RUSHING TOWARD AUTOCRACY

If the people of the United States of America are permitted to work out their own national life, without being amalgamated with internationalism with the loss of Americanism, we can in all probability help bring up gradually the lower order of some of the other nations.

We have been making rapid strides towards a well disseminated higher level of life, generally recognized as distinctly American.

The evolution of this was unmistakably rapid.

In the midst of the popular cry however, of democracy for all the world, we here in America under the slogan of "war necessity" are now rushing at most dangerous speed toward autocracy.

The ideal balance we were steadily approaching has suddenly given way to the popular idea of Bolshevism born of Russian despotism.

It is well to bear in mind that autocracy exists the moment any country is controlled wholly by the "higher ups" or wholly by the "lower downs."

Sudden transition from either one to the other is revolutionary and anarchistic.

The great question for the American people to decide is whether we shall continue the sound course which has given our national success the American brand, or are we about to revert to medieval procedure, when the state will completely obliterate American initiative and American individualism.—Denver News.

***** We must still save all the sugar possible for our Allies. During the shortage, honey and maple syrup make the best substitutes. Delicious cake can be made by using honey.

***** When a cup of syrup or honey is used to replace a cup of sugar the liquid in the recipes should be decreased one-fourth. One-third of a cup of sugar is equivalent to one-third of a cup of honey, about one-half cup of syrup and about one-half cup of corn sugar. One-fourth of a cup of sugar is equal to about one-half cup of syrup or one-third cup of corn sugar. One tablespoon of sugar is equal to one tablespoon of honey, about one and one-half tablespoons of syrup and one and one-third tablespoons of corn sugar.

***** Can your peaches without sugar. You can add sugar when it is more plentiful.

***** When canning huckleberries for pies, omit the sugar, add a pinch of salt to each jar and you will find it improves the flavor.

Green Tomato Marmalade.

***** Two lbs. green tomatoes cut in cubes, 2 tsp. bruised ginger root in cheese cloth bag, 2 c sugar, 2 lemons cut in thin slices. Put in stew kettle and cook slowly without stirring until ingredients are tender and mixture is thick. Pack in hot jars and sterilize.

THE CRIME OF WASTED ENERGY

Burning our coal and oil while leaving the waterpowers of the west undeveloped has been the crime of a decade.

Railroad Administrator McAdoo announces his conversion to the need of developing western waterpowers and operating railroads by electricity.

He announces that millions of tons of coal and barrels of oil should be saved by using the white coal wasting in our mountain streams.

One small western river is estimated to yield 500,000 horsepower, almost equal to Niagara, and a section of the Columbia river would yield 3,000,000 horsepower.

For ten years a political deadlock has tied up the development of this greatest of all national resources and brought about danger of a fuel famine.

Secretary McAdoo has been spending some time in the west and has had his eyes opened to the mighty volume of power that is lying idle in a time of great need.

While we are mobilizing the nation's manpower, it dawns on us that we should mobilize the wasting waterpowers.

WHY "PRUSSIANIZE" UNITED STATES

The California Research Society of Social Economics has been making an exhaustive study of so-called Social Health Insurance measure to be voted on in that state.

As measures of similar nature are being considered in this and other states. Consideration of the California situation is timely as it represents one of the most dangerous forms of paternalism yet proposed in this nation.

It develops that this amendment attempts to set up a commission superior to and not accountable to the courts, executive or people; it crucifies the initiative, which cannot be used to repeal or modify the amendment or any laws passed under its provisions.

There is no such wage poverty and misery here as that which made government charity insurance necessary in Germany and some other European countries.

In Germany, the only country where health insurance has been in effect long enough to prove anything, experience shows the sickness rate is higher than in the United States and other countries which have no compulsory insurance.

In Europe, the system has made fraud and malingering almost universal and many physicians who could not be induced to connive at dishonesty have lost their practice.

It will destroy medical freedom, compel the workmen to buy and pay for sickness insurance whether he wants it or not, and make his home subject to invasion by inquisitive political "inspectors" and investigators.

It has nothing to do with the Workmen's Compensations, two entirely different sets of principles being involved.

Farmers will not participate in its alleged benefits, but will be required to pay their share of the huge cost.

It will set up paternalism and destroy the independence and self-reliance of the people, because—"It is a made-in-Germany scheme of thirty years' standing designed by the Prussian autocracy to keep German serfs in perpetual serfdom."

What The Packers Do For You

Not very many years ago in the history of the world, the man that lived in America had to hunt for his food, or go without.

Now he sits down at a table and decides what he wants to eat; or his wife calls up the market and has it sent home for him. And what he gets is incomparably better.

Everyone of us has some part in the vast human machine, called society, that makes all this convenience possible.

The packer's part is to prepare meat and get it to every part of the country sweet and fresh—to obtain it from the stock raiser, to dress it, cool it, ship it many miles in special refrigerator cars, keep it cool at distributing points, and get it into the consumer's hands—your hands—through retailers, all within about two weeks.

For this service—so perfect and effective that you are scarcely aware that anything is being done for you—you pay the packers an average profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound above actual cost on every pound of meat you eat.

PLAYING A DANGEROUS GAME

Radical labor leaders threaten to call a general strike unless Thomas Jefferson Mooney is pardoned, the 100 convicted I. W. W.'s are released, and unless Rose Paster Stokes is released from jail.

Mooney was convicted of placing a time bomb to blow up the San Francisco preparedness parade, Bill Hayward and his noble 100 are found guilty of intriguing to defeat military preparation, and the Stokes woman of seditious utterances.

Labor leaders are asking the rank and file of labor unions to play a dangerous part when they threaten to use militant industrial methods to overturn the decrees of courts.

Criminal syndicalism and conspiracy to weaken our government in its hour of peril are not going to be allowed to escape the laws of our country, and it is a cruel blow to organized labor to place it in the attitude of defending and championing violence.

CONSERVATION OF EDUCATION

Western states are making a mistake trying to rival older and wealthier eastern states in expanding higher education.

Universities are luxuries that each state must support, but it is not good educational economy to turn out too many professionals.

Wealthy people who can afford to give their children classical or professional education should be made to pay for it as a luxury.

But to multiply this luxury indefinitely at public expense is not good policy, for all professionals have to be supported by others.

In the same way public schools should not be keyed up to turn out all book-keepers and stenographers, accountants and salesmen.

Boys and girls who are given a start as mechanics in wood or metal working, electricians, dressmakers, or culinary artists will get along.

To turn them all out of public schools ambitious for soft-handed public jobs or to make their living by their wits is a mistake.

There are not enough professional jobs to go around and not enough places at the public crib to put them all on salaries.

The agricultural colleges are turning out about 75 per cent. of persons who fill professional positions if they get any job at all.

The country needs more producers, potato raisers, cattle growers, truck gardeners, dairymen—real cow milkers, not milk pasteurizers.

The country is top heavy with a frightful expense for multiplying professional classes and the field for them is limited.

You can always get your money back—W. S. S.
