SWEET LIPS CHANGE HANDS

Gun That Turned the Tide of Revolution Becomes Property of Pension Commissioner Ware.

"Sweet Lips," the gun that is said to have swerved the tide of the American revolution and led to the surrender of Lord Cornwallis, has recently become the possession of Mr. Ware, the commissioner of pensions. It was the property of Darling Jones, a southerner, who, as a 16-year-old boy, enlisted in the continental service and fought for nine months, first in Col. Shelby's regiment from North Carolina, and afterward in Col. John Sevier's regiment from eastern Tennessee. Jones carried the gun at the battle of King's mountain on October 7, 1780, and, the story says, fired the bullet that killed Ferguson, the major who led the British forces. The death of the commander of the expedition was the turning-point of the battle, and that battle, with its score of 300 Britons killed and wounded, and 810 captured, was the turning-point of Gen. Cornwallis' career. The expedition of Cornwallis was immediately checked, and his capture subsequently effected. The gun is a long-barreled flint lock, a clumsy and unsightly weapon, but it was effective at short range in those days. Jones, who lived at Jonesboro, Tenn., died in 1848. He gave the gun to his son-in-law, William Duncan, who, in turn, presented it to Frank Montcastle, in whose family it remained for many years.

Fight Will Be Bitter

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendations of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Price 50c, and $1. Trial bottles free. Guaranteed by City Drug Store.

George C. Carrie, a St. Louisan, 25 years of age, has what promises to become a great lyric tenor voice. He is a member of the choir of the Grand Avenue Presbyterian church, and sings two octaves and a half tone and goes to high C 20 times within ten minutes without perceptible fatigue. His range is a full tone greater than that of Jean de Reszke, the world's most eminent lyric tenor. Recently Mme. Lillian Nordica, hearing him sing, said: "The young man has one of the most remarkable voices I have ever heard."

A Costly Mistake

Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or Bowel troubles. They are gentle yet thorough. 25c at City Drug Store.

College Girls in the Field.

Because of a lack of farm hands the farmers around Whippany, Afton and Hanover, N. J., have had to call on their daughters to assist in the harvest. In the ordinary course of things this would be nothing strange. But for the farmers in that section of the country it is unusual, for they are a well-to-do lot and most of their girls are college bred.

If you haven't time to prepare Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea, it is now made in tablet form also. Get a package already to use. Makes you well; keeps you well. 35 cents.

Bands of flowered lawn are inserted into the newest wide turnover collars and cuffs.

An odd parasol is of white satin, perfectly plain, except for a garland of violets which encircle the edge.

Quantities of flowers are used as berthas, chetelaines, and sprays for evening wear, and some of the daintiest sleeves are composed entirely of chains of flowers.

When you feel like singing—sing. Sighing will never pleasure bring. Learn to laugh, you can laugh and laugh right. By taking Rocky Mountain Tea at night. City Drug store.
