The Candidate of the Committee of One Hundred Crowning Before the Light Came Out—for Callaghan for Mayor.

The Candidate of the Committee of one Hundred After the Light Came Out—for Bryan Callaghan for Mayor.

Bryan Callaghan's Total Vote 2222—His Majority Over all, Merritt, Copeland and Smith, 5.

Bryan's Acrostic.
Better for it to see,
Blighly our leaders be
Young and active, men of power,
Alive to the needs of the present hour,
Not a "mossback" do we need.

Clear the "old hacks" from the field;
All united to vote for Bryan;
Leave the "mossbacks" at a dying;
Let our progress onward be,
Antonio reaching to the sea,
Give us freedom for each race,
How lowly be their place,
Alamo City we can rear,
No ring or clique we'll harbor here.

Serenaded.
The Loner office was serenaded last night by the Fashion Theatre brass band, in honor of the election of Bryan Callaghan.

Our Name Not "Dennis."
The Loner said on Wednesday last that Bryan Callaghan would be elected Mayor by a handsome vote, and a majority of five over all three competitors makes the assertion powerful good.

Seventeen Votes.
The Loner's most esteemed friend and fellow-citizen, Captain C. P. Smith, received the magnificent vote recorded above in his candidacy for Mayor. He can have the satisfaction that in the grand free to all he did not get another left. Promises were many, but the votes, somehow, were few.

In the Nine Hole.
The Mossback Express made merry over the Loner's hopping "over the garden wall into the Democratic pen." Don't it wish it had stayed in the pen, and don't it wish it may get back. The Express is very much left in the city election. It will be careful in the future not to jump at the bidding of its mossback clique.

Ernest Hische.
This gentleman, as the candidate for City Collector, made a most gallant race for the short time in which to make his canvass, and was only defeated by seven votes. Had not the polls of the Third ward been closed 10 minutes sooner than they ought to have been, he would be the City Collector now. But he and his friends can well be proud of his race and proud of the vote he received.

'Over the Garden Wall.'
It is now in order for the Express to give the true definition of a "mossback" and of a "workingman." It usually waits to see the drift of public opinion, before it gives its own, but this time it blindly followed the hundred combination and got over the garden wall, clear out of the Democratic party line nowhere. The Express is very much paralyzed, and the motrains are few.

Bad Luck.
The machinery burned in the fire at the Sunset depot yesterday had just been sold by the agent, Mr. H. Rhodes, after having been stored for some time in the warehouse. Mr. Rhodes told Colonel C. C. Gibbs yesterday at Houston that he had just sold the machinery and would deliver it in a few days, but Colonel Gibbs informed him that he would have to dig it out of the ashes—that the building had burned.

S. A. Relief Association.
Those persons in the city who desire work done, by job, day or month, will be doing the Relief Association a favor and the poor a benefit, if they will report the same on the intelligence book at the corner of the association, No. 2 West Houston street. We have on our books a number of men and women who want work, and this is the best way to help the poor.
J. W. Neil,
President Board of Directors.

Another Burning.
A terrible accident occurred last Friday out on the Helotes, about 17 miles northwest of San Antonio, similar to one which it was the Loner's painful duty to record not long ago. Albertina Cramer, a young girl, about 11 months of age, while passing near a fire, her clothing caught fire and she was burned so badly before being rescued that she died from her injuries at 1 o'clock yesterday morning.

The County Poor House.
A Loner reporter visited the county poor house last Sunday and found everything in shipshape order under the new superintendent. The large garden patch is already nicely plowed and harrowed and will be planted with crops in a few days. There are of the inmates 14 inmates at present, and 27 paupers, a great many of whom, however, are ill. Albert Hoppert, the former apothecary, is retained as such for the present year.

Trunk Found.
Some little children, while playing in the mesquite chaparral near Frio street, beyond the International depot, found a brand new shoe-covered trunk with a few neckties, a card or two and an envelope. The lock on the trunk bore evidence of having been forced open. The address on the envelope was to Bonifacio Molinar and contained a card written in Spanish and signed Margarita Lolo. It is thought the trunk was stolen and thrown in the bushes to escape detection. It is now deposited with Mrs. B. Fassenich, on Frio street.

