Mrs. Wendell Pate, from Wenatchee, niece of Mrs. E. B. Norell, is here on a visit.

To the family of Jas. Latimer, who lives on the Peake place, was born, last Saturday, a fine brood of a boy.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. King went to Wenatchee the first of the week, to eat New Year's dinner with friends.

Charley Newman came over from Seattle, on Wednesday, to join his wife, who has been here for the past week on a visit.

Mrs. James Mackey and children spent Christmas with the mother and father of Mrs. Mackey, near Snohomish, Wash.

A man can run a store without advertising, of course; he can also wink at a pretty girl in the dark, but what good does it do.

Mrs. Morrison and her daughter, Mrs. Newman, mother and sister of Mrs. Hoxsey and Mrs. Dalton, came over from Seattle to spend Christmas.

Sam Daly sent out invitations to a number of his young lady and gentlemen friends to meet him at the Daly home, Friday night, January 3.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave a chicken dinner at the church on New Year's day. It was well patronized and financially successful.

Norris Gray, who left here the latter part of the summer for Los Angeles, Cal., his former home, arrived here the first of the week, and may decide to again locate here.

Martin Lewis, the mining man, came down from Nigger creek the first of the week, and tells us that he will shortly leave for Carolina to spend the winter, but will return in the spring.

The Minstrel Maids gave an entertainment at the opera house last Sunday night, and drew a good crowd. The entertainment was of the vaudeville order, and was, altogether, very clever.

Miss Jessie Hansen, accompanied by her brother, Bernie, spent the holidays with the family of H. M. Wall, formerly of Leavenworth, but now residing at Anacortes. Miss Jessie is enrolled at the Wilson Business College, of Bellingham.

The store of G. W. Hathaway was feloniously entered on Monday night and some twenty dollars worth of cigars and chewing gum taken. Entrance was gained by breaking a pane of glass in the door and opening it from the inside.

W. B. Devine, recently from Oregon, has taken charge of the G. N. pumping plant that forces Wenatchee river water into the two large railroad tanks. Mr. Devine's family will soon join him.

Oliver Bates and George Dean came down from Wenatchee lake the first of the week and spent Monday and Tuesday in town. Mr. Bates tells us about three feet of snow has fallen at the lake.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Little came up from Wenatchee last Friday for a visit with the parents of Mrs. Little, Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Sampson. They returned to their home last Sunday evening.

Misses Edna Featherstone and Bessie Walker entertained a number of their young friends at the Featherstone home last Friday evening. Games of different kinds were enjoyed until 11 o'clock when lunch was served.

M. F. Peake and his son, Francis, with their families, went to Everett last week to spend the holidays, and returned the last of this week. Everett was the home of the Peake family, previous to coming to Leavenworth.

Misses Evangeline Peterson and Edna Featherstone, two Leavenworth girls who have been attending the Washington State College at Pullman, came home Christmas to spend the holidays with their parents. They will return Sunday, Jan. 5, to resume their studies.

Miss Meda Noble and her brother, Guy, came over from the Sound country to eat their Christmas dinner with the family of their brother, Lewis Noble. Miss Meda has a school on the west side, and Guy has a run out of Seattle.

J. G. Debord, who returned from Wenatchee last Tuesday, says Sheriff Webb told him that there were at that time eight cases of smallpox in the pest house and that nine or ten members of the Gullet family and several other families were quarantined.

W. F. McCormick, employed about the roundhouse, came very near being killed last Sunday. He was hit by an engine running backward, fortunately in such a way that his body fell outside the rails. After being brought to Dr. Hoxsey's hospital he was unconscious for over two hours.

Mr. C. D. Snideman, came here from Chicago last Friday to take charge of the Shaver News Co.'s railroad eating house. Mr. Lee, the former manager, having departed to take charge of a house for the same company at Minot, South Dakota. Mr. Snideman has been with the Shaver News Co. for the past five years and has had charge of some important stations. He is recognized as a competent and successful eating house manager.

M. E. Church Notes

Regular services at the Fraternal hall next Sunday. At the morning service the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered.

Ladies Aid meets next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jas. Edwards. A full attendance is requested so as to form plans of work for the coming year.

