

Lake Wenatchee Stage Line

Leaves Leavenworth every Monday and Friday at 8 a. m. Arrives at Pullman at 4 p. m. Leaves Pullman every Tuesday and Saturday at 8 a. m. Arrives at Leavenworth at 4 p. m. Mail, passengers and express. For further particulars address Joe Massie, Proprietor, Box 71, Leavenworth, Wash.

LEAVENWORTH LOCALS

Something new in Reynolds' real estate ad every week—read it. 50tf
Dr. Hoxsey was in Seattle a couple of days the first of the week.

Luther Rice attended the New Year celebration in Wenatchee Monday.

M. H. Cahill has almost completed his new seven room house up the Chumstick.

The Knights of Pythias held their usual meeting in the Bloom hall Tuesday evening.

Rev. J. E. Weigle, pastor of the M. E. church began his revival meetings in Peshastin Tuesday evening.

When shopping step in and see what we have on our five and ten cent table. Palace of Sweets. 51tf

Mary Sauer has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia for the past week but is much better at present.

Mrs. A. J. Martin and daughter, Miss Willa D., left Wednesday for Seattle, where they will visit for a week or two.

Mrs. F. P. Conley returned last Saturday from Southern California where she spent two months visiting relatives and friends.

F. T. Motteler made a business trip to Wenatchee, Quincy and Wilson Creek this week where he is shipping a good many cars of wood this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Heinrichs and daughter, of Everett, returned to their home Monday after visiting with relatives in the Chumstick valley for a week.

The Modern Woodmen are preparing to give a dance in the opera house on Saturday night, January 28, and are making arrangements to entertain a large crowd.

In the last issue of The Echo it was announced that J. G. Debord had been elected treasurer of the Zarthan lodge, this was an error as A. G. McCoy was the treasurer elected.

Misses Ida and Minnie Poeppmoeller gave an oyster supper last Saturday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Heinrichs. Quite a number of friends were present and enjoyed a social evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Leachman of Lewiston, Idaho, are spending the winter with Mr. Leachman's mother, Mrs. Frank Brady of this place. Mr. Leachman is a contractor and is very favorably impressed with Leavenworth.

Geo. L. Sinclair, formerly a resident of Leavenworth, writes from Plymouth, Maine that he has bought a fine farm in his native state and will not be in Washington soon, tho he adds, after asking that The Echo be sent to his address, that he fully intends to come back here some day.

Mask Ball is to be given Monday evening, Jan. 30. Liberal prizes will be awarded. 52*

Malon Northup, formerly a resident of the Chumstick valley, spent several days here this week looking after some land interests he still has here. He says his father, E. D. Northup, and brothers, Charles, Iron and John, all of whom reside in the vicinity of Kooskia, Idaho, where he also lives, are well pleased with their new home, and all are doing well. Max Spromberg, W. S. Newland and Lefe English, who will be remembered by all old-timers, also reside near Kooskia, and are prospering.

O. S. Sampson returned from Seattle Tuesday after spending ten days under the care of a doctor. He left here suffering from an old complaint which has occasionally given him trouble. He and his wife depart for Seattle Sunday afternoon on a two month's vacation, and will go from there to Southern California where they will make a brief stop, going from there to the southern states, visiting New Orleans and other southern cities and from there to his old home in Missouri, where they will remain for several weeks, returning by way of St. Paul about the first of March. Mr. Sampson is general manager of the Leavenworth Mercantile Company, one of our large trading establishments which has enjoyed a prosperous year, and after giving his undivided attention to the business for a year he is now going for a long vacation.

Are you going to the Masquerade Ball January 30? 52*

Miss Mildred Adams has returned to school in Spokane after spending the holidays with her parents.

Miss Anna Tholin is suffering from a severe cold which has caused her to keep to her room this week.

Mrs. N. Coleman and son Joe left for southern California last Sunday, and expect to spend the winter there.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hart who have been in Everett for the past two and a half months returned home yesterday.

A dance will be given by M. W. A. at the opera house, Jan. 28. 52*

The Methodist Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday at 2 p. m. with Miss Mary Ralston. All are cordially invited.

John Koerner left for the Sound last Saturday and will visit Seattle and Tacoma on business before he returns.

Deputy Forest Supervisor S. A. Blankenship left last Sunday for Cle Elum on business connected with department work.

If you are interested in land, read Reynolds' ad. Something new every week. 50tf

Jay Adams and Frank McNett, who spent the holidays with their parents, have returned to the University in Seattle.

F. E. Carlquist, owner of the handsomest jewelry store in central Washington, left for Spokane Wednesday afternoon.

A. Brown, manager of the Hub Clothing Store, went to Seattle and other western points ten days ago, and did not get back until yesterday.

S. P. Beecher, one of the hustling and prosperous fruit growers of the Peshastin valley, started yesterday on a business trip which will take him to New York before he returns.

