Having stated in last week's Echo, on what we considered reliable second hand authority, merely as a matter of news, that Mr. Mike Fitz had been advised of the death of a brother who was serving in the German army, that gentleman stopped a representative of The Echo on the street saying he had not told us he had lost a brother, and wished the statement to be corrected this week. The retraction is made in his own language as near as we can recall it.

Mr. M. O. Van Brocklin tells us that he has made a sale of a milking machine to Mr. William Marshall, owner of a large herd of dairy cows on the head of the Chumstick, about ten miles from Leavenworth. This is the only milking machine in this part of the state, and owners of dairy herds are keenly interested in the success of the machine, which Mr. Van Brocklin says has long since been proven out on the big dairy farms of the east.

Owners of automobiles, when leaving their cars standing on the streets, should always leave them in such a condition that they can not easily be started. Leavenworth has had little trouble with joy riders who steal another man's car for the night, but towns lower down the valley have seen much of this sort of thing. Guy Long's Ford car disappeared down at Cashmere last Saturday night and the following morning it was found west of that place near "Rye Grass" Johnson's ranch with the gears stripped and otherwise badly damaged. The parties taking the machine probably intended coming to this city, but broke down before they got here.

The first strawberries of the season were on the market this week at 20 cents per box. They were shipt from Louisiana.

Dr. McKeown was called to the home of Mrs. Hallock the first of the week to see Mrs. Will Poepmuller, who is quite ill.

W. J. Gull left yesterday on a pleasure trip thru Adams and Whitman counties, his objective point being Garfield and Spokane, where he will visit relatives.

One of the new Dodge autos was on the street yesterday. J. B. Adams has secured the Leavenworth agency for this car, which can be seen at his garage on Ninth street.

Mr. Harry E. Carr came up from Wenatchee yesterday and said he had spent the past two weeks with Mrs. Carr, in Spokane, for which place he departed on the late afternoon train.

The fiftieth anniversary of the assassination of Abraham Lincoln was observed by government offices lowering the flag to half mast. The forestry office employes also took a half holiday.

In mentioning the resignation of Mr. J. M. Gangler as cashier of the Tumwater Savings Bank last week it was not stated that he retained his stock in the bank and would also continue as a director and give the bank the benefit of his business experience.

The Ladies of the Maccabees of the World will hold their regular review Tuesday, April 20, 2:45 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Bert Hegler. All members are urged to be present as the state deputy will be a guest. Other important business will come before the Hive.

The carload of dairy cows unloaded here last Friday was entirely closed out before the middle of this week. Among the purchasers, Mr. Charles G. Smyth, one of our most progressive ranchers and owner of one of the finest places in the Upper Wenatchee valley, took two, one a brown Swiss and the other a Jersey. We have not been told who the other purchasers were.

Jay Adams, son of J. B. Adams of this city won the handicap shoot for the Sportsman's Magazine trophy last Sunday, breaking 46 out of 50 targets. The second prize of a three years subscription to the Sportsman went to J. Thompson who broke 44 out of 50 targets. A. R. Pinch got 42 out of 50 and was awarded 3rd prize. In all 10 prizes were given out.

Mrs. E. G. Wheeler left Monday for Seattle, where her sister, Mrs. Roy Hewitt, had preceded her on Saturday. Together they will sail for Ketchikan, Alaska, on the 18th of the month. Ketchikan was formerly Mrs. Wheeler's home, where also she still has interests which claim her attention. The date of her return is not known, much to the discomfort of the proprietor of the City Drug Store.

Al Mattos who has been employed at the Lake Wenatchee Club House for several weeks cut his foot quite badly yesterday forenoon while chopping wood. Dr. Judah was called to the Lake to dress the wound and removed him to the Leavenworth hospital. The doctor says he found it necessary to remove part of the bone and to take nine stitches to close up the cut.

Contractor L. F. Speidel, who has been engaged for the past month in rebuilding the Bjork building which was destroyed by fire on the 30th of last December, says that he expects to complete the work tomorrow night. The job is a firstclass one in every respect and the building now has a much better appearance than before the fire. The upper floor which will be used for a hotel has not yet been fixed up, but there is talk of its being remodelled this summer and it is not unlikely that this work will begin in a short time.

An order for 81,600 automobile and motorcycle number plates was given last week by the secretary of state's office to a Los Angeles firm, the plates to be supplied by the state to motorists under the new motor code. The number plates will be dark blue with white lettering. The metal used weighs approximately forty tons.
