Town and County

T. J. Clark, the M. M. of the Spokane Northern was a visitor to our town this week.

Mrs. Smith, of Spokane, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Thos. J. Coleman.

Larry Nelson is improving very rapidly from a three weeks attack of malarial fever.

Paul Kelly returned Saturday from the Okanogan country where he spent the summer.

W. T. Greve and Paul Lachmud went to Spokane the last of the week to attend the fair.

J. T. McAneny spent the major part of last week in Seattle on business and returned Saturday.

P. H. Gilbert went to Seattle this week to witness the launching of the battleship Nebraska.

Albert E. Mead passed through on his way to Everett Wednesday where he is billed for a speech.

Rev. W. S. Bixby will conduct the services, morning and evening, in the Congregational church, next Sunday.

George Merriam says he would rather have lost fifty cents than an old pair of leather spectacle cases that he lost this week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Zinke left yesterday for Seattle to be present when the big battleship slides into the water.

Dr. McCoy has made arrangements with Dr. Shore to take up his practice during his absence in the east for the next three weeks.

E. S. Saulsbury, a Great Northern conductor on one of the eastern divisions spent last Sunday with his old friend P. M. Long.

A force of men is still at work on the dam, taking advantage of the low stage of water in the river to strengthen and otherwise improve it.

Tom J. Burke left Monday for the St. Louis Exposition to be gone a month. He will visit Ontario, Canada, his old home, on his return trip.

The Echo received a call yesterday from Elder J. O. Westbrook, of the Christian Gospel Missionary Association, located at Tacoma.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Libby and son from Charles, left Wednesday for home after spending two weeks in the mountains for their health.

Mr. Turner, the democratic candidate for governor, will address the voters of Wenatchee next Tuesday, Oct. 11th, in the Columbia Opera House.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kamholz, of Waterville, were here the past week, visiting Grossfader Glaeser and the family of E. Frank, of whom they are old friends.

C. E. Buttles, the man who will disburse the finances of Cleelan county after November eighth, spent a few days among the voters of this bailwick this week.

Ed Mills has gone to Benetton and his wife will follow him this week. He has secured a good position over there and will take up his residence in that place for the future.

The U. S. surveying party that went up to the lake last week will be there about three weeks. They are engaged in surveying township 27, range 16. So George Siverly tells us.

When you go to Wenatchee try the Elberta. The only first class hotel in the city. Free bus to and from all trains. Airy rooms, clean beds and a good table are the inducements.

J. B. Adams and Harry Dean returned last Saturday from Wilson Creek with six wild geese, two sage hens, some grouse and several jack snipe as an evidence of their prowess as hunters.

Mr. N. Patterson, who was formerly at the state fish hatchery, but who resigned there to go down to his home at Cashmere, tells us it is his intention to soon move to this place to make his home.

Samuel Bliss and George Keating went up to Lake Wenatchee last Sunday and returned Monday. On their way back they beat all the brush from here to the lake for birds and didn't bag one. Mr. Bliss says there are no birds in this blooming country.

HON. ALBERT E. MEAD

Will Discuss the Political Issues of the Campaign Next Tuesday Night, Oct. 11th

Let every voter who is interested in the political issues of this campaign turn out to hear Mr. Mead next Tuesday night in the pavilion. He is one of the ablest speakers in the state. The ladies are especially invited to attend.

The Twentieth Century Club.

The following report of last Wednesday's meeting was handed in for publication by the secretary:

Members of the Woman's Twentieth Century Club enjoyed Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mae McLure. There was a good attendance, and all had brushed off enough of the rust that will accumulate, to be faire de l'esprit.

Mr. Springer's current event paper was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Nelson then read a well written and appropriate article on the noted women authors of America.

After five minutes recess the literary program was closed by Mrs. Mayar's magazine review, touching upon "Frenzied Finance," and other noted questions of the day. The club then adjourned to meet Oct. 19th, with Mrs. D. H. Mayar.

A Surprise Party.

One of those social events that is thoroughly enjoyable took place at the home of Mrs. Mae McClure. A surprise was tendered to Mrs. McClure by some of her friends, at her home on Wednesday evening. Progressive whist was played until a late hour, after which refreshments were served. Messrs. Niles Sorenson and Deed H. Mayar won the two first prizes, and Mrs. Gilbert and Mr. Holmes the booby. Those present were: Mesdames Zinke, Gilbert, McLure, McGregor, Archer and Mayar and Misses Abbott and Briskey. Messrs. Zinke, McGregor, Sorenson, Rooney, Randall, Holmes, Ross and Mayar.

The Ladies Guild will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Gus Bjork.

Mrs. Dell McCoy will entertain the ladies of the guild next Wednesday afternoon from two to five o'clock.

A. R. Mentun this week purchased a half interest in the three chair barber shop from P. H. Gilbert. The shop is better known as the Bob Dye shop.

A pleasant caller in the person of Jay Buttles dropped into the Echo office last Wednesday for a brief chat. Mr. Buttles formerly lived here and has many friends who are always glad to greet him.