A large crowd attended the dance given by the ladies of the Degree of Honor last Saturday night. The music furnished by McDaniel's orchestra was exceptionally good.

Al Meisner returned from Seattle Tuesday and reported Mrs. Meisner as getting along nicely. She was taken to the hospital the day after Christmas and underwent an operation.

The horses hitched to the Cascade orchards school sled ran away yesterday morning, tearing the top off of the sled at the south end of the viaduct and running up near the depot where they were finally stopped. Mr. Schneider, the driver, had just left the children at the school house and was returning with the sled to town when the accident happened.

Miss Claire J. Keesey entertained a number of her friends in her rooms Friday night. Games were played and refreshments served. Following were the guests present: Misses Ethel and Edna Maston, Minnie Sauer and Gilla Pendleton; Messrs. George, Henry and Leonard Sauer, Herman Franklin and Dooley P. Wheeler. (Kind of a Sauer kraut!).

Wednesday afternoon while the school children were skating on the river Robert Hood ventured too near the center of the river and went thru the ice. The water was rather deep in that place and it was impossible for him to get out without assistance. The other boys of the party formed a chain on the ice and succeeded in pulling him out, altho not before he had become chilled.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King will leave on No. 1 Sunday afternoon for Seattle whence, after attending to some business affairs, they will go to Victoria, B. C., and on the 27th of this month sail on the steamer Makura for Honolulu, to bask in the balmy clime of the far-famed Hiwaian Islands for a month, intending to be absent from Leavenworth for the next sixty days. Mr. King is manager of the City Drug Store. During his absence Mr. Crowder will have charge of the business, assisted by Leonard Sauer.

Opie Read Next Thursday Night

The third of the series of entertainments arranged under the direction of the public school will occur next Thursday night in the opera house, when Opie Read will give one of his inimitable lectures.

The two former entertainments given under the direction of the school board were among the best and highest forms of entertainment ever presented to the people of Leavenworth. This, the third, will be in no respect inferior.

MEN! OUR WINTER CLOTHES

WILL PLEASE YOUR EYE AND POCKETBOOK

DON'T SHIVER THIS WINTER, WHEN WE HAVE SO MANY WARM SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

DON'T BE "OUT-OF-DATE," WHEN WE HAVE SO MANY "UP-TO-DATE" NEW SUITS AND OVERCOATS.

DON'T THINK YOU CAN AFFORD TO WEAR YOUR OLD CLOTHES. BUY BRAND NEW, GOOD CLOTHES AND YOUR "GOOD FRONT" WILL MANY, MANY TIMES PAY YOU BACK MORE THAN IT COSTS.

LEAVENWORTH MERCANTILE COMPANY

THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY

COMMERCIAL CLUB MEETING

Regular Conclave Monday Night—Business Calling Full Attendance

On account of the nearness of the annual election of officers, which occurs the second Monday in February, it is highly important that a full turnout of the members be on hand next Monday night. The method of placing candidates for the different office before the club is by petition, which will be explained at the meeting Monday night.

It is further desired a full attendance of members be on hand Monday night for the reason that a plan of publicity for the coming summer will be discussed and, perhaps, some definite plan agreed upon.

Local School Notes

After a week of vacation teachers and pupils were in their respective places Monday morning ready for duty.

Miss McNeal's health has not improved sufficiently to enable her to resume her work. Miss Peterson has proved to be an efficient substitute but, owing to previous plans and other engagements, she will not continue the work. A permanent teacher will be at hand next week.

Classes in manual training have been organized, giving work to all the boys above the sixth grade.

A class in business forms and practical bookkeeping has been organized, consisting of the pupils of the tenth grade, Edna Featherstone, Ruth Simmons and Nellie Betz.

Since vacation the following pupils have been enrolled: Nettie Davis, Rose Goerger, Ora Irwin, Nancy Stephens, Tressa and Mildred Haskins formerly of Snohomish, and Hermie Haynes of Everett.

Next week final examinations will be given, closing the semester work. The second semester begins Monday, January 16. At that time a class for beginning pupils will be organized. All pupils desiring to attend school this semester should enroll at that time, as there will be no other primary class organized this year.

New Church Proposed

A number of persons who are interested in the establishment of a Christian church in Leavenworth met at the home of Mrs. G. W. Sampson Sunday afternoon to discuss the matter. Nothing definite was decided. There are about twenty-four of the Christian faith in and around Leavenworth.

As a beginning, the following officers were elected: A. L. Mitchell, chairman; Mrs. Anna Sampson, secretary; Ernest Hedrick, treasurer.

J. E. Wunder, formerly of this place and for several years foreman of the planing mill of the Lamb-Davis Lumber Co. returned last Sunday from Kalispel, Mont., where he has lived for the past fifteen months, and will again take his old position as foreman of the planing mills.

