

Business Lots $200.

Residence Lots $100.

Hover's Villa Tracts

ADJOINS CITY OF KENEWICK.

The Choicest Residence and Gardening section of the Valley.
Price. Cleared, Plowed, Planted and Including perpetual water right

$100 per acre.

INSTALLMENT TERMS TO BUILDERS

SNAPS IN FARM AND CITY PROPERTY.

Kenewick Land Co.

Section Good Horse Heaven Land, $2.50 Per Acre.

ROBERT GERRY

FRONT STREET.

Has just received an elegant line of

Spring Dry Goods Gents' Furnishing Goods

which are offered at astonishingly low prices.

Our stock of SHOES is the most complete ever seen in this city. We will save you money.

KENEWICK.

WHEN YOU COME TO TOWN

Don't Forget

TO CALL AT THE STORE OF

Johnson AND Fullerton

and look over a LARGE NEW STOCK

Spring Dry Goods and Underwear.....

KENEWICK

TELEGRAPH NEWS SUMMARY

CULLED FROM ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

A Review of Happenings in Both Eastern and Western Hemispheres During the Past Week—National, Historical, Political and Personal Events tersely told.

Former Congressman Charles J. Boatner of Louisiana is dead. William J. Bryan spent his birthday, recently serving on a jury in the district court.

Mont Pelee volcano, on the island of Martinique, is discharging dense clouds of reddish smoke.

Count Boni de Castelaine, accompanied by the countess, was received by President Roosevelt recently.

There was a sharp earthquake shock, accompanied by subterranean noises, at La Union, Mexico, recently.

The entire plant of the Jeanings (Mich.) Iron and Engine works was burned recently. Loss, $50,000.

Very Rev. Fredrick William Farrar, dean of Canterbury since 1895, died recently in London in his 72d year.

Hamilton Fish, recently appointed assistant treasurer of the United States at New York, took the oath of office recently.

Col. John R. Gleven, aged 85, a Mexican war veteran, formerly on editor in St. Louis and later in Davenport, Iowa, is dead.

The Union Pacific has let contracts to the extent of $10,000,000 for double tracking the main line from Omaha to Ogden.

Some of the Roman Catholic missionaries in north China are leaving their missions because of the Boxer uprisings.

At Halifax, N. S., a plot to permit emigrants suffering from disease to escape into the United States is believed to have come to light.

At Toledo, Ohio, the strike of the American shipbuilding plant, involving about 1500 men, inaugurated several weeks ago, has been settled.

Captain C. W. Hackett, a veteran of the civil war and one of the most prominent wholesale hardware men in the west, died at St. Paul recently.

At Paducah, Ky., robbers recently blew open the vault in the deposit bank of Bardwell and secured in the neighborhood of $5000. The robbers escaped.

Rev. Edward Clark, foster father of Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., founder of the society of Christian Endeavor, is dead of old age. Mr. Clark was born in 1820.

Ernest Lyon, the new minister to Liberia, was presented to the president recently by Senator McComas of Maryland. Lyon, who is a negro, will leave at once for his post.

At Des Moines, Iowa, James Burns, accused of the murder of Jerry Corcoran, was found guilty of murder in the first degree and life imprisonment was recommended.

Marcus B. Raun, editor of the Austria-Hungarian Gazette of New York, has been appointed a special immigration inspector to go abroad to examine into immigration conditions.

A summons has been issued for Mrs. Hetty Green, reputed to be the wealthiest woman in the United States, to appear before Recorder Stanton and explain why she has failed to obtain a dog license for her pet terrier.

Two wagons have been found five miles north of Atlanta, Ga., containing eight or more dead bodies. Investigation by the authorities developed that the bodies were being sent out of town by a medical college for interment.

Five men of the crew of the tug Pilot of Philadelphia were drowned in a collision between the tug and the steamship Winifred, in the Delaware river off Marcus Hook, Pa., recently. The remaining three members of the crew were saved.

Nathan M. Halleck, president of the Mechanics' National bank of Middletown, N. Y., died suddenly at Los Angeles, Cal. He was on an extended pleasure trip. Mr. Halleck was a veteran of the civil war, and had received a special medal from congress for bravery in service.

The handsome residence of the Humbert family on the Avenue de la Grand Armee, Paris, which was the scene of its triumph and eventual downfall following the discovery of the empty safe, was sold at auction recently to satisfy the creditors of the Humberts. It brought $64,400.

Robert Stokes and his wife of Portland, Ore., were found dead on the floor of their cabin, a few miles from Booneville, Cal., by a brother of Stokes, who lives some distance from their cabin. He heard two shots and commenced an investigation which resulted in the finding of the bodies of his brother and sister in law with bullets through their bodies. The case is shrouded in mystery.

