

City News

Mr. E. V. Nelson left Wednesday for Seattle after spending several days here with his wife.

Jimmy Miller and wife left yesterday for Seattle where they expect in the future to make their home.

Mrs. O. S. Sampson accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Sterling left Thursday for Seattle and expect to return next week.

Mrs. Al Moon, of Wenatchee, made a brief visit here this week to her sisters, Mrs. E. J. and Mrs. Randolph Heinrichs.

Road Supervisor Parish has a force of men busy this week building a new bridge over the Chewawa on the Lake Wenatchee road.

More than 50 butchers at the packing house of Troy Company in Seattle went on strike this week. They demand 8 hours.

Mrs. E. G. Wheeler returned home Wednesday morning from Ketchikan Alaska where she has spent the past month with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Alice Stady and two sons who have been here the past two months visiting her sister Mrs. E. V. Nelson departed this week for their home in Stady, N. Dakota.

Among the Leavenworth registrants who went to Wenatchee Monday morning to go before the exemption board were John McKinnon, Thos. C. McKinze, Joe Smith, and Glen Marble.

Mrs. Geo. Atkinson and daughter Della left Sunday for their home in Cottage Grove, Oregon after a weeks visit here with the family of her son Jim Atkinson.

Mrs. E. J. Heinrichs left Wednesday morning for Cheney, Wash., where she expects to make her future home. She recently traded her Chumstick place for a farm near Cheney.

Dr. Hoxsey was in Seattle last week and while there underwent the examination for the army medical corp. The doctor is sending one son into into service and is eager to do his bit for Uncle Sam.

In spite of its grades the Blewett pass road is proving immensely popular with motorists. Dozens of cars pass over the road every day and considering the amount of travel there are but few accidents. The road is constantly being improved.

Lester Hood is at Fort Wright where he joined the U. S. artillery two months ago, the only 19 years old. His older brother, Claude Hood, in company with Bob Hull left yesterday on No. 1. Both expect to join the Forestry regiment.

Cashmere's north bridge was found on fire last Thursday afternoon about 1 o'clock. It was first discovered by a boy who reported it to neighbors and the blaze was extinguished without much damage. The day guard had been dismissed just the day before.

Mr. J. T. McDonald, superintendent of the logging end of the Peshastin Lumber Co. at Blewett was here Wednesday and said things were in a normal condition once more up at his camp, and the Peshastin Lumber Co. was making fruit boxes to its full capacity.

Over $1,100 has been raised by contributions from the different towns thruout the county which will be used as a mess fund for Troop C or the company organized in Wenatchee. Contributions were asked on the basis of $10 for each man. Leavenworth has three men in the troop and sent $31.50.

Frank Davis for many years a resident of Leavenworth but for the past four years engaged in supplying logs to the Peshastin Lumber Co. was here Wednesday and said he had again cast his lot in Leavenworth and would make his home here. Mrs. Davis has been in eastern Wash. the past month but is expected to join her husband here soon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stowell of Cashmere, returning from a trip to the Rainier National Park had an auto accident on Blewett Pass last Friday. The foot and emergency brakes failed to work, and to prevent the car from going over the bank Mr. Stowell was forced to turn into the bank, which caused the car to tip over. Mrs. Stowell's shoulder blade was broken and her arm badly cut and bruised. Mr. Stowell sustained two broken ribs.

Mrs. Will Brender returned from Seattle Wednesday afternoon after spending two weeks on the coast with friends

Mrs. W. B. Patton, of Cashmere, spent several days here this week with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Paine.

Engineer Mike McNulty stopped off here with his family Wednesday on his way to Hillyard where he has made his home for several years. He lived here for a number of years and still numbers his Leavenworth friends by the score.

Mr. S. D. Knowles returned from Iowa, where he has been for the past year, and Sunday went to Winton to see his daughter, Mrs. W. W. Rice. He expects to remain here for the balance of the summer. He says Iowa is very prosperous as a result of the high price of corn and wheat.

The Order, Knights Columbus, a fraternal Catholic order proposes to raise a fund of three million dollars to be used in relieving war sufferers. The announcement is made that the fund will be used to relieve suffering in the widest sense. No discrimination will be made between Catholics and non-Catholics.

A. W. Drum and Geo. Likfelt, two old time residents of the White river valley above Wenatchee lake were here on a trading expedition this week. Mr. Drum said the heaviest crop of potatoes, vegetables and hay would be raised in his country ever known. Potatoes indicated a heavy yield.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Barclay and daughter Edna started out this morning on a motoring trip that will take them as far south as Corvallis, Oregon. They will make the trip over the famous Columbia river highway and stop at various points of interest. They expect to be absent a week or ten days.

