

KIONA.

B. F. Hampson, of Seattle, was in town Wednesday.

A Commercial Club was organized last week.

Mary Aldrich has enrolled in the Eighth grade and will take up ninth grade work in January.

The Literary Society has adjourned until Friday of Christmas week.

A restaurant building will be put up at once by Mrs. Ferguson.

W. W. Young is leveling a piece of land near the school house.

W. A. Kelso has been awarded a contract on the branch road in the Connell country.

The Ladies' Aid gave their Christmas Fair Friday afternoon and evening. Everything passed off pleasantly.

The furnace has at last been put in the church basement and services will again be welcomed.

Miss Amy Burke has commenced her school in the Rattlesnake country.

Congregational Church.

Sunday-school at 10 a. m. Endeavor Society at 6:30 p. m. There will be no preaching as our congregation will attend the union evangelistic services at the Presbyterian church.

H. J. ZERCHER, Pastor.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY

The Burlington train is annulled for today and No. 1 will arrive sometime tonight.

Ed. Hanson is expected home the last of the week with a grip full of townsites.

Mr. Goodwin, of the new firm Tull & Goodwin, returned last night from a business trip to Seattle.

Dr Hutchison's sermon topic this evening on "Which Way?" Prof. Clifford will sing a solo entitled, "Two Paths."

E. L. Newell, the N. P. right-of-way agent, is in town sizing up the situation and conferring with some of the land owners.

Mrs. Chas. E. Horton, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hanson for some time, with return to her home in Tacoma to-night.

Mrs. L. E. Johnson and children returned the first of the week from Waitsburg where she has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fine.

We have it on the authority that the steam shovel will begin to move in the morning and will be taking out shovelfuls of dirt on the following day.

Mrs. J. Tull and children arrived last night from Seattle where they have been stopping since coming west and will soon be settled in their rooms in the Eakin building.

G. A. Hamilton is nursing a burned hand since putting out a fire burning around his chimney flue yesterday morning. A barrell of water had been hauled the night before to wash with and came in just right in preventing what might have been a serious fire.

Mrs. Staser, of Ritzville, who has been visiting her daughters Mrs. O. L. Hanson and Miss Eleanor Staser returned to Ritzville this evening. Mr. and Mrs. Staser expect to move to Kennewick to make their home about the first of the year.

Buy the best

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Don't be fooled into buying land more than five miles away from Kennewick where all is uncertain—ask any business man—keep where all is sure, under the Northern Pacific's Great Canal.

500 acres near Finley, ($3,000 school with 50 pupils) from $75 to $100 per acre WILL DIVIDE and give terms to suit.

Five 5 and 10 acre improved Kennewick Tracts that will pay for themselves in two crops. Bargain prices and easy terms.

Bargains Best Store, $2500. Best House and 4 acres, $3600. Cottage $735. Improved 10 acres, $1100. Kennewick Lots $100 each, up.

Hanson & Rich

KENNEWICK'S GREAT "BARGAIN GIVERS"

You may "miss it" if you don't see us.

W. R. AMON, PRESIDENT.

L. E. JOHNSON, CASHIER.

Exchange Bank

Does a General and Exchange Banking Business. Farm Loans Negotiated . . . . .

Responsibility $75,000

Drafts Sold on all Principal points in U.S. and Europe. Loans Made on Approved Security

INTEREST PAID ON TIME . . . . . DEPOSITS . . . . .

KENNEWICK,

WASHINGTON.

Notice to Spanish-American War Veterans.

You are requested to be present at a meeting of the Spanish-American war veterans to be held at Masonic Hall, (opposite Bartholet Hotel) North Yakima, Saturday evening, Dec. 16th, at 8 o'clock. The charter will be closed on that night and your presence is desired. Committee.

Bazaar Saturday night.

Stand up for Kennewick and let very stranger know that within five miles of Kennewick is the best and surest buy in the state where you take no chances" under the Northern Pacific's greatest irrigating canal. See Hanson & Rich for the cheapest sure crop land and "sure" city lots on easy terms.

To the Public

I have purchased the shop building on Front street and will open a first-class blacksmith shop therein November 1st. General Blacksmithing, Horseshoeing, Wood Work in connection. All work guaranteed first class.

A. B. French

'Caught a Tartar.'

J. R. McKeand, the well-known abstracter of Prosser was recently married to Miss Maud Tarter of North Yakima. While we tender congratulations to His Honor, the Mayor of White Bluffs, we also advise him to be good.