The reservoir which the water company is erecting on the hill west of the mill is almost completed. It is the intention to connect the water system of the town with the reservoir before winter sets in.

W. W. Thomson, of Chiwaukum, was called to Everett last Saturday. James Conway, his brother-in-law, died there on Friday. Mr. Thomson attended the funeral on Sunday. Mr. Conway formerly lived near Chiwaukum, and was quite well known there.

Col. Leach, from Washington, D. C., connected with the Interior Department spent several days here this week. Mr. Leach is here for the purpose of investigating the public land holdings. If there have been any fraudulent filings the violators will receive notice in due time.

Mrs. Hoxsey returned yesterday morning from Spangle with the Doctor. She was so much improved that she was able to walk from the depot to her home. Mrs. Hoxsey accompanied some friends to Spangle two weeks ago to visit at the old home of the Doctor and last week word was received that she was threatened with appendicitis.

Postmaster Taylor received a two cent stamp one day this week from President Roosevelt to pay the postage on the letter which was held for postage. The writer of the letter having received notice through the Echo that his letter was held, came in last week and paid the two cents, when it was promptly forwarded. The incident, as a diplomat would say, was closed this week by Mr. Taylor refunding the two cents to the president with the advice that the letter had already gone forward.

Postmaster Taylor says he has a good joke, growing out of the letter that was referred to in last week's Echo as having been mailed with a special delivery stamp but without the necessary two cent postage stamp, and addressed to "Theo. Roosevelt, Pres. U. S." Mr. Taylor says a gentleman called at the post office last Saturday and said he would pay the postage as he knew who wrote the letter.

BLEWETT ITEMS

Mr. Stephens started for his old home in Wisconsin Monday to spend the winter.

What is the matter with the telephone central at Leavenworth that they can't be called up more than once a week?

Mrs. Bolser, of Ellensburg, who has been visiting J. Griffin returned home Sunday.

W. F. Patterson made a business trip to Ellensburg Sunday.

James Wilder, of Cashmere, is spending a few days in the camp.

Mr. Olsen returned to Blewett Saturday after a two month's visit in Idaho.

W. H. Isaacs, of Peshastin, was up Sunday with a load of goods.

Charles Marshall is hauling hay into camp from Mountain Home for Mr. Irwin.

Among the callers on the Echo this week was W. O. Parr, of Wenatchee, and G. W. Lessinger, of Cashmere. The former is the democratic candidate for county attorney and the latter democratic county chairman. Mr. Parr has practiced law in Wenatchee for several years and is classed with the pioneers of the valley. He is a most worthy and exemplary citizen and if there were enough democratic votes in Chelan county to elect him he ought to be the next county attorney. He is worthy of the support of his party for the same reason that Mr. Crass, the republican nominee, is entitled to the support of every republican vote. Mr. Crass has the advantage of Mr. Parr in that he has been in the active practice of law for a longer period, and has had more experience. For this reason he will enter onto the discharge of the duties of county attorney better equipped than his opponent.

P. H. Tomlinson with his family and G. M. Smith and family left yesterday in wagons. The former bound for North Yakima and the latter for Portland. They went by way of Blewett and Ellensburg. Mr. Tomlinson came here last winter from Montana and has followed carpentering while here. He made many friends while here all of whom regretted to see him leave. Mr. Smith came here from Bellingham in the summer and engaged in the racket store business while here.

O. E. Swartz and family left yesterday with the intention of going to Bellingham, Wash., to make his home. Mr. Swartz is a good citizen and we regret to lose him. He has lived here the past eighteen months and has been employed by the mill company.

The Fireman are Thankful

Some of the young folks of the north side had a little party at the home of J. C. Davis on Wednesday night. Games of different kinds were indulged in after which a lunch was served.

J. G. Fritz with his wife and son arrived here this week from Sand Point, Idaho, with the intention of making this his home. Mr. Fritz has leased the John Bjork building and will use one of the lower rooms for a hotel dining room and the upper floor rooms for a hotel. One of the other lower floor rooms will be turned into a saloon while the third is for rent. It will be some thirty days yet before the building is ready for occupancy.

If you have a little money you are not using invest some of it in cheap Wenatchee real estate. If you have your money in a bank it may be lost through failure, but if you have it invested in real estate it is safe, and you can sleep sound. When hard times come land, like everything else, will decline in value, but you can, if it absolutely becomes necessary, make a living on an acre of irrigated land in the Wenatchee valley, and when good times come around again your real estate will go up again in value and often becomes more valuable than ever. Look into that Peachey addition proposition and allow us to explain the term on which it is sold. Deed H. Mayar. Sole Agent for Leavenworth.

Miss Bertha Pheian says she and her set surprised the family of Fred Wettstein on Wednesday night. They had a great good time, and last night they were to storm and take by surprise the family of J. M. Bottsford. The occasion being Mr. Bottsford's birthday.
