One Jack Perkins, of Hillsboro, Texas, has been arrested by order of Sheriff S. E. W. Hudson of this county, and held in custody until the officers of this county get him and bring him back here, where he is charged with murder, committed about fifteen years ago. Shortly after he committed the crime he was jailed here but managed to effect his escape and has kept clear until Oct. 15, when he was again placed in custody. He was brought to San Saba last Sunday, and placed in jail to await proper identification. Up to the time we go to press he was not identified.

It requires Doran's big stage and largest hack to bring our, McHenry & Ballard's shipping, to fill Charlie's orders for extra size suits, and suits of extra quality, extra large hats and latest style hats, fine boots and shoes, over shirts and underwear, over coats and childrens clothing etc.

All persons having carpets to be weaved, or worn, or quilts to be quilted, will do me a favor by leaving the work or word with Mrs. Jas. Dofflemire, or by seeing me personally. All work done promptly and satisfactory.

Respectfully, Mrs. MARY HARWICK.

Consumption Cured.
An old physician, retiring from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for every debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. A. Noyes, 220 Towers' Block, Rochester, N.Y.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure.
A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength.—Largest U. S. Government Food Report.

Cherokee Locals
Texas is coming to the front in all things that make countries great. Her farmers are proving by products of field and garden that the soil is as fertile as any in America.

The state geologist and the miner is proving that the hills and valleys are teeming with valuable minerals. Our County Fairs are exhibiting the finest of stock of all kinds, showing that Texans are fully alive to the fact that the day of the scrub has passed, and that our climate and grasses will develop as fine stock as any state in the Union.

Our schools all over the state are crowded with pupils, who have able teachers to instruct them. Our material interests may have suffered in this county by lack of railway facilities, but it must be admitted that we are not much behind other counties in having good schools. Each neighborhood has its school that the patrons are proud of. Cherokee village is justly proud of its school, managed by Prof. F. M. Belms, who has quite a number of pupils from adjoining counties; has two from Corpus Christi. Yes, Cherokee is proud of its school.

We should not have written anything about Texas, but confined ourself to our vicinity and told about our cotton, grain wool, vegetable, minerals, fine grass and stock on Cherokee, but go ahead with that fair project, Cherokee will have the proofs on hand to show what she can and is doing. We have some thorough bred cattle, horses, hogs, sheep, goats, fat babies and pretty girls. Offer a scholarship in the Daniel Baker College to the prettiest and smartest girl in the county. Would it not be a treat worth coming far to see, to have the pretty girls march in review.

Our farmers are still busy with cotton and the gins are kept humming.
Barkleys goods are going like hot cakes—No sickness—No law-breakers—Too dry to sow wheat—Stock prospects for the winter rather dismal.

The Montgomery Ranch has been sold to J. J. Kuykendall and Dick Montgomery. Joe Montgomery has sold out to Peeler.

The owners of one of the finest business blocks in Chicago have decided to erect a $1,000,000 sixteen-story building to be called "The Columbus," in honor of America's discovery.

Notice is hereby given that a meeting of the stockholders of the Austin and Northwestern Railroad Company, called by the Directors of the corporation for such purposes, will be held at the office of incorporation, in the City of Austin, Texas, on the 25th day of December, A. D. 1891, at ten o'clock A. M., for the purpose of authorizing the making, execution and delivery of a mortgage of the corporate properties and franchises of this company, or such portions thereof as may be determined upon, to secure the payment of bonds of this Company to an amount not exceeding twenty thousand dollars per mile of continuous or connected constructed railroad, payable July 1, 1911, and bearing interest at the rate of five per centum per annum, payable semi-annually.

By order of the Board of Directors, Charles Dillingham, E. W. Cave, James Tarrence, J. J. Atkinson and Sec. A. N. Leitmaker, Directors.

Texas is the largest state in the Union, it has fine lands, large and prosperous cities, is rapidly increasing in wealth and population. With proper management of governmental affairs what is to prevent Texas from becoming the grandest state in all respects, in the Union? What is needed first is an increase in the pay allowed our representatives. Competent men can not afford to work for the small amount now allowed. If the pay is so increased that worthy competent men will accept the position we may then expect such laws as will meet the demands of the State of Texas. Until the pay is increased we must depend largely upon luck.

A long felt want supplied at last—a pleasant castor oil. It is known as Cheatham's Tasteless Castor Oil. Children take it with delight, any time of the day or night. Sweet as honey and just as effective as the plain sickening castor oil that we have been used to. Price 25 cents. Sold by T. M. Gray.

ALLIANCE COLUMN.
Ed. News.—Sir I like the News not because it published to the world that Tom Henry's old rooster was dead, but first because it invites correspondents which shows that it don't want to rule or ruin. I like it because it has been so kind as to donate a column to Alliance; last but not least because it is a Democratic paper. If the true Democratic papers and the reform press could work together harmoniously in agitating the people, the vast amount of trouble that exist to-day would soon be some thing of the past, for we would be of the true Democracy stripe. A party of the people, by the people and for the people. We want to help each other, not by the sword but at the ballot box. What is the matter? Why is it we cannot stand together? Old bloody shirt is the cause. He is all over the country; he is in every state in the Union, he is in our Legislature, he is in our congress, in the senate, in our churches, in our schools, in fact every where but in farmers Alliance. The old scamp has been killed in the Alliance and we have shaken hands over his bloody body. We have been deceived by this gay deceiver long enough. We are no longer represented, Shilcock bribes our representatives as soon as they take their seats.

By all means let us have an honest Democratic press, backed by true Democracy. The principles of the Alliance do not antagonize any interest or honest industry, but we want must have an equal showing in the great battle that brings to every citizen due honor and just reward for his labor. The principles with our forefathers, the bravest American sons that ever the blood run through the veins of, fought, bled and died at the end of the bayonet on the battle field, have been tramped under foot by men who have betrayed the trust of a liberty loving people, to that extent, that desolation, poverty and ruin has swept over our beautiful land, driving our prosperous merchant to the wall, driving our farmers to a paupers grave, driving our mechanics to the grog shop to drown their troubles with poisoning rum, and driving our once proud, free and independent republic government to ruin as fast as time will admit. Such will continue until the people are taught to come together and recapture that valuable gift handed down to us by our forefathers, and also capture those that have betrayed our trust and sold us out in the controlling of our judgement and cast them in to the bottomless pit; also those traitors that are in the Alliance. We would like to throw them in for good measure and to hold the others in there.

Is San Saba improving? We unhesitatingly answer, yes. In a business capacity it is rapidly improving, viewed from a social, moral, or religious standpoint, it is excelled by none. Its location is beautiful. Its citizens are social, intelligent and sober. Nature has done her part in bestowing her gifts, and the inhabitants have not been overly negligent on their part in providing the town with those comforts and luxuries which make life a pleasure. We have good streets, fine water works and efficient officers, and no one is encumbered with special tax to support either. We have a good school for 9 or 10 months each year. We have a Roller mill and two gins. Our roads are fair enough, and two iron bridges will soon be completed, giving easy access to the town all seasons of the year. We have a good brass band which furnishes music when ever called on. We have more fine stock than the average county, fine farming lands and good farmers to manage them. We need only one united effort to place our county in the foremost ranks. The Fair has been proposed as an enterprise upon which all might unite and co-operate for general good. While we are decidedly in favor of the fair, yet if any one can propose an enterprise of more general good, and more profit to the citizens of San Saba county. We will lay aside the Fair and take up the other.
