CASTOR SPRINGS,
(29 miles west of Columbia).
Catahoula Parish, La.
MRS. ANDERSON'S SON respectfully announces to their numerous friends and all other seekers of health, pleasure and recreation, that they have newly fitted up their establishment at the CASTOR SPRINGS and are prepared to offer better accommodations than ever to those who desire to pay them a visit. The water possesses the very finest medicinal properties, as many heretofore afflicted with dyspepsia, rheumatism, jaundice, and other functional and organic diseases can testify.
The Springs are situated in a pleasant, healthy, pine-valley region, with an abundance of game, and every facility will be afforded to those who delight to chase and kill the silver footed deer.
The roads are good from almost any point, North, South East, or West.
There are Bath Houses provided for those who desire to test the efficacy of the water by bathing, and those who desire amusements will be furnished with Bill Rooms, Ball Alloys, &c.
The proprietors are distinguished for their unexcelled attention to the happiness and comfort of their guests, and their charges are more moderate than most places of similar resort.

Notice TO ADMIRERS OF FINE STOCK.
THE undersigned here, at a great cost, he has procured from Kentucky and introduced into this parish, a fine Stallion called "Rainbow, Jr.," now only three years old, and that he intends standing him during the ensuing Spring and Fall seasons (1860) at the following prices, viz:
For a single leap, $100 00
By the season, . . . . . 25 00
By the insurance, . . . . . 40 00
Persons residing at a distance can bring and leave their mares, as ample pasturage will be provided and no charge will be made except for corn and fodder fed to them (if desired), with the understanding that the subscriber will not be responsible for escapes or accidents.
"Rainbow, Jr." will stand only at home, and will, for no consideration, make other stands.
Below will be found the pedigree of "Rainbow, Jr.," but any one can come and see him for themselves.
"Rainbow, Jr." is a steel gray, 16 hands high, weighing upwards of twelve (12) hundred pounds, aged three years May 12th, 1859. His sire was the celebrated trotting horse "Rainbow," who was by an imported Canadian horse out of a blooded mare raised near Lexington, Ky.
The dam of "Rainbow, Jr." was a Messenger. He was sired the property of David Cable, of Clark county, Indiana.
"Rainbow, Jr." has been successful in winning in all rings where he has been exhibited. He was exhibited at the county fair as a two year old and received first premium.
He was also exhibited again this last Spring at a three year old and took first premium; was exhibited again the same Spring in a sweep stake ring against nine competitors, and received first premium.
He is looked upon as one of the finest horses of his age ever raised in the county, and since his sale and he was ascertained that he was going to leave the State, there has been a great desire to purchase him and keep him in the county where he was raised, as his stock is highly prized.

Chappel Hill School.
THE winter term commences Nov. 27th. The Directors and patrons of this School are determined, by steady and united effort to establish permanently a good Home School. A new building will be completed by the 15th of January, and other conveniences indispensable to the school room supplied. Its former success, healthful location, and the influence of a moral and christian community are considered sufficient to secure the prompt attendance of the limited number of pupils to be admitted.
