No rational man can now deny the fact that the WHEELER & WILSON SEWING MACHINE IS THE SUPERIOR OF ALL SEWING MACHINES: PAUL MORPHY OF CREATION.

The following is the published report of the PENNSYLVANIA STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, on awarding the Premiums at the conclusion of their Fair, at Pitsburg, on the 1st of October last: "The Committee have given a full opportunity to the exhibitors of several Sewing Machines to show and explain their several articles, and after a close investigation, have concluded, with singular unanimity, for heavy work, is equal to any, and also an excellent Machine for general use, Grover & Baker's is more simple in its construction, and equal in its ability to perform for general purposes, but without disparaging the merits of either of the above the Committee feel constrained to award a Diploma to the Wheeler & Wilson Machines as being the best of all fully prepared. (Signed) R. H. MOYALD, D. MOSES F. RATON, WM. MURDOCK, JOHN A. SMALL, Committee."

The sales of Wheeler & Wilson's Sewing Machines in New Orleans, where the difference between the "Old time Shuttle" and Chain Stitch Machines and the new improved Wheeler & Wilson Machine is understood is more than Four times greater than the value of any "Shuttle" Machine, and has been for the last four months, more than FIFTY to ONE OVER Grover and Baker's complicated Chain Stitch Machine. A large supply of the above Machines are expected by every steamship from New York, and for sale at the only Depot of WHEELER & WILSON'S SEWING MACHINES, No. 120 Canal St. S. H. PECK, Agent. Dec. 20th, 1858. 1f.

Notice.

THE copartnership heretofore existing under the firm of H. KENDALL CARTER & CO. in the business of Sewing Machines, is now dissolved, and the said business will be continued by H. Kendall Carter, and the cotton gin business by Daniel Pratt. H. KENDALL CARTER, DANIEL PRATT. New Orleans, October 1, 1859.

The Cotton Factorage and Commission Business will be continued as heretofore by H. KENDALL CARTER.

I SHALL continue to furnish GIN STANDS as heretofore at the old stand, 15 St. Charles street. My office is on the second floor, No. 6, Gin Stands constantly kept on hand to supply customers. I do not deem it necessary to say anything of the merits of my Gin Stands, as I sell 1000 or more annually, which are distributed through nearly the whole cotton growing country. Not being able to supply the demand last season, I am extending my factory so as to be enabled to make 1500 stands next season, and shall therefore, be enabled to supply the demand promptly. DANIEL PRATT. November 3, 1859.—4t.

Parish Maps.

MAPS of Carroll, Madison, Ouachita, Morehouse, Caldwell, Concordia, Winn, Catahoula, Franklin, Tensas, parts of Rapides, Avoyelles, St. Landry and St. Martin.

The subscribers having prepared Maps of the above Parishes, for the purpose of representing lands that are offered for sale in the above Parishes, have been induced to have them published, so as to place the information which they contain within the reach of all who may feel an interest in the rich and thriving part of the State which they represent. Each Map will represent the public surveys, and the different tracts of land offered for sale, with the names of the owners, and their address, or the address of their agents. To facilitate the publication of the Maps, and to add to their usefulness, a space will be left on the margin for professional and business cards, for which a moderate charge will be made, according to position and size of the card. The Maps will be furnished to subscribers at $2 for plain copies, and for copies mounted on rollers $4 will be charged. Lands for sale in any of the above Parishes will be designated on the Maps, with reference to owner or agent at one to two cents per acre, according to quantity advertised.