Advertised Letters

Remaining in postoffice, uncalled for Monday, January 2:

Anderson, A E Lauretson, Maurius Crawford, James (2) Meeker J D Jandell, M McDonald, W W Jensen, Carl A Newlon, H S Jensen, Kasten Onginli, P

In calling for same, please say "advertised." J. C. DAVIS, Postmaster.

Business Paragraphs.

Pocketbook Lost

December 29, small purse containing $10 and $5 bill and small change. Finder please leave at this office. 52

The winner of the handsome drawn-work raffled off by the Catholic ladies will be decided at the Leavenworth Mercantile Company's store Saturday night at 8 o'clock. 52

Mrs. W. Leslie desires to call the attention of the ladies of Leavenworth who desire to take a course in hair dressing, dyeing, bleaching; facial and body massage; making of all kinds of hair goods, that she is prepared to teach this profitable business. 52tf

Six White Wyandotte roosters wanted by F. L. Brender. 51-2

Hay, grain and chicken feed for sale by Bertram & Peterson. Warehouse on track. 48tf

Wenatchee steam laundry makes shipment every day. Leave bundles at the Palm Billiard Hall, or phone 56 and wagon will call. 41

Wenatchee steam laundry cleans and presses ladies' and gent's clothing. Hats cleaned and blocked. Leave orders at the Palm Billiard Hall. 41

They say all whisky is good whisky, only some is better than others—"Some" means "HARPER," the others are "also rans."—Call for HARPER at the Overland bar, J. B. Violette, proprietor. 49

Leave your laundry at the Palm Billiard Hall. 41

Try the Pioneer Barber Shop for first class work. Next door to opera house. Joe Peltier, Prop. 42tf

Phone 56, the Palm Billiard Hall, and wagon will call for your laundry. 41

APPLICATION FOR GRAZING PERMITS. Notice is hereby given that all applications for permits to graze cattle, horses and sheep within the Wenatchee National Forest during the season of 1911, must be filed in my office at Leavenworth, Washington, on or before February 1, 1911. Full information in regard to the grazing fees to be charged and blank forms to be used in making application for permits will be furnished upon request. A. H. Sylvester, Supervisor. 52-2t

BEGIN THE NEW YEAR ... RIGHT ...

The time for New Year's resolutions is near. A suggestion:—Start a and make an iron-bound resolution to keep adding to it each week or each month as the case may be. You will never regret it. A savings account is a true friend in adversity.

SAVINGS ACCOUNT

Come in and talk the matter over with us. You can open an account with $1.

DO IT NOW!

THE LEAVENWORTH STATE BANK

We appreciate your business

Opie Read

AT THE OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY

Jan. 12th

Third, Last and Best of the Course

Seats on sale at the Postoffice Drug Store
Given under the direction of the Public School

This is a rare opportunity to hear one of the best.

As an author and entertainer Mr. Read has few equals. Senator LaFollette heard him at Clarence, Mo., and made the following comment:

"I have heard nearly all the lectures, but in my opinion 'Old Lin Jacklin' is not only the most original but withal one of the very best lectures I have ever heard."

"Send for Murphy! He Knows"

Are you the man that is sent for when expert information is wanted? Such a man is always in demand at a big salary, because he knows! Because he's trained! Not thru practical experience alone, but by theoretical knowledge necessary to hold the higher positions in his trade or profession.

If you want any information in regard to any subject down below, mark X before it and mail to John W. Pickin, box 526, Everett, Wash., who represents the

International Correspondence Schools
Scranton, Pa.

Advertising Man	Sheet-Metal Drafting	Civil Engineering
Show-Card Writing	Electrical Engineering	Bridge Engineering
Window Trimming	Electric Lighting	Railway Construction
Bookkeeping	Electric Railway Work	Surveying
Stenography	Telephone Engineering	Mining Engineering
Commercial Law	Concrete Engineering	Metallurgy
Banking	Architecture	Chemistry
Illustrating	Constructing & Building	Textile Manufactures
Ornamental Designing	Structural Engineering	French
Sign Painting	Architectural Drafting	German
Mechanical Engineer	Heating & Ventilation	Spanish
Mechanical Drafting	Plumbing	U. S. Civil Service
Teaching		Automobile Running
Locomotive Engineering

Name _____
Street and No. _____
City _____
State _____

THE CANDY SHOP

A Popular Place for All Who Want
Fresh Candies
Smokers' Articles
Stationery, Dolls,
and many other novelties.

The Candy Shop
A. A. THOLIN

Watch My Ad FOR Weekly Specials

ALL NEXT WEEK
we will give each and every one of our customers
15 pounds of standard granulated sugar for $1.00
13 pounds is the regular price

A full line of staple groceries at
The East End Store

Keep your eye on this ad for
Next Week Specials
Joe Massie