WHY WILL THE REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET BE ELECTED?

Because there are more republicans in Chelan county than there are democrats. That is the simple reason.

Our democratic friends have great hopes of landing some of the candidates on the democratic county ticket in office, and these hopes are based on the supplementary one that enough republican voters will scratch the name of a republican and substitute therefor a democrat. This is a plain, unvarnished statement of the case. Otherwise they would not stand a ghost of a show for a single man on their ticket. Chelan county is republican, and has been for the past two elections. There is no reason why this condition of things politically should be changed at this time. The country has enjoyed unexampled prosperity for the past eight years under republican rule. Things could not be better under a democratic administration and they might be infinitely worse. Judging the future by the rule of the past it would certainly be much worse.

The only hope then for the success of the democratic county ticket is based on republican votes. They expect every democratic voter in the county to vote the ticket, and vote it straight. And democratic voters usually take two things straight—their whisky and their politics. The definition of a good democrat is one that votes his ticket straight and votes it early and often. Now it is counted on that every good democratic voter in Chelan county will comply strictly with the first qualification. That every democratic voter in the county is a good one the Echo will freely and frankly admit. How could it be otherwise when they have stuck to the party through forty-four years of adversity, with the solitary ray of arctic sunshine that reflected from Grover Cleveland, to cheer them. The republican voter will be urged to vote for "the man," meaning, of course, the democratic man. Will any man who calls himself a republican do it? We think very few republican voters are going to allow themselves to be used as cat's paws to rake chestnuts out of the fire for the democrats. Democratic hopes, then, are based entirely on republican voters. Will men who call themselves republicans deliver the goods? We think not. It is possible that some very good republicans would have scratched their ticket had the election been held within sixty days after the Tacoma convention, but the feeling of disappointment has had time to cool down, their cool and sober judgement has had time to assert itself as time has passed and they fully realize what democratic success would mean.

Wherefore we say to our democratic neighbors you are doomed to disappointment. The average republican has sense enough to know what is good for him and voting the democratic ticket is certainly not.

If George Turner keeps on turning his political coat won't it begin to look seedy after a while?

ONLY AN INCIDENT IN LIFE

One day last week the editor of this paper had occasion to call at his office on one of the minor officials of the Great Northern railway on a matter of business, and observing him engaged with his typewriter, remarked that he was probably too busy to talk to him, and that he would call some other time. "Yes. To be perfectly plain, I am too G—d—n busy to talk to anybody," was his prompt reply.

There was a time when this language would have offended us, but not so now. We have grown older, possibly wiser, and console ourselves with the reflection that the man did not know any better. Ignorance of those rules of civility and courtesy that obtain between gentlemen, is no crime, it is distinctly a misfortune that arouses our sympathy, just as a human being would who had had the misfortune to be burdened with some physical deformity.

Perhaps, though, we erred in walking erect into the presence of this official. Had we entered the august presence with due humility, hat under arm and made our salam in proper form, it might have been otherwise. Who knows.

CHELAN BAR ASSOCIATION

Eighteen Lawyers Present—Leavenworth Represented

At the meeting of the Chelan county lawyers called to meet at Wenatchee, on Friday evening, Sept. 2nd, for the purpose of considering the practicability of organizing a bar association, the following gentlemen of the profession were present. From Leavenworth: J. B. Adams, L. J. Nelson and J. J. King. Of Wenatchee: Frank Reeves, county attorney, Fred Reeves, court commissioner, Henry Crass, O. M. Congdon, Bert J. Williams, of the firm of Williams & Grimshaw, Kirk Whited, W. O. Parr, S. D. Griffith, E. A. Davis, Ira Thomas, E. D. Hodge, T. M. Duff and R. W. Cuts.

The meeting was held in the courtroom, and was called to order and the object of the same stated, by Mr. Crass. On motion it was decided to organize a bar association. Kirk Whited, the pioneer lawyer of the county was unanimously chosen as the first president of the association, Fred Reeves secretary, and J. J. King treasurer.

Committees on constitution and by-laws, and revision of the rules of court, were appointed, and will report at the next regular meeting of the association which was set for the evening of October 10th that being the first day of the next jury session of the Superior court.

The committee heretofore appointed to draft a uniform set of legal blanks, was on motion, made the committee of the association and continued until the next regular meeting of the association, at which time the committee will submit, and recommend the adoption of such blanks as they shall have agreed upon.

Each member of the bar present, spoke briefly, giving his views as to the organization and maintenance of the association, the desirability of uniform blanks, and other features.

Congressman Humphreys being present, was called for and addressed the association very briefly, forcibly and very acceptably.

Mr. Mayar, of the Leavenworth Echo, dropped in near the close of the meeting, and being called upon, responded in a very appropriate and pleasing manner, adding his approval of the step taken by the bar.

The best of good fellowship prevailed, a vote of thanks was forced upon Congressman Humphreys, the meeting adjourned, each voting (to himself) that he had enjoyed the meeting.

Quite a disturbance was created on Front street Wednesday night at a shooting gallery where some kind of a game called the doll racket which some traveling outfit had set up during the afternoon. Two women were connected with the concern, one of whom was considerably be-pattered with stale eggs and vegetables. It is said the game of chance which the traveling people were running was of the character which is forbidden by law, and they were liable to prosecution under a penal statute. If this is true it was the duty
