CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Walla Walla, Wash., July 10, 1905.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Nelson G. Blalock, contestant, against John Knowles Bourne's homestead entry No. 9443, made April 15, 1901, for Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, and NW 1-4, SW 1-4, Section 22, Township 5 N., Range 25 E., W. M., by John Knowles Bourne, Contestee, in which it is alleged that said John Knowles Bourne has never at any time or at all either established or maintained a residence upon said tract; that he has not improved or cultivated said tract in any manner whatsoever; that said tract does not now have upon it any building, habitable or otherwise; and that said entryman has abandoned said tract for more than two years last past; said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on October 11, 1905, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Walla Walla, Wash.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed July 10, 1905, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
J. L. MOHUNDRO, Register.

CONTEST NOTICE.

Department of the Interior, United States Land Office, Walla Walla, Wash., June 19, 1905.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Joseph L. East, contestant, against the heirs of Henry W. Richards, deceased, involving homestead entry No. 5677, made March 5, 1897, for the NE-1-4, Sec. 24, T. 7 N., R. 29 E., W. M., by Henry W. Richards, entryman, in which it is alleged that;

Henry W. Richards or his heirs have not established or maintained a residence on the above described land; that Henry W. Richards or his heirs have not cultivated or improved said land; that said Henry W. Richards abandoned said land before his death, and his heirs have not since made any settlement or improvement thereon; that said Henry W. Richards died July 9, 1901, and was not survived by a wife; that Analdo Richards, John Richards, and William Richards, all of the state of Washington; and Luella Wineland, Jessie Wineland and Alta Fulton, all non residents of the State of Washington, are the only heirs of the said Henry W. Richards;

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m., on October 5, 1905, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Walla Walla, Washington.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit filed June 19, 1905, set forth facts which show that after due diligence, service of this notice cannot be made on the three non-resident heirs above named, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
JOHN MOHUNDRO,
Register.

CONTEST NOTICE

Department of the Interior, Land Office at Walla Walla, Wash., August 17, 1905.
A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by

CHARLES McMANUS, contestant, against homestead entry No. 12956, made Feb. 21, 1903, for Northwest quarter Section 32, Township 8 N., Range 29 E., by Jay Ward, contestee, in which it is alleged that said Jay Ward has abandoned said entry, for more than six months last past; that he has not established a bona fide residence thereon nor any residence whatever, and that said land is now and has been for more than a year last past unoccupied, unimproved and uncultivated, and that said alleged absence is not due to his employment in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war.

Said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 1 o'clock p. m., on October 19, 1905, before the Register and Receiver at the United States Land Office in Walla Walla, Wash.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed August 15, 1905, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given by due and proper publication.
A. J. GILLIS, Receiver.

Contest Notice.

Department of the Interior, Walla Walla, Washington, July 14th, 1905.

A sufficient contest affidavit having been filed in this office by Harry E. Van Alstine, contestant, against homestead entry No. 11973, made February 2nd, 1903, for the E 1-2 of the SW 1-4 and Lots 3 and 4, of Section 18, Township 7 N., Range 29 E., W. M., by Josephine Held, contestee, in which it is alleged that said claimant, Josephine Held, has wholly abandoned said land and claim for more than six months immediately preceding the date of said contest affidavit; that said claimant never established her residence upon said land at any time or at all; that said claimant has failed to place any improvements upon said land at any time or at all; that these failures to reside upon or cultivate said land by said claimant continue to the date hereof, and that said alleged absence from said land was not due to her employment in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps of the United States as a private soldier, officer seaman or marine in the war with Spain, or during any other war in which the United States may be engaged, said parties are hereby notified to appear, respond and offer evidence touching said allegation at 10 o'clock a. m. on Oct. 12, 1905, before the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office in Walla Walla, Wash.
The said contestant having, in a proper affidavit, filed July 13th, 1905, set forth facts which show that after due diligence personal service of this notice cannot be made, it is hereby ordered and directed that such notice be given due and proper publication.
J. L. MOHUNDRO, Register.
