End of Bitter Fight "Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga. "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. It conquers all coughs, colds, and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by City Drug Store. Price 60c and $1.00. Trial free.

It is gratifying to know that the leading commission men and strongest friend of Governor McBride almost without exception, all over the state are loyally supporting the republican state ticket. When such strong and loyal commission men as W. H. Lewis, who as chairman of the railway committee fought for the bill through the house, John H. Powell, S. G. Cosgrove, T. D. Rockwell, J. W. Arrasmith, D. T. Ham and Senator Crow, (of Spokane), are working earnestly for Albert E. Mead's election, as they are, it is quite evident that there is no good reason why other commission men should not do likewise.—Colfax Gazette.

Josef Schippers, the biggest boy in the world is still growing. Sixteen years old and seven feet tall. He lives in Germany with his parents. When he was 12 years old his companions poked so much fun at him because of his towering height that he began to stink and wouldn't go to school any more. Josef eats about twice as much as an ordinary man and he likes candy. His mother won't let her big giant get a hair cut because his long black curly locks are so fine and beautiful. Josef has Samson's strength.