Plans are being made for a picnic up in the mountains beyond Leavenworth next Sunday of the owners of all Overland cars in the valley says the Wenatchee World. This will be something out of the ordinary in the picnic line and it promises to be a complete success. Details are yet to be arranged.

Mr. A. C. McCoy arrived here yesterday from Sand Point, Idaho, Mr. McCoy says it is somewhat dry in Idaho and crops will as a consequence be cut short. All together, tho, he says, he likes the country very well. He made the trip from Sand Point in his auto and says he found the roads very good.

G. B. Kinney, formerly a citizen of Peshastin and for four years county commissioner, visited here last week with two of his children. For the past three years he has made his home in Seattle where he is engaged in the retail mercantile trade. He took the train for home here last Saturday.

In talking with a reporter for this paper Nate Coleman said the first of this week that the saw mill of the Leavenworth Box Co. ran on full time last week and anticipated no more labor troubles. There is an ample supply of logs. He also said the company would rebuild the box mill and plainer destroyed by fire on the 20th of July.

F. E. Bailey who has been employed at the Skinner & Eddy shipbuilding yards in Seattle for the past six months was here several days this week transacting business. He says Seattle is a busy place these days especially along the waterfront. Between four and five thousand men are employed at the S. & E. yards and he frequently sees Leavenworth faces.

Mr. O. S. Sampson, will leave Sunday for Seattle by way of Snoqualmie pass. He will be accompanied by Mr. Ira Baird who has had charge of the shoe department in the Leavenworth Mercantile Co. store the past ten months. Sunday they expect to meet Mrs. Sampson and Mrs. Sterling at Lake Ketchelus, a famous stopping place on the Snoqualmie Pass route, and take dinner there. Mr. A. A. Pinch will drive Mr. Sampson's car.

Several weeks ago the Echo printed an article to the effect that Gus Nelson who has been on the sick list the past year would be taken to the county hospital for treatment. It seems that the Echo was misinformed. The friends of Mr. Nelson resented the article and say that there was never any thought of his being sent to the county hospital as he has plenty of funds. Dr. Hoxsey the attending physician says he is recovering.

Mrs. G. W. Sampson is expected back from Missouri the last of this week.

Mrs. C. Warren Reed is here this week from Wenatchee visiting her mother, Mrs. H. X. Featherstone.

Herman C. Slater, recently employed in the Great Northern mill has joined the forestry regiment.

Today and tomorrow will be warmer according to the meteorological report of the government.

Mrs. Cohoon and daughter Roberta left yesterday afternoon for Seattle expecting to spend a week on the Coast with friends.

Henry Poepmuller left yesterday for Fort Lawton. Henry enlisted about a week ago and has been assigned to the baking department.

Mrs. Geo. Brown from Lake Wenatchee, came to Leavenworth Wednesday by way of Winton and the G. N. and returned today.

The forestry department is advised that a forest fire has broken out in the Lake Keechelus district and consumed some forty odd acres of valuable timber before it was brought under control.

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Burgett went to Wenatchee Wednesday where they attended the wedding of Miss Jessie E. DeLong and Mr. Wm. T. Terry. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Burgett and has many friends in this city.

A horseback party consisting of the Misses Annie Martin, Dorothy Houck, Gladys West and Hazel West made a trip up to the Mountain Home Tuesday. The day was much enjoyed by all, the party arriving home at dusk.

Mrs. E. M. Kratzer and daughter Grace, who spent the past two months with Mrs. A. T. Eickmeyer left yesterday for Wenatchee where they will make a brief visit and then go to their home, Spokane.

One of the latest photo productions "The Eternal City" with Pauline Fredrick in the leading role, will be the offering at the Scenic Theatre next Tuesday night, August 14th. The play pictures modern Rome and is very interesting.

A motoring party composing Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Roach and Miss Rose Shackler left Tuesday over the Snoqualmie Pass bound for Portland. They will visit at several seaside resorts and will probably be absent two or three weeks.

That the apple crop in the Wenatchee valley this year will bring prices averaging, orehard run, 20 per cent more than last year is the judgment of a Wenatchee shipper who has given the situation careful study. Figuring an 8,000 car crop, with 10 per cent allowed for extra cost of growing and packing, this means a profit increase of nearly half a million dollars for the district, easily the biggest year since 1913 for the local fruit industry.

Mr. S. H. Prouty, superintendent of the State Fish Hatchery left Wednesday for the west side of the mountains where he was called by the fish department of the state to assist in taking care of the fish interests. The fish department like every other activity is feeling the effect of the shortage of help and because just now there is nothing pressing here and a good man can be spared he will be engaged somewhere on the west side of the state for the next few weeks.

