

Herschel V. Johnson on the Election of Lincoln.

On Wednesday last the 24th inst. Herschel V. Johnson, the Douglas candidate for Vice President, made a speech in the city of New York, in which he thus spoke of the election of Lincoln and its consequences. We commend his remarks particularly to those who applaud Douglas' Norfolk speech and profess to believe that Yancy is actually guilty of treason and worthy of death for similar declarations. Mr. Johnson said:

The inevitable consequence of the inauguration of the Republican party, and its inauguration of the Government, would be the dissolution of the Union. The logical consequence of those Republican doctrines was the equality, civil, religious and political, of the African negro and the American white man. The doctrine was not only a logical consequence, but it was a logical consequence of the Republican platform. In his country white men believed that they were better than the negro. Those who thought differently were called to their feet. The Republican doctrine would make the black man eligible to the highest office in the nation, and any man who would deny that this was the logical consequence of Republican doctrine was either a fool or a hypocrite. [Applause.] If the Republicans would accept of it, it would be considered a proper that their daughters should be led to the altar by Sambo, [Applause, and a vote—'That's so!'] The negro vote of Ohio was more than the white vote of Ohio. [Applause.] And if the negro had been kept in a subordinate place as they would be, doubtless Ohio would have cast her vote for the Union and the Constitution. [Applause.] The Republican party announce that all the States must become either free or slave, and now they wish to settle the question, and to meet this question they propose to divide the States into two classes, those who are in favor of the Union and those who are in favor of the Republic. [Applause.]

The Movement in Texas.

The following dispatch, dated Galveston, November 12th, was received here last evening:

Considerable excitement here about the election of Lincoln. Disunion poles are being raised, and Lone Star flags are flying. Declarations of independence are being signed and military companies raised.

GOV. PETTUS PROCLAMATION!!

LEGISLATURE TO CONVENE ON THE 26th INST.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 13.

Gov. Pettus has issued his proclamation compelling the Legislature on the twenty-sixth inst. to take into consideration the propriety and necessity of providing surety and better safeguards for the lives, liberties and property of Mississippians than is to be found in the Republican platform as given in the late election and past action of Northern State governments.

THE LADIES AND THE BLUE COCKADE.

There was a large number of ladies present to hear Senator Robert Toombs at Montgomery on Friday night, the 26th inst. They wore the "blue cockade," we understand, and warmly indorsed the noble Southern sentiments uttered by the distinguished orator. The women are always right. They admire spirit and daring in a man, and have little use for those who would submit to everything before resisting. The women of the revolution inspired the patriots of that day with their bright smiles, and stripped the rings from their fingers and jewelry from their necks to mould into dollars to whip the red coats, and sustain the "rebels" against British aggression. They will cheer those who are engaged in a war for their homes, and bid them "God speed!"

PREPARATIONS FOR THE OPENING OF CONGRESS.

The hotels and boarding houses in Washington are preparing for an unusual influx of strangers at the coming season. Reports are going on that the winter will be a mild one, and that the season will be a successful one. It is expected that the winter will be a mild one, and that the season will be a successful one.

Immense Meeting in Charleston.

PEOPLE'S CONVENTION BILL RATIFIED

Display of the Palmetto Flag

CHARLESTON, Nov. 13.

The meeting last night to ratify the Legislature call for a convention of the people of South Carolina, was the largest and most enthusiastic ever held in this city. The galleries of the Assembly room were densely filled with ladies.

Eloquent speeches were made by Judge Magrath, the presiding officer, and other distinguished gentlemen. When the speaker declared the Union dissolved, the enthusiasm was perfectly wild.

APPROPRIATION TO ARM THE STATE.

The banks of Charleston have all agreed to loan four hundred thousand dollars to the State, for the purpose of arming volunteers, in accordance with the recent bill.

RESIGNATION OF SENATOR HAMMOND.

The report is now confirmed that Senator Hammond has resigned his seat in the Senate of the United States.