Kienitz-Hofstetter.

Frank Kienitz and Miss Julia Hofstetter were united in marriage last Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, by Rev. F. S. Taylor.

The bride has lived here for the past year and was employed at the Vienna Bakery. The groom has lived here the past two years, and is a member of the Home Orchestra. The Echo extends congratulations, and wishes the young couple a long and happy wedded life.

The Eagles' Annual Ball

A large crowd attended the annual holiday ball given by the Order of Eagles, on New Year's. The floor of the opera house was well filled with the devotees of the dance. Neither pains nor expense was spared by the committee having the affair in charge.

The order has a large membership and is constantly growing. Balls and other social diversions are gotten up occasionally to have a good time, and show their friends the social side of the fraternity. The Eagles never fail to show their guests a good time.

WENATCHEE LAKE NEWS

We have had a fine winter so far, with only about two feet of snow, which gives us good sleighing, and just enough to help the logging business.

Messrs. Logan, Bates, Dean and Duncan, went out on a business trip to Leavenworth last Sunday, and returned Wednesday.

There was a social hop at the lake Christmas eve., given to a select crowd. We understand they had a nice, quiet little time.

There is considerable logging going on in our neighborhood. Messrs. Logan, Bates, Sears and Geo. Swerly are taking advantage of the mild weather. Jack Smith has finished his contract for the Lamb-Davis company.

We understand Mr. D. W. Fowler will begin logging in a few days, also Mr. Jacques.

J. J. Henry has purchased a fine team, and will begin work on his claim on a big scale in the spring.

Everything promises a boom for the Lake Wenatchee region the coming season, and there will probably be considerable business for the new railroad as soon as it is completed.

Coble-Berger

From the subjoined paragraph, taken from the Wenatchee World of December 26, we take the notice of the marriage of two people who are quite well known here:

"A quiet wedding was solemnized, Tuesday afternoon at the Christian church parsonage, 317 Orondo avenue, the contracting parties being Miss Emma Dorothy Berger and Mr. Bert Coble. Rev. Adams officiated. The bride came here from Wilson Creek, and has been assisting in the Mechtel bakery for some time past. The groom is a resident of Wenatchee. The young couple will take up their permanent residence in the city."

Up to the past week both parties had made their home here, Mr. Coble for more than a year past and Miss Berger since last spring. Here she was known as a professional nurse.

That they have decided to reside in Wenatchee is a surprise to their friends here, who, however, wish them much joy and a long and pleasant journey through life.

For Assault With Deadly Weapon.

Calvin Clark was up before Judge Taylor the first of the week, on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon, preferred by Jas. Service. He was placed under a thousand-dollar bond for his appearance at the superior court. In default of bond he was sent to Wenatchee, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Debord.

From the evidence it appears that Clark and Ladue were going to one of the camps up the Canyon last Saturday, considerably under the influence of liquor, when they ran across Service and it appears threatened to shoot him. Ladue who was jointly charged with Clark was discharged, the evidence not being considered enough to hold him.

Fraternal Organization of Owls

A local order was instituted here last month with a membership of fifty, since which time nine members have been initiated. Weekly meetings are held in Odd Fellows hall on Wednesday nights. Following are the officers elected:

- Executive, Ole Sands.
- Vice-Executive, J. D. O'Brien.
- Treasurer, J. G. Fritz.
- Secretary, C. E. Hamilton.
- Vicar, P. S. Chipman.
- Sentinel, O. C. Hogan.
- Warder, J. R. Ruth.

Marie Defoe, whose parents formerly conducted the Bon Ton restaurant here but now reside at Skyhomish, visited this week with the family of Mrs. Sadosky. Thursday Marie visited the postoffice, and in leaving carelessly forgot to take her pocketbook from the counter, where she had laid it. Someone else carefully rectified Marie's oversight, and now that young lady is $11 "to the bad."

J. H. Sharp and wife entertained at New Year's dinner Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Graham and family and Prof. A. E. Wolf.

Jas. McPherson, a cousin of Mrs. J. H. Sharp, is expected to arrive from Mississippi today.
