Town and County

Jay Wyckoff and family moved to Monitor last Tuesday.

E. D. Shugart has moved into a vacant house near the Leavenworth hospital.

G. S. Taylor, of Wenatchee, was in our city last week and called on the Echo.

Tom Henry was up this week from Pine flat with a load of apples and vegetables.

The Ladies Guild will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. G. W. Hoxsey.

Lot Wilbur, the pioneer druggist of Snohomish, was visiting friends in Leavenworth one day last week.

A. G. Daniels, the night operator, has also been transferred to some place and will leave in a few days for his new berth.

Miss Laura Turner, who is attending college in Seattle, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Turner, of this place.

J. H. Mitchell, who lost his entire household goods in the fire of last week has moved into the house vacated by Jay Wyckoff's family.

Mrs. A. Downing and her sister, Mrs. J. Decker, went down to Wenatchee Monday to visit friends. Mrs. Decker, who lives in Seattle, has been here for the past week with Mrs. Downing.

George Seamans, from Blewett, who has been in the Leavenworth Hospital for the past week or ten days, was discharged the fore part of the week and has returned to his home.

Edward Flaherty, who has held down the position as day operator at the G. N. depot has been transferred to the dispatcher's office at Spokane and left to take up his new duties Monday.

C. H. Nichols, who left here some two months ago for Chicago to accept a position with the Western Union Telegraph Company, has returned and accepted the position of day operator at the depot.

Dwight Huston, of Chiwaukum, came down last Tuesday and put himself under the care of Dr. McCoy at Leavenworth Hospital. He was suffering with a tumorous swelling on the neck which Dr. McCoy is treating.

Mrs. Merriam, wife of Samuel G. Merriam, came in from Spokane last Sunday. Mr. Merriam and wife will make this their future home, he having accepted a position as bookkeeper for the Leavenworth Mercantile Company, of which his brother, George S. Merriam, is president.

Paul Triem, a rancher upon the Chumstick met with an odd accident last Saturday. In discharging his pistol, in some unaccountable way a small particle of the bullet flew backwards and struck him in the eye. Fortunately, however, the wound was of such a nature as not to injure his sight.

On Saturday last, during the absence of the editor in Seattle, C. M. Hendricks, of Mission, accompanied by Roberts Dye of this place called to scrape up a kind of Missouri acquaintance. Mr. Hendricks came to Leavenworth about three years ago from Paris, Mo., and worked in the round house here for two years. While here Mr. Hendricks made many friends who were glad to see him. A year ago last summer he went to Mission and engaged in the box manufacturing and saw mill business with his father which has proven very profitable.

R. R. Casaday, of Centralia, is here on a visit to his son William, who is in the employ of the Great Northern as bridge foreman and is just now overseeing the bridge being built across the Chumstick east of town. Mr. Casaday was born in east Tennessee in 1827 and first came west in 1849 during the first gold excitement. In 1852, while in the employ of the Hudson Bay Company he crossed the Columbia river near where Wenatchee now is. He crossed the plains eleven times before a railroad was built across the continent. He has seen cities built where was a wilderness; he has seen the most savage and warlike tribes of Indians transformed into peaceable citizens. In fact since he first landed on the Pacific coast he has seen an empire evolve out of a pathless wilderness.

See Mrs. Beamish's millinery opening advertisement. (11)

BLEWETT ITEMS

(From our regular correspondent.)

Mr. Knapp returned to Seattle last week.

The LaRica company has part of the material on the ground for their hoisting plant.

R. F. Brown and George Persinger were over from Negro creek to attend the primary.

Blewett needs a good wood cutter as we are nearly all out of wood and we are too busy to cut wood.

Dick Madden is going out for a short time as the snow is so deep he cannot get supplies up to his camp.

George Persinger is getting supplies down to his lower camp ready to start work on the wagon road as soon as the snow is off.

At the republican primary held here on the 26th inst., R. F. Brown and Joseph Marko were elected delegates to the county convention. They are both Atkinson men.

R.

Dr. Hoxsey made a flying visit to the Sound Wednesday returning Thursday.

For the last ten days Mrs. L. W. Bloom has been suffering with a severe case of tonsillitis.

Mrs. Godsoe, came up from Wenatchee Tuesday morning to nurse Mrs. Bloom through her illness.

Postmaster Taylor, who has been in the Leavenworth hospital for the past week, suffering from what threatened to be blood poison, was discharged this week. A toe on his left foot was amputated by Dr. Hoxsey.

The services at the Congregational church Sunday morning will consist of an Easter Concert at 11:30, which will be followed by Sunday school. In the evening the Christian Endeavor will meet at 7:00. Special evening service at 8.

Many people will remember Homer Moore as a young man who was in the employ of the Leavenworth Mercantile Co. this winter a year ago. Mr. Moore returned to this place from Spokane on Wednesday and intends to make this his future home.

Miss Clothier was brought here last Wednesday from Monitor, suffering from what indicated hip joint disease. Some five or six weeks ago she was thrown from a wagon, in a runaway, and received an injury which brought on the complication. Dr. Hoxsey will attend Miss Clothier.

Misses Anna Tholin and Maude Merriam entertained their friends at the home of Miss Merriam on Wednesday evening. A very pleasant and enjoyable time was had and a number of friends were present. The names of those present we have not learned. The usual games and pastimes were indulged in and refreshments were served, after which the guests departed with the customary expressions of pleasure.

Card of Thanks

I take this method of thanking Icyde Court of the Order of Foresters, for their kindness and courtesy to me, and also for their aid in helping me collect the insurance on the life of my late husband, who was a member of that order, and lost his life in an unfortunate accident. Mrs. James Jorgensen.

A County Medical Association

Dr. W. M. McCoy, believing that an association of those engaged in the medical practice in Chelan County would be beneficial, has for sometime been engaged in perfecting plans to bring the M. D. s together, and to-day at 2 p. m. a meeting will be held in the Leavenworth Hospital the purpose of which is to form a Chelan County Medical Association. A number of practicing physicians have signified their intention to be present, among whom are Doctors Wentworth and Mitchell, of Chelan; Doctors Gilchrist, Saunders and Culp, of Wenatchee, to which the local members of the profession may be added.

It is the purpose to affiliate with the American Medical Association, and thus get the benefits which the larger organization will be able to give them.

George Keating returned Tuesday from the Sound. Mr. Keating will go into the hardware and furniture business and until such time as he can secure larger quarters he will occupy the building on the corner of Front street just east of Losekamp's store. He is now having the building fixed up. He bought his stock of goods while in the Sound cities and they will begin to arrive in a few days. Leavenworth has needed something of this kind and the Echo has frequently called attention to the fact. Mr. Keating will do a good business we have no doubt.

Alexander McKinnon to Mary Marshall and Wm. Krpisyk to Johanna G Fischer.

Mine Host Russell of the Cascade is making extensive and necessary improvements in his hotel. He is turning Commercial street wing into two very neat sample rooms, and is having the interior so arranged that he will have about ten more rooms, and as soon as the snow is gone and building can be done under favorable circumstances he will build quite a large addition to it if the business justifies such a move.

John W. Hill and wife left last Tuesday for Mendocino county, California, where they will make their future home. Mr. Hill is one of Leavenworth's oldest inhabitants, having come here with the advent of the railroad. He built the Cascade hotel and conducted it for several years as a hotel, when Mrs. Hill's health failed, he closed the hotel and conducted a lodging house and ran in connection a flour, feed and grain store. Mr. Hill enjoyed the respect and confidence of all who know him. The Echo regretted to see Mr. Hill leave, but as health was the prime cause of the move his friends can not complain and only wish him well.
