Peshastin

J. C. Biles and family returned the first of the week from the coast where they have been on a business and pleasure trip. Mr. Biles drove his seven passenger Buick across the pass and says the trip was well worth taking.

A deer came down off the hills Saturday night and grazed around town for several minutes. Not being able to cross the valley without being disturbed it went back thru the Young Bros. place, and on over into Derby canyon.

Tom Luttrell is looking for the thief who relieved him of fifteen nice rabbits and several young chickens which were almost good fries, that disappeared while Tom and his family were spending a few days at Wenatchee Lake. The party or parties who are guilty of the act were very careful and only took the best. Tom says he has a clue and may make some one realize what such an offence really means.

Yes, nearly everybody in the valley was able to see the Liberty bell which passed thru the valley July 13. A number viewed it as the special train went thru our village at a slow rate while others went to Leavenworth and enjoyed the time which was almost two hours at that place.

The Great Northern has a force of carpenters reshingling the depot this week.

H. V. Love is driving a new auto these days which he recently purchased.

M. W. Stark and wife are in Seattle this week. Mr. Stark is attending the Shriners convention.

The Ladies Aid society held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Williams. A good attendance was present.

Mrs. Chas. Maxon visited with friends in Wenatchee the first of the week.

Fox Chambers was down from his homestead which is located at the head of Derby canyon, last Tuesday. Mr. Chambers has made many improvements on his 150 acres and says he will have his papers from the government in a short time whereby he will become owner of a fine ranch.

Chas. Wright and family who have been spending a week in camp at Wenatchee Lake returned home Monday.

Cashmere

The Randolph Fruit Co. expects to operate here this summer. W. E. Shotwell will be the local representative.

F. W. A. Paton and Archie Symons who motored over to the Coast over the Snoqualmie pass report the roads in fine condition.

Clifford Knowles has accepted a position with a grocery firm at Monroe and will move there at once.

The W. C. T. U. will hold an institute at Eptiat on July 23rd.

Cashmere Grange No. 380 has passed an ordinance requesting the city council to repeal the ordinance requiring jitneys to pay a license.

The F. T. Spiller home a mile west of Cashmere, was burned last Sunday evening. The family was at a neighbors and nearly everything was burned. Loss, $5000, partly insured.

Samuel Murray was taken to the Wenatchee hospital on Thursday by Dr. A. R. McKeown of Leavenworth where he was operated on for appendicitis.

Miss Gladys Guest returned to her home in Leavenworth after a short visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown.

The validity of a new ordinance passed at Cashmere requiring jitneys to pay a license of $75 is being questioned. It is thought that it conflicts with the state laws. The jitney men say that they will pay a license if they have to. In the mean time they will stand part of the cost in getting a Supreme court decision.

There came near being a riot in Cashmere on Saturday night a week ago when the town marshal attempted to arrest a young man who was exploding too many firecrackers on the street. Plenty of bondsmen appeared for the Cashmerite who was to be placed in a "Durance Vile" and on second thought the marshal decided it would be better to release his man. Mayor Johnson appeared on the scene about the time a free for all was threatened and decided that it was perfectly proper to shoot crackers on the street, it being a Fourth of July celebration and the matter was dropped. The offender threatened with arrest was Herman Mikkelsen.

Wenatchee

The Wenatchee commercial club has been asked to cooperate with the Seattle chamber of commerce, if it so desires, in appealing to the state department at Washington that it use all its efforts to have the present prohibitive tariff of Brazil and other South American countries on apples and canned salmon reduced. The existing tariff practically prohibits the exportation of apples to South American countries. The present time is especially propitious, as Brazil is now creating a commission with a view toward a general reduction.—Wenatchee World.

Further proof that the orchardist is diversifying to a greater extent this year than previously is shown by the following. An Entiat rancher this week offered two tons of Ohio potatoes to local dealers, but could not find buyers. The market had been supplied by local growers.

E. Niccum, former proprietor of the Olympia hotel in Wenatchee, who has been in the courts for a year or more for selling liquor in a dry unit, got the stiffest fine last Saturday that he has yet received, $100 and costs and 30 days in jail.

Mr. C. J. Christopher, an attorney of Springfield, Ill., has located in this city and will be associated with Fred Reeves in the practice of law. Their offices will be in the Commercial Bank building.

Mike Horan has 25 acres of pears which will produce their first crop this year. The trees are eight years old and heavily loaded. He looks for 10,000 boxes of pears.

George Dyer manager of the Seattle Fruit and Vegetable Exchange estimates the Washington fruit crop of 1915 at 65 per cent of normal.

Fruit growers of the lower Wenatchee valley are apprehensive that there will be water shortage for irrigation purposes.

Early in the season apple growers indicated a mind to be well satisfied with one dollar per box. Now on account of the shortage in the eastern states, which constantly grows as later reports come in, and reduced estimates on the northwestern crop, they are talking of $2.00 per box at the orchards.

E. Wagner and son, fruit dealers of Chicago, want 400 cars of Wenatchee apples—230,000 boxes—and offer $1 per box, orchard run, loaded on the cars.

Miss Fay Walker is in Leavenworth visiting her parents and sisters.

Vinton Gregory, Mack Emill, Reuel and Paul Harvey left Tuesday for the Icicle for a few days of camping and fishing.

The Elman hotel has changed hands. W. E. Tomlinson is the new proprietor. He is said to be a firstclass hotel man.

The local G. A. R. fife and drum corps assisted by Elias Abrams, director of public safety of Philadelphia, playing the snare drum, played the entire time the liberty-bell train was here. Mr. Abrams appeared to enjoy the experience. When the train pulled out the corps was still playing on the car and escorted the bell to Leavenworth.