GEORGIA MILITARY CONVENTION.

The Georgia Military State Convention met to-day. The attendance was very large. Resolutions were passed favoring secession. Gov. Brown made a strong resistance speech, declaring secession a duty in which other Southern States ought to sustain him.

THE WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT OF THE NEW YORK TIMES.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says that several leading Virginians, at the Federal Capital, declare that Virginia intends to mediate between the two sections of the Union, when South Carolina has accomplished her secession.

THE PROPOSED BASIS IS THAT NO PRESIDENT SHALL BE ELECTED UNLESS HE RECEIVES A MAJORITY OF BOTH SECTIONS OF THE UNION, AND NO LAW WILL BE PASSED EXCEPT BY A MAJORITY OF THE REPRESENTATIVES OF BOTH SECTIONS.

The World's correspondent says that several Congressmen from Virginia represent their State as being in favor of submitting to Lincoln's election.

LATER FROM WASHINGTON.

A rumor gains credit here that Attorney General Black and the Secretary of War, Mr. Floyd, have informed President Buchanan that they would resign if he enforces Federal laws in the case of non-resistance by any State.

JURORS AND THEIR EXCUSES.

There seems to be a decided aversion on the part of most persons summoned to attend courts as jurors to serve, and if all who are called were excused there would be but few trials, especially in the Quarter Sessions. It is sometimes amusing to hear the excuses urged as a reason for not serving. "Business that must be attended to" is always in order, and, as Judge Thompson remarked yesterday, if all these people were relieved they would be no jurors. Periodical attacks of sickness, inability to sit long, foul atmosphere of the courts, &c., are also advanced by the reluctant juror. But deafness is the favorite excuse. Sometimes the applicant for favor on this ground makes curious mistakes.

HOWELL COBB, President.

THE FATHER OF ALL FROGS.—In the Dallas (Texas) Herald we find the following extraordinary story: "A gentleman of undoubted veracity informs us that, last week, a bull-frog was killed near here, measuring eighteen inches across the shoulders, and over two feet and a half in length. His voice was terrifically enormous eyes stuck out three inches—and he could leap beyond the conception of the most extravagant. [Perhaps, over the moon!—Gracious, what an arabast! He was shot by a boy, and the jewel-headed monster was captured with much difficulty, in consequence of his long-coiled vitality, causing him to leap out of reach whenever touched."

Attempted Insurrection in Crawford.

FOUR VALLEY, Nov. 7, 1860.

I learn from a friend just from Knoxville, Crawford county, that the negroes at Hickory Grove and vicinity in Crawford county, attempted an insurrection on yesterday, (Tuesday, 6th inst.) He states that Mr. Robt. Bally rode into Knoxville yesterday at 1 o'clock, and announced that the negroes at Hickory Grove had raised, but were suppressed without doing any damage to life or property. Twenty negroes belonging to Rev. W. C. Cleveland, and negroes belonging to old Mr. Davis, Simmons, Harp and Regess, were the only negroes captured. They were incited (so they confess) by one Cullen Davis, a son of the gentleman above named, and a man by the name of Grier, a tin peddler, living at Hickory Grove, a Yankee by birth.

Old Mr. Davis's negroes, on Monday, 5th inst., told him that they intended to kill him and all the white folk.

General Summary.

The "Bashful Girl" is the name given to a nude statue by a New York sculptor.

The Face that Ever Wears a Smile.

I love the man whose open brow proclaims a noble mind; I love the sympathetic soul that feels for human wrongs and woes. And pity e'en the angel's fall; And O, I love the angel face that ever wears a smile!

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

It is our bounden duty either in times of prosperity or adversity, to bow down in humble submission to the chastening manifestations and deliver the inscrutable wisdom and justice of His decrees—it now becomes us, after a season of general good health and comparative prosperity to recognize the same All-wise power as the Supreme Source of all blessings and enjoyments.