Treasurer Harry Niedlinger of the Marguerita Sylva company, in Milwaukee, was robbed of cash and notes amounting in all to about $3000 recently, the money having been taken from beneath his head while he slept. A member of the company who slept with Mr. Niedlinger is missing and is suspected of the theft.

At Cripple Creek, Col., the strike situation is rapidly assuming an acute phase and there is every indication that every mine in the district, with the exception of the Woods and the Portland companies, will be closed down.

Miss Zeralda McVickers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McVickers of Sumpter, Ore., shot and killed herself at the family home recently. The young lady was alone at the time and no motive for the deed is known.

Edward Goodrich, who achieved notoriety some time ago as the ex-champion broncho buster of the west, and incidentally won $1000 by riding a heretofore unmanageable horse through Main street, Billings, Mont., is in serious trouble, he having been arrested at Helena on the charge of adultery.

The third consecutive daily wreck on the Rocky Mountain division of the Northern Pacific occurred last Monday near Weeksville, Mont., a small station eight miles west of Missoula.

Governor McBride of Washington, has appointed Senator J. P. Sharp of Ellensburg a member of the board of regents of the state agricultural college, vice H. W. Canfield of Colfax, resigned, for the term ending March 9, 1905.

It is considered certain in New York that the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul will have to extend to the Pacific coast. This is made necessary to recover traffic lost through the control of the Burlington by the James J. Hill merger lines.

Governor McBride of Washington has filed the bill "Providing for the assessment and taxation of mining claims and improvements thereon and of the net proceeds of mines" with a veto attached.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.

Conductors and gripmen of the Tacoma street car company went on a strike Sunday morning.

The funeral of the late S. S. Glidden, the Spokane banker, was held Monday afternoon from the family residence in Spokane.

For the first time in the history of Tacoma the gambling houses are closed, and closed for good.

"Deep Creek" Jones was recently appointed by Governor McBride a member of the state board of control. The law requiring saloons to remain closed on Sundays was observed at Vancouver last Sunday for the first time in a number of years.

A monster snow and land slide, 300 feet wide, carried away the Spokane Falls & Northern railroad bridge at Hendricks' cut last week. The bridge spanned the Columbia river.

Officers of the First National Bank of Clarkston, which has just been organized, have received the bank charter from the comptroller of currency. It is said the bank will be opened for business about May 1.

Brigadier General Frederick R. Funston has arrived at Vancouver barracks, where he will assume command of the department of the Columbia, relieving General George M. Randall, who has been ordered to the Philippines.

New station agents on the Rocky Mountain division of the Northern Pacific have been announced as follows: G. F. Mapes, Hope, Idaho; A. Duffield, Burke, Idaho; F. A. Brown, Rathdrum, Idaho; W. Lemoine, Florence, Mont.; and G. C. Burke, Stevensville, Mont.

The game law passed by the last legislature is more complicated than any of its predecessors, for the reason that an effort was made to suit the conditions of every county. Sportsmen who have examined the new law pronounce it satisfactory.

The Seattle grand jury has voted to indict Justice T. H. Cann and Police Judge George of Seattle precinct, accused of malfeasance in office in their failure to take steps to suppress gambling and other vices tolerated by the present administration.

A Pennsylvania hotelkeeper was fined 67 cents for swearing at his servant who would not get up when called.

PROFESSIONAL CARDS.

Cardwell & Ledgerwood

Attorneys at Law,
Real Estate, Insurance, Abstracts.
KENEWICK, WASH.

J. W. Hewetson.

Physician and Surgeon.
General Practice.
Special attention given to all diseases and operations in the eye, ear, nose and throat.
Glasses accurately fitted.

KENEWICK, WASH.

C. O. Anderson,

Attorney at Law.

KENEWICK, WASH.

C. F. Breithaupt,

Notary Public,

Real Estate, Insurance.
KENEWICK, WASH.

Rufus Fullerton,

Notary Public.

Kenewick, Wash.

Columbia...

Land Company,

C. A. LUNDY.

Buys and Sells Kenewick Valley Canal Lands and Horse Heaven Wheat Lands.

Makes a Specialty of Locating Homesteaders on First Class Wheat Lands.

WRITE US OR SEE US

Kenewick, Wash.

"Formaldihide"

FOR Wheat Smut

BETTER and CHEAPER THAN VITROL.

Agency Zazearac Steam Laundry, Prosser, Washington.

Columbia Pharmacy,

Yakima Street, Kenewick, Wash.

W. S. HELM,

JEWELER OPTICIAN

Eyes fitted with glasses after the most approved methods.

Clock and Watch Repairing;
Clocks, Watches and Jewelry for Sale.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED.

KENEWICK LAND CO. BUILDING,
Yakima Street, Kenewick.