Eastern and Western Hemispheres During the Past Week—National, Historical, Political and Personal Events Tersely Told.

The pope considers that he has been restored to his usual health.

The last statement of the treasury shows: Available cash balance, $148,- 099,240; gold, $83,809,598.

Domestic trouble and general dependency led Thomas Edwards to seek suicide by strychnine at Omaha.

A body identified as that of E. J.
Maloney, formerly of Scranton, Pa., has been found in Long Island sound.

Citizens believe the recent Ymir, B.
C., fire was incendiary and that the $40,000 blaze was deliberately started at night.

Fire recently swept Tifton, Ga., and destroyed several business buildings, causing a loss of $250,000. There were no casualties.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy Darling is on a business visit to western cities, and his trip will probably be extended to the Pacific coast.

A movement is on foot among the business men of Puyallup to build an electric street railway up the valley to Sumner and Orting, and to Tacoma.

An order issued recently in London says that four officers, not above the rank of captain, will annually be selected for a two years' course of study, with residence in Japan.

A hundred persons were drowned recently by the sinking of the French steamer Gironde, after having been in collision with the French steamer A.
Schiffino near Herbillon, 23 miles from Bona.

Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. Decosta, the Episcopal clergyman who, five years ago, became a convert to the Roman Catholic church, and a year ago was ordained a priest, died recently in New York.

Commander Frederick Booth-Tucker, who for years has commanded the Salvation army forces in the United States, has been appointed to the international headquarters of the army in London.

At Vancouver, B. C., John Kay, aged 17, was found guilty of murder and sentenced to be hanged January 17.
The boy is in the last stages of consumption, and it is probable that he will never live to be hanged.

Generals Candelaria and Cambom-illo, insurgent leaders, who recently revolted against the San Domingo government, together with their followers, have surrendered, and peace prevails throughout the entire republic.

An official communication announces that J. Pierpont Morgan has informed the Italian ambassador at Washington that he unconditionally returns to the Italian government the famous cope belonging to the cathedral at Ascoli.

Independence day was celebrated throughout the republic of Panama with great enthusiasm. President Amador received messages of congratula-tion from President Roosevelt and many other prominent people in different parts of the world.

Former Crown Princess Louise, the divorced wife of the present king of Saxony, has arrived in Florence, desiring, it is said, to be nearer to Rome in order to facilitate the negotiations with the vatican in order to bring about a reconciliation with the king.

A shooting affray, with many features resembling the highbinder outrages of the San Francisco Chinese quarter, which occurred in Chinatown, may result in the death of Mock Duck, one of the most prominent members of the reform element in the New York city colony.

Wo Kee, a New York Chinese laundryman, is dead from nine terrible wounds on his head and face, received during a fight in his laundry with a white woman companion. The woman, who says she is Mollie Donovan, 22 years old, of Philadelphia, is in a dangerous condition.

The datto Ali, the rebellious Moro leader, who on the pretext of resistance to the antislavery law, has been waging warfare with the American troops, has sent a message to General Wood requesting an interview with a view to surrender. General Wood has granted the request.

The dead body of Miss Roda Butts, aged 23 years, a white servant girl of Marshall, Mo., was found in a pasture in the suburbs of South Marshall. Her throat had been cut with a sharp stick, a piece of which still remained in the flesh; her left ear had been cut off and there was a bullet hole in the head.

The returns from elections of members of the Canadian house of commons indicate a signal victory for the liberals and the indorsement of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the premier. In the last parliament the liberals had a majority of 50. Judged by the returns already received, the liberal majority in the next house will be at least 70.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

The bones of old Chief Joseph are to rest peacefully beneath a little mound of earth at Nespelem.

With a few exceptions, all of the grain tributary to Prescott has been disposed of by the growers.

J. H. Lasswell, will begin at once the erection of a 50 barrel daily capacity flouring mill at Colville.

The demand for Washington flour from the eastern and southern states is almost as great as that for wheat.

The Western Pine Shippers' association has applied for membership in the National Lumber Manufacturers' association.

Lumber is being hauled for the new $10,000 Christian church at Pullman, and the work of raising the superstructure will begin in a few days.

All of the right of way for the Medical Lake electric line has been secured and the company will be letting the contracts for the grading work before long.

Sixteen hundred dollars worth of fruit trees and shrubbery were received in Palouse last week. The trees are mostly winter varieties of apple and peach trees.

Farmers, millmen and miners of eastern Washington and northern Idaho are estimated to have paid over $1,500,000 to Spokane implement and machinery dealers the past year.

James C. Brame, a restaurant man of Bremerton, a suburb of Seattle, is dead and his wife lying at the hospital as the result of a shooting which was the outcome of a quarrel between them.

A special wheat rate has been announced by the railroads from all points in the Palouse country north of Winona, Wash., to Milwaukee. It is 52½ cents per cwt., with a minimum car of 30,000 pounds.

Two weeks will elapse before the 14 blocks of paving will be completed in Walla Walla, but property holders on streets touched by paving are already agitating the extension of the improvement in all directions.

Sunday morning about 1 o'clock burglars entered the Old Crow saloon at Farmington through the back window and carried the safe, which was a small one, to the blacksmith shop of J. W. Walters, where they blew it open and robbed it of about $70.

Figures compiled by the state land office for the biennial report show an aggregate of $1,073,930 invested in county, municipal and school district bonds in the last two years. An average of 4.14 per cent is realized.

The report of the Spokane health department for the month of October shows that there were 96 births as against a total of 84 births during the corresponding month of last year. In October, 1904, there were 39 deaths, against a total of 48 deaths in October, 1903.

What is said to be the largest real estate deal made in the history of Spokane was consummated last week when Charles Sweeny purchased the Rookery, the Spokane National Bank block and the Riverside block, the best paying blocks in the heart of the city, for $350,000.

As a result of a holdup of the Camden postoffice last week in which two men robbed the safe of $40, one man, John Wilson, was fatally shot near Chattaroy, being shot by Deputy Sheriff E. C. Pratt, and the other, H. Allen, after a desperate struggle with Detectives in Spokane, was landed in jail.

Robbers blew the front off of the safe in the Bank of Endicott at an early hour Friday morning, but were frightened away without getting at the contents of the strong box. The noise of the explosion gave an alarm, and the robbers took to their heels under a rain of revolver shots. One of the alleged thugs, named Joe Buler, was captured later.

A Hatfield Family Wiped Out.

Cheyenne, Wyo.—"Bill" Hatfield shot and killed his wife, Maud, and then blew out his brains, at Meeteetse, Wyo. It is said that jealousy was the cause of the tragedy.

Cleveland insists that she is entitled to snatch the tiara from Cincinnati, so long looked upon as the "Queen City" of Ohio. No serious dispute as to the supremacy can be kept up for many years.