County Commissioners.
The County Commissioners held court this morning, and the following business was done:
The Comptroller was authorized to pay for advertisements in New York relative to the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio subway bond.
The court decided to meet the committee from the City Council for the purpose of discussing of building the joint hospital for city and county paupers.
The purchase of $7000 San Antonio and Mexican Gulf compromise bonds was approved.
Contract for repairing poor house was awarded to Louis Weyel for the sum of $100.

Recorder's Court.
Alderman Schreiner presiding as Recorder, with Sid. Stanforth acting City Attorney.
Dan Shuts was charged $7 or 15 days on a charge of vagrancy.
Tom McCarthy, a drunk and down, was charged $5.
John Hightower had a quarrel last Sunday morning with his wife, Maggie, and struck her. In her wifely anger she made affidavit against him, and he was committed to the back counter, and when he returned the money was gone, and these three men were in the saloon. Bridges was found with a pair of brass knuckles, and was fined $25 yesterday by the Recorder, and Organ was fined as a vagrant. This morning Streets was also fined as a vagrant.

The German.
The Officers' and Citizens' German club gave a very pleasant german "last night at the Casino. Mr. J. S. Lockwood led. The following couples were present: Colonel Lee and Mrs. J. S. Lockwood, Lieutenant Rumbough and Miss Lily Howard, Captain Smith and Miss Lillie Lee, William Weiss and wife, Mr. Maddox and wife, Major Livermore and Miss Green, Major Sumner and Miss Josie Stanley, Erastus Reed and Mrs. Maddox, C. N. Granger and Miss Beale Weil, Lieutenant Ruff and Miss Sue Murphy, J. H. Gordon and Miss Lottie James, Lieutenant Hickey and Mrs. Livermore, Dr. Maddox and Miss Lillie Stanley, J. J. Minter and Miss Russell, Lieutenant Williams and Mrs. Sumner, C. P. Marlack and wife, H. W. Lay and Miss Davis, H. G. Mitchell and Miss Katie Mitchell.

Railway Changes.
Conductors Tom McMullen, Ed Dwyer, Frank Tony and Wis have been demitted from the passenger service of the International railway. Messrs. McMullen and Wis have been assigned to conductorships of freight trains.
The new conductors assigned to these gentlemen's places are Salzes, Clark, Flats, Pittress and Nevilly.
Miss Green, Major Sumner and Mrs. Sumner, C. P. Marlack and wife, H. W. Lay and Miss Davis, H. G. Mitchell and Miss Katie Mitchell.

Shot Himself.
The Special Police Officer and His Gun.
About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon Jesse Bennett, the special officer at the Fashion theatre, shot himself by his pistol falling out of its holster, the hammer striking the floor and exploded a cartridge. The ball inflicted a painful wound in his right leg, just above the knee, traveling upward and coming out at the thigh. Mr. Bennett is progressing satisfactorily.

Suits Filed.
Adams and Wickes vs. John and Thomas Neumann.
Henrietta Kattner, executrix, vs. Morgan & Co. et al, suit on bond.
D. A. Oppenheimer vs. E. Y. and A. H. Steppell, suit on note.
D. M. Krause and J. B. Whitney et al, dissolution of partnership.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION.
BRYAN CALLAGHAN DISTANCES ALL OPPOSITION.
A Close Race for Collector, Which is Likely to Result in a Contest.

The city election excitement is now over, and the pulse of San Antonio can once more beat at its normal rate. The result of the election is gratifying to the people at large and augurs well for the future prosperity of San Antonio. Below is given an analysis of the votes cast in the different wards, for the candidate of the centurions, U. H. Merritt, the candidate of the progressive element, Bryan Callaghan, and the candidate of the horny handers, J. H. Copeland:
