

The Canning Season Is Still On

and we are headquarters for everything in the canning line. Because our trade requires it, we handle a line of table delicacies that you can not get any where else.

Come in and let us show you.

We have a line to tempt the palate of an epicure. Just the thing for hot weather, when the appetite often requires tickling.

RUTHERFORD GROCERY CO.

Where a Dollar Buys a Dollars Worth Every Day in the Week

Just Arrived

100 Lb. Tub of Armour Veribest Peanut Butter
It's delicious and much cheaper in bulk.
Just right for the school lunch.

The food administrator is urging the use of more fresh salt fish.
We have a nice line to choose from.

- Fresh Halibut
- Salmon
- Black Cod
- Silver Smelt
- Kippered Salmon
- Salt Salmon
- Herring
- Mackerel
- Codfish in
- Two pound bricks

Leavenworth Market

HARRY WARNER, Manager

Mr. Robert B. Field went to Seattle, where his family has been for the past six weeks and spent the week there.

A recent letter from Gus Harding to his father discloses that he is somewhere in England doing military police duty. Well, Gus is big enough and strong enough to take a good sized man in each hand and march them to the guard house without help.

Mr. A. A. Pinch was a Seattle bound traveler last Tuesday. His trip combines both pleasure and business.

Mrs. Wilbur Little and daughter, Charlotte came down from Lake Wenatchee, Wednesday, where they had been camping out the past week. They took the afternoon train for their home in Wenatchee.

CITY NEWS

Mrs. D. C. Town was visiting with friends in Wenatchee Saturday.

Fruit and work baskets at the Racket store. aug. 30*

Mrs. E. E. Andrews and father, Mr. Geo. Briskey, spent Saturday in Wenatchee on business.

Miss Crystal Clinton left Saturday for Tye, where she intends to spend a week with her friend, Mrs. A. E. Mitchell.

Mrs. W. J. Norton and three children left Saturday for Everett, where they intend to make their future home.

Miss Harold left Friday for her home in Seattle after several days visit with her sister, Mrs. John Brink.

Miss Alma Scott, who spent several days with her friend, Miss Ethel Ahearn, left Sunday for her home in Seattle.

Mrs. John McKinnon and daughter Dorothy left Friday for the coast, where they intend to spend the next two weeks.

Miss Jessie Hathaway, who had spent the past five months in Cashmere, returned to her home in Leavenworth Saturday.

The Ladies' and Children's fall and winter coats on display Saturday at J. C. Penny Co. store. They will be able to save you from $5.00 to $10.00 on a garment. aug. 30*

Mrs. J. H. Voelker, a nurse from Spokane, arrived Saturday and will be with Dr. Judah at the Leavenworth Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Markham left for their home in Everett last Saturday after several days spent with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Ring.

After a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wright at their ranch home near Peshastin, Miss Beatrice Wright left Friday for her home in Seattle.

Mrs. W. E. Jones and two children, who have spent the past month in Spokane, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Jones, returned home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jelly, who spent the past week with their friends, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Westcott, left Friday for their home in Everett.

Mrs. W. A. Crittenden and daughter, who spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Lindsay, left Friday for her home in Seattle.

Miss A. M. McDonald, who spent the past two weeks with her friend, Miss Laura Harding, of Blewett, left for her home in Everett Saturday.

Mrs. B. R. Hines and son Harold left for Seattle Saturday. Mrs. Hines has been nursing at the Leavenworth Hospital the past eight months.

Mrs. Frances Wood, who has made Leavenworth her home the past year, left Friday for Seattle and Spokane for a week, then she will go to Nevada, where she will be married the 15th of September to Mr. Jack Gulling.

Mrs. J. W. McMillian and three daughters arrived from Hillyard on Tuesday and will spend several days with friends.

Mrs. E. V. McNamara arrived Tuesday from Seattle, to accept a position as bookkeeper at the Great Northern Lumber Co. office.

Mrs. Martin returned on Tuesday from Chiwaukum where she spent several days with her daughter, Annie who is staff operator at that place.

Mrs. C. R. Fay and baby returned home Tuesday from Seattle, where they spent the past week.

The J. C. Penny Co. has a dandy line of young men's and boys' school suits. We would advise you to take a look at them. aug. 30*

Miss Irma Lamb returned Tuesday from Wenatchee, where she spent several days on business.

Miss Inez Cook left Tuesday for her home in Wenatchee after three months spent in Leavenworth with her friend, Mrs. J. B. Bowers.

Miss Pearl Sears left Tuesday for Cashmere where she intends to spend two weeks with her father, W. P. Sears.

Mrs. H. F. Sharkey and three children, arrived the first of the week from Woodland, Wash. Mr. Sharkey has been employed by the G. N. Lumber Co. since June 1 as foreman of one of the camps. They will occupy the Fredrickson home.

Mrs. O. D. Reeves and daughter, Ester, of Peshastin, spent Sunday in Leavenworth.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Gowing left Tuesday for Tye where they expect to camp out for a week.

Mrs. R. T. Neptune left Wednesday for Wenatchee on a business trip.

Mrs. Mina McClure moved Monday into the Kringle property on Commercial street.

Mrs. Clyde Snyder left Monday for her home at Scenic, Wash., after several days spent with friends.

Mrs. W. F. Blankenship arrived from Lake Wenatchee, Saturday, and will spend the week with her daughter, Mrs. Cliff Reardon.

A new line of transparent oven ware on display at the Racket store. aug. 30*

Miss Minnie Rust and Margaret Albright spent Saturday in Wenatchee with friends.

Mrs. W. M. Stoddard and Mrs. W. J. Ferris arrived Monday from Everett and will spend several days in Leavenworth on business.

Mrs. Etta Vessey and Mrs. F. A. Losekamp motored to Wenatchee Monday, and spent the day.

A. H. Sylvester, forestry supervisor, was in Wenatchee Monday on business.

Mrs. J. R. Ahearn arrived home Sunday from Seattle where she spent a week visiting friends.

Mrs. Etta Murcar and Miss Florence Pinch were Wenatchee visitors Tuesday.

Miss Dorothy and Charlott Smith arrived Tuesday from Wenatchee and will spend a week with their friend Miss Mable Lowd.

Mr. Ben Boniface left Tuesday for the coast where he will spend several days.

Mrs. Cleo Ahearn and baby left Tuesday for Delta, Wash., where Mr. Ahearn has a position in the rail road shop. They will make Delta their future home.

Mr. F. T. Boles, president of the Great Northern Lumber Co., arrived here last week from Chicago, by way of the west coast, and was joined last Saturday by Mr. Walter A. Graff, vice president of the company. It is their purpose to spend a week or ten days here looking after their lumber interests. They were last here early in the spring, about the time the mill started operations.

The knitting mills are delivering to the U. S. government more than 25,000,000 pieces of underwear, this is 3,000,000 pieces more than all the mills in the United States ever made in any previous year. This means someone must do without new underclothing. The J. C. Penny Co. will be able to take care of their customers until Oct. 1st at a small advance over last fall's prices. aug. 30*

Mr. E. E. Batchelder, an old resident of the Wenatchee lake country, was here last Saturday. He says he is now getting out shingle bolts for the shingle mill at the foot of the lake and manages to keep busy without trying.

Harry Krollpfeiffer returned last Thursday afternoon from the Sound where he went on the 15th of the month to spend a two weeks vacation and fish in the waters of the Sound. He said he did not like the everlasting rain and trolling for fish did not appeal to him, so he came back and decided to spend a week on the Chewawavum river and cast flies for trout on a stream where the fish are acquainted with him, and will come out on the bank to meet him when he gets there.

Mrs. J. S. Judah returned from Seattle last Saturday and with her returned Master Stillson, Jr., who has been on the Sound with the doctor's mother for the past two months.

Miss Florence Day who left this week for Seattle to take a place in the Seattle public schools, has for the past two months reported the news from Peshastin for the Echo. Her descriptive story of the new fruit warehouse at Peshastin will be recalled by our readers in the apple district. Miss Florence is a bright, unaffected young lady, with a predilection for newspaper work, in which line she could easily succeed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Adair, from Olympia, here on a visit to old friends Mr. H. A. Howard and his sister, had quite an exciting experience on Blewett pass last Saturday. Coming up from the Cle Elum side, their car turned over, as cars have a way of doing, but fortunately the occupants escaped injury. Geo. Watson happened along on his way home from Cle Elum and brought Mr. and Mrs. Adair and their little son to Leavenworth. The car was sent back to Cle Elum for repairs.

A. W. Drum was here the first of the week on his way to the White river valley. He has been employed in the lumber camps in the Chumstick valley since last spring.

Mr. Dwight Darling of Everett spent several days here this week the guest of his brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Nelson.

Timothy Cuyler, Seattle, brother-in-law of Jno. F. Mull arrived here this week and means to spend the next few months here working in the orchards.

Advance Showing of Fall Coats and Skirts

WE NOW HAVE in one of the most complete lines of the latest in Ladies' and Misses' coats, comprising about 100 coats, all the new styles and cloths, including plushes, velour and Broadcloth, plain and fur trimmed in black and all the better colors.

Below we give you a few styles and prices:

- One handsome model in plum colored Broadcloth, collar of grey Fox, full satin lined..... $80.00
- A beautiful black plush with collar and cuffs of grey fur, long roll collar and belted effect..... $60.00
- Good model in dark brown wool, velour collar and cuffs of deep heavy plush..... $42.50 a splendid coat for service.
- Another model comes in a new shade green wool velour, plush trimmed, with belted effect..... $32.50
a splendid value

OTHER SPLENDID MODELS $20.00 AND UP

WE ALSO HAVE IN AN EXCELLENT LINE OF NEW FALL AND WINTER SKIRTS, IN PLAIN AND PLAIDS, GOOD VALUES RANGING IN PRICE FROM $6.50 TO $10.50.

The Leavenworth Mercantile Co. THE BIG STORE

Born to Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Dickinson, last Wednesday, a boy.

A full line of school supplies at the old prices at the Racket store. aug. 30*

Mrs. M. Lake from Wenatchee arrived Monday and will spend several days with her friend, Mrs. J. C. Davis.

Mr. N. A. Pearson, candidate for prosecuting attorney, was suddenly stricken with appendicitis in Wenatchee, last Saturday and was taken to the Deaconess hospital, where he underwent an operation. He revived and is reported to be in a fair way to complete recovery, tho he will not be able to do any campaigning, before the primary election.

Mr. W. A. Fyfe, after living here three years ago left here in 1909, stopped off here Monday on his way home from Ottawa, Kas., after accompanying his father to Portland. His father is a veteran of the civil war and a member of the Grand Army and attended the Portland meeting last week. Mr. Fyfe says he notes many changes in Leavenworth, all in the way of improvement and betterment.

Mr. Chas. Cromwell returned last Sunday from Portland where he went to attend the Grand Army meeting. He is one of the comparatively few remaining in this section of that veteran band, who fought in the sixties to preserve the union as our boys are now fighting in France to preserve civilization. The trip to Seattle was made by auto with his son, Ellston and wife and grandson, Chas. Cromwell, Jr. From Seattle he went by rail to Portland. He is 77, but this is a secret, and don't tell anybody about it.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Moore, of Everett, arrived here Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Moore from the east where she has been on a visit and Mr. Moore from Everett. They will be guests at the Guy Stage home at Peshastin for a week. Mr. Moore has been coming here for several years to enjoy the fishing with Mr. Stage.

An octet motoring party consisting of Mrs. Kate Johnson and her son and daughter, Mrs. Annie Moyle Johnson, Miss Marie De Blois, Mrs. J. A. Duncan and others whose names would be hard to learn left Wednesday morning for the Red mountain country where huckleberries are said to abound and where also fishing is said to be good. They expect to return the last of the week.

Fresh and Cured Meats Poultry, Butter, Eggs Fish of All Kinds

A full line of Cooked Meats Pickles, etc.

The Sanitary Market

F. W. ROBINSON & CO.

[Members of Firm Formerly With J. B. Powles & Co.]
Specializing on Consignments of Asparagus, Berries, Cherries
And OTHER FANCY FRUITS IN SEASON
PROMPT RETURNS WITH CHECKS TWICE PER WEEK 1019 Western Avenue SEATTLE, WASH.

Mr. J. A. Motteler, of Yakima, nephew of F. T. Motteler, is here this week on a visit to his uncle. He is in the spruce division of the army and had been working near Raymond, Wash., where his ankle was recently crushed on a logging train. He is now on leave until he recovers from his hurt.

See the dinner ware in sets and open stock at the Racket store. aug. 30*

Minter Love and wife will leave today for the coast and spend several days in Seattle and Tacoma.

Charles Durand and his brother Inman motored here from Seattle last week and were guests of their brother Lyman Durand. They departed for home Wednesday with Miss Edna Pomeroy, their aunt, as their traveling companion. Miss Pomeroy purposes spending several weeks on the Sound.

Mrs. F. S. Scritsmeyer arrived from Portland, Oregon, and with the boys, is on one of those occasional visits to Mr. Scritsmeyer, who is marooned here as manager of the big saw mill.

The use of the park for pasturing stock should be prohibited. If one is allowed to use it for this purpose there is no reason why all should not be allowed to use it. Pasturing not only destroys the grass but litters it with manure, rendering it unfit for use as a playground for children.

Harvey Johnson, W. W. Kidder and other employes of the shingle mill at the foot of Lake Wenatchee, were here last Saturday. They tell us that the mill is running every day turning out shingles galore. But for the scarcity of help the mill would be running day and night.

Mr. and Mrs. Murcar arrived Saturday from Wenatchee where they spent the past two months, but they have decided to again make Leavenworth their home.

Glen Smith died at Steilacoom last Saturday. It will be recalled that he was sent there from Blewett last spring. He was suffering from an incurable malady, which affected his mind. While not violent it was tho he could have better care at the asylum than anywhere else.