SUNDAY'S BALL GAME

Mission Met Defeat at the Hands of the Leavenworth Boys Last Sunday Afternoon

The following report of the ball game was written for the Echo by a special reporter. The Mission ball team under the management of C. H. Hobbs came up last Sunday to cross bats and dispute honors on the diamond with our players last Sunday and were badly defeated in nine innings by a score of 22 to 20.

It might be appropriate to say right here, in a parenthetical way, that this is the writer's first attempt at writing up a base ball game. He has made an attempt at reporting ball fights in Chicago, hockey, dog fights in Texas, and auto fights in Washington, but never before a base ball game.

Score by innings table for Leavenworth vs Mission. Columns for innings 1-9, Leavenworth runs, hits, errors, and total score.

LEAVENWORTH

Score by innings table for Leavenworth vs another team. Columns for innings 1-9, Leavenworth runs, hits, errors, and total score.

Ed Tholin acted as captain of the Leavenworth nine, who by the way, have not yet adopted a name. He did some good "pink tin" playing. Mr. Sorenson's strong suit is getting over the ground. He would show up well as a sprinter.

Jack Dalton did some heavy hitting in the first and third, but lost his wind in the seventh and batted "first" in the eighth, being in a delicate frame of mind. Mr. Gates is good to hold a base, but he and the frog were not built for running.

Mr. Sheridan would be a double attraction to any nine. Being both ornamental and useful. To the command, double back action curve pitching of Mr. Blockedge the Leavenworth boys owe their large score. Mr. Jacobson belongs in the class with Mr. Sorenson and the giraffe. He ought to be swift of foot even if he is not.

Moore, Ackley and Moore, who played respectively right and left field, show up well in the score but failed to earn their money in the field. The Mission boys being visitors the reporter does not feel at liberty to dwell upon their qualifications for ball playing. Dave Phillips, their mascot, lost his rabbit foot at home, which accounts for their loss of the game.

Mrs. C. H. Mason, who devotes considerable time to the delightful occupation of cultivating flowers, this week presented the editor of the Echo with a bouquet of pansies, lilies of the valley, iris and other flowers, the names of which the editor is not familiar with.

What Might Have Been

That is hardly treating the Echo right to go off down to Wenatchee and get married and never say a word about it. What a nice item it would have been.
