MONEY IN IRRIGATION

Our properties are located in the Columbia Valley between Wallula and Pasco—the lowest elevation of any irrigated lands in the State of Washington and are especially adapted to raising alfalfa, vegetables, fruits of all kinds, berries, grapes and figs. They produce the earliest berries and vegetables in the Northwest. These properties are now abundantly watered and lands with perpetual water rights are on sale at reasonable prices and liberal terms to induce early settlers.

THE NEW TOWN OF ATTALIA lies in the center of this most fertile district and is at the junction of three railroads, the N. P., the Washington & Columbia River, and the O. R. & N. Besides these unexcelled railroad shipping facilities, the Columbia River lies at our door. Attalia is most beautifully situated and splendid business opportunities are offered.

The Company will sell choice lots at very low prices to persons who will erect homes and business houses in this thriving, coming town.