Mr. Fred Beyers, with his wife and son, are here on a visit to Mrs. Beyers' brother and his family, and her father, Mr. Hart Senior and his son Len H. Hart. By occupation Mr. Beyers is a lumber mill Sawyer but just now the lumber business is quiet on the coast, due to the activity of the I. W. W. Mr. Byers is also a mill right and fifteen years ago was here and helped install the machinery in the Lamb-Davis Lumber Co., now the Great Northern Lumber Co.

N. B. Sutton is back from a trip to Montana. He says that as a rule the state is flourishing, although most of the dry farms have been badly hit by the drought. All the mines are again working after the strike. Mr. Sutton was in Butte at the time of the hanging of Little. He says, I do not know if your readers understand what the figures 3-7-77 mean. The meaning is a grave 3 feet wide, 7 feet long and 77 inches deep. If they come too fast they can be put two in a grave."—Wenatchee World

To The Citizens of Leavenworth

WE announce the opening of our new Sanitary Market in the Commercial Block, next Saturday Aug. 11th.

It will be our policy to keep the best quality of Fresh and cured meats obtainable. We have installed modern equipment to handle our meats in the most sanitary manner.

We are going to make all sales Strictly Cash. We have made this decision after considerable study and are positive in so doing, we can give you more value and better service for your money. It is a well known fact that in doing a credit business, the customer paying Cash has to also pay for the meat bought by the Dead-Beat which is absolutely unfair.

Telephone orders shall be given our prompt and careful attention.

We invite every person to visit our new Sanitary Market and know you will favor us with your patronage. We have secured the services of Mr. Anderson, who comes from the Pacific Meat Company of Seattle, to be Manager of our New Market. Mr. Anderson is a butcher of long experience and will be on hand at all times to give courteous treatment to our customers.

Yours Very Truly

WENATCHEE MEAT COMPANY

Our Motto—"Every Patron a Satisfied Customer" Remember Every Sale Strictly Cash

ONLY A SHORT TIME Until School Starts Are You Prepared?

This store is well equipped to supply the youngster from head to foot.

The Boys Clothing Department is filled with a good assortment of patterns and fabrics in prices ranging

From $2 to $10

It will pay you to come in and see our line.

SHOES! SHOES!

We are in better shape than ever to supply the whole family in shoes, Our Shoes are all leather. When you buy from us you buy only the best grades.

We have lots of bargains in white shoes and Women and Children's oxfords.

THE LEAVENWORTH MERCANTILE CO.

The Store That Saves You Money

Mrs. Jos. Durracha gave a lawn party last Thursday evening, the occasion being her husband's birthday. Numerous games and dancing was indulged in to a late hour when a delightful lunch was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dawson, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. R. U. Briggs, Mrs. Wm. Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. B. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Leo. Ahearn, Mrs. James Doty, Mrs. R. Cannon, Mrs. C. Higginbotham, Miss Evelyn Franklin, Miss Kathryn Harding, Mr. Gus Harding, Mr. Wm. Harding, Mr. Geo. Dryer.

STATE INDUSTRIAL NEWS

White Salmon—$6000 concrete building being erected here.

Vancouver cannery has been employing 450 hands. As many more work in orchards.

South Bend—County will build three concrete bridges for national highway.

Kelso—O. W. R. & N. railroad bridge crews are rebuilding double-track bridges.

Tacoma—Marine engineers get raise $5.00 a month effective Aug. 1st.

Vancouver—Lifeboat manufacturing plant here doubles capacity.

Universal eight-hour day will decrease national production and raise cost of living. Labor politicians say the country needs it in the face of the European war.

Yakima reservation will put 10,000 additional acres under plow in 1918.

Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Utah have combined to curb I. W. W. activities, protect industries and harvest hands from violence.

Oakesdale cheese factory has begun to operate on 7000 lbs. milk daily.

Norton—Sawmill here cutting 100 pieces timber 52 by 32 inches, 120 feet long.

Spokane—Concrete placing begun on Post Division street bridges.

Raymond—Fireproof laundry to be built here.

Port Angeles—Second street to be paved with bitulithic.

North Yakima's new cannery paid labor $75,000 and growers $48,000 for cherry pack.

Bellingham canneries handled as high as 310,000 sockeye salmon per day.

Waterville—Wheat harvest wages $3.50 to $6.00 per day.

Two Sided Search. "I can't give the duke any real money," said the prospective pa-in-law. "There must be a dowry." "Well, I kin put some purty fair property in his name." "Do you object if we search the title?" "Oh, no, I expect to do the same by the duke's."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Read The Echo if you want the news