Mr. Adams, head of the peach growers league called a meeting of the peach growers in Wenatchee last Friday to discuss the best methods of acting together. Very few peaches have as yet been signed up. He said the peach growers should sign up their crop so that he might know how many there are to be handled and know how many orders to try to book ahead of time and not have all the peaches on hand at once with no orders.

Mrs. Nicholas will leave for Seattle soon on a trip combining both business and pleasure.

Mr. Byron says the orchards will turn out a pretty fair yield of apples this year. At least the yield will be larger than in any previous year.

Dryden

Our box car station was loaded onto a fat car and conveyed from us. So far we have nothing in its place, but we hope to have some day.

Mr. Des Voignes, a Baptist ministerial student preaching at Peshastin, spoke Sunday evening at North Dryden.

A car of box lumber is being distributed to Dryden growers.

A surprise party was given Wednesday evening of last week by Mrs. Blank in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Amos, who are here from Brewster a few days visiting parents and friends.

Mrs. Percy Burrow is quite sick at the present writing.

Mr. H. Burrow, who has been visiting his brother, Percy, for some weeks, left Tuesday for Vancouver. He has not decided whether to remain in America or go home to the British Isles.

Mr. James' sisters, who have been visiting him for a few days, left Tuesday for Seattle. From there they go to the big fair at San Francisco, and then home to Nebraska by way of New Mexico.

Mr. Claude Kennedy and bride, from Minneapolis, on their wedding trip visited Mrs. Fred Sherman, sister of the groom, at Peshastin, and his parents at Wenatchee. They will include Seattle, Portland and San Francisco in the tour.

A. J. Amos made a business trip to Wenatchee Monday.

About one hundred people gathered at the Dryden station Tuesday evening to see the Liberty Bell, but as it was about nine o'clock when the train went thru the view was rather indistinct.

SEEKS LONG LOST SISTER.

Fortune of $30,000 Awaits Woman Missing Since Civil War.

Perry, Ia.—John Davenport, a laborer employed in construction work, is seeking the address of his sister, from whom he was separated when they were children. Finding her means a fortune of $30,000 to each of them, as well as to two other sisters.

The Davenport children became separated during the civil war, and one daughter, Lydia Davenport, was adopted by a man named Cooley when she was six months old.

The Cooley family lived in Green county, near Herndon, and the girl grew to womanhood there. A number of years ago she married and went to Kansas to live. The death of an uncle in Indiana left a fortune to his brother's children, but the estate cannot be settled until Lydia Davenport is found.

Repays Uncle Sam For a Meal.
Washington.—Secretary of War Garrison received from a man in Chicago a letter inclosing 20 cents in postage stamps, with the statement, "For bacon and eggs." Secretary Garrison decided that this was a contribution to the "conscience fund" and sent the stamps to Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. It is believed the man must have helped himself to Uncle Sam's larder somewhere when he was hungry

STOPPED BLOOD WITH THUMB

Woman Saved Life of Man Attacked by Murderous Robbers.

St. Louis.—Mrs. Frank Roose of East St. Louis saved the life of Oscar Bilger, forty-five, by stanching his wounds with her hands until medical aid arrived, when he was attacked by three negroes on the outskirts of Cahokia, Ill., and his throat cut. The negroes later were arrested.

Bilger was driving his horse and wagon from East St. Louis to Cahokia, selling brooms and mops to farmers along the way. Near the town three negroes accosted him and offered to buy his horse. Bilger climbed from the wagon, when two of the negroes seized him by the arms and the other ran a knife across Bilger's throat and then stabbed Bilger in the neck. After robbing him of $24 the negroes escaped.

Mrs. Roose witnessed the attack on Bilger and, running to the injured man, she thrust her thumb into the stab wound, thus stopping the flow of blood. Holding the edges of the other wound together, she assisted Bilger to a nearby house.

NEARLY LOST FORTUNE.

Farm Hand Changed His Name and Was Found With Difficulty.

St. Louis, Mo.—Using the name of Albert Brown nearly cost Albert Bourne, a transient farm hand, a fortune of $7,000,000 left him by an uncle who died several months ago in Melbourne, Australia.

After a search through seven states Bourne was located on a farm near Lincoln, Neb. It was discovered he had been at a hospital in St. Joseph, Mo., paying a dollar a week for board. His inheritance consists of 339,000 acres of free land, 25,000 sheep, 400 horses, hundreds of cattle and $50,000. Bourne is Irish and fifty years old.

Southeastern Alaska is suffering from a hot wave. At this time of year the sun shines 20 hours out of every 24. The government thermometer registers 90 in the shade and in the business part of Juneau it has registered 100.

A Record at School.
Nutley, N. J.—Elsie Norma Ryan, one of this year's graduates from the high school, has not been absent or tardy during the whole of her fourteen years in school.

Some Forms of Rheumatism Curable

Rheumatism is a disease characterized by pains in the joints and in the muscles. The most common forms are Acute and Chronic Rheumatism, Rheumatic Headaches, Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago. All of these types can be helped absolutely by applying some good liniment that penetrates. An application of Sloan's liniment two or three times a day to the affected part will give instant relief. Sloan's liniment is good for pain, and especially Rheumatic pain, because it penetrates to the seat of the trouble, soothes the afflicted part and draws the pain. "Sloan's Liniment is all medicine." Get a 25c bottle now. Keep it handy in case of emergency.

BUTTER WRAPPERS AT THE ECHO OFFICE.

If you will bring us your prescriptions we'll fill them right

To fill a prescription right a drug store must first have the right kind of preparations. Ours are pure and TESTED. Then knowledge and care must be used. Strychnine and Quinine LOOK alike, but don't ACT alike. Our registered pharmacists KNOW HOW to fill prescriptions and we VERIFY everyone before we send it out.

This is why we DESERVE your drug business.
