result affords Government Cleveland a plurality of about 200 in the State. The vote will not vary 200 on either side of these figures. New York gives Cleveland enough votes to elect him. The Journal has devoted all its energy towards securing another result, and it now reluctantly states that the election has been decided in favor of his desired candidate because it believes that a prompt recognition of the will of the majority is essential to the maintenance and preservation of American institutions. So long as the people of the United States have decided to transfer the Federal administration to the Democratic party, we are glad that the election has been made in favor of a Democrat from New York."

NEW YORK, November 7.—This morning a salute of 100 guns was fired in the City Hall park by order of the leader of the county Democracy in honor of Grover Cleveland's election to the Presidency.

The booming of the guns drew a large crowd from the bulletin boards at the newspaper offices to the park. During the firing a portion of a wall from a gun struck a woman, named Jacob, who was standing near the bulletin board. The Herald, Sun and Extra have withdrawn their bulletin boards. At the World's bulletin board this morning the crowd was so dense that the editor announced election of Cleveland, and this was increased when it was declared that Jay Gould had conceded the State to Cleveland, and had sent a telegraphic dispatch to the Governor, congratulating him upon his election. The Republican press, however, still maintain that Blaine has carried the State.

NEW YORK, November 7.—The question of how has carried New York State is now chiefly a question of the accurate footings of long columns of figures. The footing of the county clerks, with only a few missing, indicates that Cleveland has about 100,000 plurality. The footings of the election districts made in the Associated Press office indicate that Blaine has nearly equal plurality. Twelve districts in the State have not up to this morning reported at all. Some sixty others are reported, but their accuracy was questioned, and they will be verified to-day. The whole list of counties will be carefully re-visited by the Associated Press office, as well as the result of that office, as well as the result of the compilation of the County Clerks' figures, will be sent out by the Associated Press. This work will probably not be completed before night.
